EVENING EDITION

MOTT ON THE REPUBLICAM NOM-INATIONS. The STAR has not thought it ne cessary to devote much space to the fight between the hungry factions of the moribund Radical party in North cat fight and the Democrats can stand off and rejoice, not "caring a continental" whether Loge Harris floors Mott or Mott knocks Loge into the middle of the next century. The war waxes warmer and bad temper is on top. Mott has issued another screed, the third, we believe, of the series. He addresses the "fire tried" as Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee. He goes for Harris and his tribe with ungloved paws, and strikes right out from the shoulder. He calls the Convention at Raleigh "an imposition." He says:

"Another evidence showing beyond dispute the insincerity, recklessness and utter bad faith to the party of the originators of this illicit convention business, is the qualication for judges of some of those named in the ticket. They are no more fit for the places than mountebanks are for soothsay-

"Hit 'em again," Dr. Mott, and hit them hard and often. He advises all of the "trooly loil" not to vote for the ticket put in nomination. Very good advice, considering that some of them have declined. Judge Bynum is a man of learning and ability and declines "the honor." Young Bullock, of Franklin, was nominated for the Superior Court Bench. He very | must go. properly declines upon the true ground that he has not sense enough to be a Judge. Some of the other weak brethren trotted out by the bogus body ought to make a similar declaration, for they know very little law and have very little capacity. Dr. Mott says:

"The duty, therefore, of every patriotic Republican is to decline to vote this ticket for Judges. The larger the vote for the ticket, the more certain it will end in the disruption of the party in the future, for the reason that the originators of the convention scheme are opposed to the policy of the party as indicated in its two last conventions, which policy the great mass of the party still adheres to and will never surrender. The lawful State Francisco Control of the lawful Sta The lawful State Executive Committee of which I am a member will certainly exercise its authority at the proper time, and no action or effort of this meeting in Raleigh can interfere to prevent it."

It is Loge Harris's time next and he will no doubt give Mott some "hefty blows" and leave his mark upon the political phiz of his Radical antagonist. It is a glorious fight and deserves to be celebrated in verse that would rival "Hudibras." Where is North Carolina's Butler to do the needed work?

FACTS-READ. The great changes wrought in New Hanover county by the return to the old County Government system of the fathers are so well known that perhaps it is not necessary to again present them. We will obtain if possible the statement for 1885, and refresh our readers with the facts. To-day let us consider briefly Warren county. The report published by Maj. Hale, in his excellent "Supplement" of 1882, is very full and elaborate. We think it was prepared for him by our old friend, Walter A. Montgomery, Esq. 'The following will show how well the change has worked in Warren:

From all of the above it appears conclusively that the annual county expenditures for ordinary purposes under Republican rule.....$10,800 18 And those under Democratic rule were ... 7,341 76

Showing an annual saving under Democratic rule..... $2,958 49 And that the annual expenditures for schools under Demorule were..... 4,615 Showing an annual increase of funds under Democratic rule. . $509.50 The public schools were more nu merous and more largely attended under the Democratic control.

In Granville county the Canby-

Carpet-bag system was ruinous. When the Republicans took control in 1865 the debt of the county was less than $5,000. They levied two special taxes for 1876 and 1877 amouting to $16,262 60. Just threefourths of this sum were wasted or stolen. It disappeared. By 1876 the county was in debt to the amount of $37,707 57. In December, 1878, the Democrats got control. By 1881 this debt had been reduced to less than $18,000.00. Under the Radicals the county bonds were hawked about the streets at a half or one-fourth their value. They soon rose to par debt has been probably extinguished before this.

Probably it is well to publish the following from the report of Mr. Horace A. Bagg, Chairman of County Commissioners of New Hanover Carolina. It is a regular Kilkenny county. It was made in August,

In view of facts like we are publishing is it not hard to restrain one's indignation at the very thought of breaking up such an excellent system and turning these counties again over to the old set that stole and squandered the hard earnings of the tax payers and oppressed them with burdens hard to be borne? Ought any man in these counties to be voted for by Democrats who proposes or favors such an infamous change? The Republicans in their Raleigh State Convention declared that the present excellent system

DEMOCRATIC JUDGES.

We publish the address of the Democratic State Executive Committee relative to supporting the State Judicial Ticket. It is well enough to draw attention to the matter, for it is very important that learned, honest, capable, sober men should be elected to hold the scales of justice in our courts. The bench of North Carolina has often been disgraced by drunken Judges, and it is to be hoped that never again will the people vote into such a position any man who cannot refrain from free potations and consequent ills. The Republicans have put dissipated men on both the Supreme and Superior Court benches, and as to the lower Court, they have put upon it men of the smallest capacity and with absolutely no legal learning

The Democratic candidates to be voted for next Tuesday for Supreme and Superior Court Judgships are men of high character every way, and are men of ability and learning as justices. It is a pleasure to say this because it is true. The Supreme Court Judges are men of the highest moral qualities, and are faithful, into Raleigh, and let New Hanover stitute a very fair average Court New York can carry the election and Pender send Huggins to the for ability and learning. The candi-think not. New York has been dates for the Superior Court Bench bar of the State and upon the people. Their praises can be heard in all of the counties where they have held court. Mr. James H. Merrimon, brother of Judge Merrimon, is gentleman of marked ability. We used to know him when he was the Democratic leader in the State Senate. His style of speaking is remarkably neat, terse, direct, and his mind is of singular clearness and vigor. We have considered him for fifteen years equal to any man of his age in the State with whom we were acquainted. If he does not prove himself an exceptionally able Judge we shall be disappointed. Of course all Democrats will support the

We are glad to see it stated by the Boston Post that there is a good prospect of electing six Tariff Reform Representatives from Massachusetts. It says the Reformers have a fighting chance in some other Districts. The significance of the change is that they will take the places of High Protectionists. Such a change in the delegation would indeed mark great progress in a State that has hitherto been given over to most extreme Protection views. The

"Leopold Morse from the third, Mr. Dacey-or Mr. Collins-from the fourth, Mr. Lovering from the sixth, Col. French from the seventh, Edward Burnett from the ninth, and John E. Russell from the tenth district, would make a delegation that would be a power in the Hou e of Representatives and creditably represent progressive Massachusetts sentiment.

THE PERIODICALS.

Lippincott's Magazine for November

marks a new departure in several particulars. It is very greatly enlarged and the price is increased. It contains some 190 pages, very neat pages at that, and is furnished to subscribers at $3 a year, postage paid. It is an entertaining monthly. But the great feature is that in addition to the regular monthly matter a complete novel published in each number by some popular author. "Bueton's Bayou," by John Habberton, heads the list, and novels by Mrs. Hodgson Burnett, Julian Hawthone, Mrs. Lucy C. Lillie, Mrs. A. L. Wister, Edgar Fawcett, etc., will follow. These novels will be procurable in no other form than in Lippincott's Magazine. They will be carefully selected, with regard to literary value, interest, and adaptability to the purpose. Subscribers may be sure of obtaining twelve excellent novels, each of which would readily retail in the ordinary way for $1.25 or $1.50 a volume, at the merely nominal price of 25 cents a number Short stories, essays, and sketches will be contributed by some of the best known American writers: Sidney Luska, Edgar Fawcett, Julian Hawthorne, H. H. Boyesen, Mary Agnes Tincker, Barnet Phillips, J. S. of Dale, Alice Wellington Rollins, F. C. Baylor, John Burroughs, Brander Matthews, etc., and poems by Austin Dobson, Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Edith M. Thomas, Helen Gray Cone, Edgar Fawcett, etc. For 25 cents you get a really large volume, includ ing clever novels. The author of "Helen's Babies" leads off, and that admirable story teller, Mrs. Burnett, follows in the Decem-

The Forum for November opens with a careful study of "Our Political Methods," by David Dudley Field. Dr. Leonard W. Bacon discusses "Prohibition, so-called." opposing it with vigor. "The Restoration of Silver" is a paper prepared by Richard P. Bland, M. C., so well known in his connection with the coinage of silver. President Timothy Dwight tells "How He Was Educated." Mr. Carroll D. Wright, the well known statistician, presents his views. of "Industrial Necessities." Professor F. H. Hedge takes up the subject that has proved so fruitful and interesting in England, "The Hundred Authors." The STAR some months since in more than one article, considered this subject. The Forum is a monthly Review of ability and dignity It moves very much on the same line that has made the North American Review so much sort after. The literary feature of both is small. Current topics of national importance are sought to be discussed. Price $5 a year. Address 97 Fifth Av.

CURRENT COMMENT. -- Mr. Henry George must regret very much that he ever crossed pens with Mr. Hewitt. The latter's two letters in reply to the shallow theories and vituperative criticisms of Mr. George have been manly, dignified, and statesmanlike, while having a practical force and vigor rarely manifested in political debate. It will be foolish to cast a vote for any other than Mr. Hewitt in the contest against Mr. George. - Providence Journal, Rep.

-- The Philadelphia Telegraph sneers at what it calls "the supposed good breeding of the F. F. V.'s"— an ill-contrived expression intended as a slur upon the people of Vir-ginia. We'll wager that the writer of those words was born in the slums. and that the companions of his youth are now serving their State in striped livery, an employment in which he himself, no doubt, will be some day engaged.—Richmond State, Dem.

STATE JUDICIAL TICKET.

RALEIGH, Oct. 19, 1886. To the Voters of North Carolina: As propriety does not permit can didates for judicial office in this State to plead for their election by speeches or writing, I beg to say a word in behalf of the Democratic candidates on our judicial tiket. Our candidates for Congress, for the Legislature, for the office of Solicitor and our other canvassers have told you what Democracy has done for the State and why its rule shall be continued-that it has settled our State debt; that it has restored our credit; that it has doubled our mileage of railways; that it has given us honest government; that it has reduced our taxes; that it has given us good schools, that it has given us peace at home and respectability abroad, &c., &c. These facts are all true and are a sufficient reason why Demscratic officers in all departments shall continue to serve us. Nothing is more important to any people than a pure fearless and able judiciary. Such a bench we now have in North Carolina and the voters of the State must see to it that this blessing is con tinued to us. It is needless to do more than pronounce the names of our candidates for the Supreme Court, the jurists who now constitute that court, Smith, Ashe and Merrimon; their integrity, courage, wisdom and legal learning is conceded by all. Their industry is a marvel to the profession. Nor need anything be said in praise of Avery and Graves, who have served many years as Superior Court Judges and are known and respected throughout our borders, nor of Connor, Clark, Boykin and Montgomery, whose service has not been so long, but whose praises are in the mouths of the people in every county in which they have held court. The only candidate we present, who has not already served on the bench, is James H. Merrimon, of Buncombe, and his high character at home, his ability as displayed in our State Senate and his large and successful practice in the mountain counties and in the Supreme Court are sufficient guaranty of his competency and fitness for the position. I would not criticise the gentlemen whose names are presented as their opponents; but I hazard nothing in saying that no well informed man should hesitate in making a choice between the two tickets, and that some of these gentlemen are unknown to the legal profession even outside the counties whose courts they attend.

At one time it seemed probable that our ticket would have no opposition; but opposing candidates have been named, and it is the duty of our friends to see to it that by no accident, any one of our candidates is defeated. And it is due to them from all law-loving voters that they be complimented by the largest vote ever given for any candidates in the R. H. BATTLE.

Chm'n Dem. State Ex. Com. SENATOR VANCE AT EDEN. TON.

N. Y. Star's Special.

EDENTON, N. C., Oct. 25.—Senator Zebulon B. Vance, who spoke here to day to a mass of citizens of both races, received a greeting such as would lead a stranger in this section of country to believe, after seeing and hearing him, that the oft published statement that he is the idol of the Democratic party of North Carolina is a fact. Business was virtually suspended in order that everybody could hear the junior Senator, and people came from a hundred miles or more for that purpose. That the South has no more able or popular speaker is certain.

Senator Vance, and I believe I interpret his speech correctly, is, as are a majority of the people in North Carolina, thoroughly in accord with the New York Star on the tariff question. Tariff reform is the cry. The people are opposed to Congressman Randall for his position on the tariff. The main issue in the election of Congressmen in the state is the reduction of the tariff on imported goods. Randall is denounced for his atti tude in voting against any reduction or modification of it, The intolerable burdens are now crushing the life out of the energy and pluck of the country. He is regarded as a dangerous man by the North Carolina Democracy, dangerous because of his ability and standing in the country, and, to use the words of an ex-Congressman from the Second North Carolina district, "he is no Democrat, and should either train with the party or join the Republi-

- There is nothing that the manufacturers of Europe have so much reason to fear as a change of the tariff policy of this country by putting wool, hemp, jute, and other raw materials of production, on the free list. Train Derailed in Minnesota and a Passenger Coach Telescoped at Both Ends-Seven Lives Known to be Lost -Harrowing Scenes as Related by a Pastenger-Narrow Escape of a Man and Two Children. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 28.-The limited passenger train on the Chicage, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, which left here last night at 10 o'clock, was derailed at Rio, when about three hours out, and thrown into an old stone quarry. Particulars are hard to get, but it is admitted at the general office of the Company, in this city, that one coach and three alcohol. and three sleepers were wrecked and that five or six persons were killed. Physicians left this city on the early train for the scene MILWAUKER, Oct. 28 .- It is now report ed that out of ten persons who occupied the passenger coach seven were killed. A gentleman from Chicago, and two children from Winona, were the only ones saved from the passenger coach. None of the occupants of the sleepers were injured. Nothing has yet been learned in regard to the number wounded.

So far the particulars of the wreck are very meagre. There is reason to believe that the loss of life is greater than at first reported, although the wildest stories are in circulation. It is said the most distressing and harrowing scenes took place after the wreck. The accident is the first one to the new Limited Express, which runs at a very high rate of speed. MILWAUKEE, October 28.—B. Lowen bach, a job printer of this city, was on the wrecked train. He says the scenes after the accident were harrowing. The passenger coach, which he says contained between fifteen and twenty persons, was telescoped at both ends, and the fire and smoke that enveloped the wreck prevented the im prisoned and injured passengers from escaping. Passengers from the sleepers gathered around the blazing cars, but were powerless to render assistance. Men and women could be seen tearing their hair in the agony of the moment, and frightful scr.ams issued from the death trap. One heavy woman in particular, he says, tore up one of the seats with almost superhuman strength, and endeavored to break her way out of the flaming pyre, but her strength failed and she fell to the floor and met a horrible death. Only three persons escaped from the passenger car, Mr. Lowenbach says, a man and two children. The man was observed as he forced his way through the ventilator on the top of the car, with all of the clothing on his body from his waist downward burned off, and his flesh roasted and bleeding from cuts inflict ed by broken glass. Every one of the wrecked cars were consumed with the exception of the last sleeper, which was cut away from the burning wreck. All of the bodies of the victims were burned in the

Scenes Incident to the Inauguration of the Bartholdi Statue-The City Elaborately Decked in Flags, Streamers and Bunting-Thousands of People Fill the Streets-The Weather Unpromising for the Festivities. (By Telegraph to the Morning Star.)

New York. Oct. 28 -The rain storm which prevailed all day yesterday ceased during the night, but the weather this morning is very unpromising for the festivities which are to attend the inauguration of the Bartholdi statue. A slight fog hangs over the city and obscures in a measure the elaborate decorations of the buildings with which the city has been beautified. French and American flags are flying from house tops and windows in every direction, and a general holiday appearance is presented by the moving bodies of soldiers, militia and civic organizations and by the collection on the sidewalks of great crowds of people.

The decorations of the City Hall are very elaborate. Long streamers and flags have been hung from the Federal building opposite, along the main street, through which the procession will march. A magnificent arch of evergreens, flags and mottoes is erected in front of the World building, which is tastefully decorated with flags and bunting. The French flag flies from the flagstaff of the Tribune building, and the Sun, Times, and Mail and Express newspaper offices are all similarly decorated. In lower Broadway and Wall streets many of the fronts of large buildings are almost hidden by flags. Business is almost entirely suspended The public schools are closed, and all New York is taking part in the celebration. Visitors from all sections of the country have been coming into the city for two days past, and this morning thousands more were added to the great throng, the prospects of unpleasant weather in no way de-terring them.

The pain was incessant, causing loss of sleep and producing great nervous prostration. Accompanying this trouble was rheumatism. It had passed from the shoulders and centered in the wrist of one hand, she almost losing the use of it. Between the suffering of the two, life had grown burdensome. By the use of a half dozen small-sized bottles of Swift's Specific she was entirely relieved and restored to heaith. This was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease.
