

MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The factory troubles in Augusta, Ga., have been settled. — The bitter feeling existing between the Gentry and Heard Democratic factions in Missouri came very near resulting in bloodshed. — Jno. Jarrett, ex-President of the amalgamated association of iron and steel workers, attributes the defeat of Congressman Hurd and Morrison to the growing sentiment in favor of the tariff in the South and West. — Illinois elects six Democratic and fourteen Republican Congressmen. — Nothing definite can be stated in regard to Carlisle's election until the official count is completed. — The Chickasaw Coopers Works at Memphis, Tenn., burned; loss $100,000. — The general agent of the Peabody Educational Fund reports $32,365 distributed during the past year. — President Cleveland will attend Harvard College celebration and will be entertained by the city of Boston. — The boiler of a locomotive on the Texas Pacific Road exploded, killing the engineer and a brakeman. — The French guests visited President Cleveland, who responded to an eloquent address by De Lesseps. — One of the ex-Aldermen of New York, indicted for bribery, is declared insane. — The Secretary of the Democratic Congressional Committee says that the Democrats will have a good working majority in the next House of Representatives. — New York market: Money 2@9 per cent; cotton steady at 84@85 1/2c; wheat No. 2 red 83@84; No. 3 red 81@82; southern flour not quoted; corn 1 1/2@1 1/4; lower; No. 2 November 45 1/2@46; rosin dull at $1 00@1 07 1/2; spirits turpentine dull at 37 1/2c.

Elections were held in 35 States on Tuesday.

The black eye the New York Times got relieves our distress no little.

The election on Tuesday will hardly be claimed as an Administration victory.

It is a grievous mistake to suppose that a politician can tote water on both shoulders.

The New York World owes it to itself to dish Crawford, its man in charge of its Washington correspondence.

The Democrats must do better in 1888. The lesson of 1886 is that no party can win that does not fight on principle.

With a good ticket all around in 1888 the Democrats may win. They will have at least a good fighting chance.

Unless Democrats abide by the decisions of Conventions in good faith party organization is destroyed and no party can win.

Lowe's friends say that he will not marry the English peeress who has already had two husbands. Hawthorne is probably sorry.

Thorndike Rice, the millionaire who publishes the Republican North American Review, has been left at home. This is good—very good.

The big papers scouted and laughed at Henry George's candidacy, but he made an excellent race—better than any other man could have done probably.

We cannot express our deep regret over the defeat of Carlisle and Morrison, the two leaders of the Democracy in the House. It is a great calamity to the party and to the country.

After 1st December next Chief Justice Waite and Justices Bradley ("altruistic") Miller and Field are eligible for retirement. But will they retire? "Not if the court knows herself."

The election of Abram Hewitt as Mayor of the greatest American city gives much satisfaction to the Democracy generally. We would suppose that his triumph will bring his name to the front as a possible candidate for the Presidency in 1888.

With Carlisle, Morrison, Hewitt, Tucker, Barbour, Bennett and other leading, brainy men in the present House left out of the next House the Democrats will lack for leaders of experience and high ability. Of course there will be still some men of this kind left, but it will make a great blank to have these able men removed.

The Democrats have not voted. That is the cause of the political earthquake. In Masonboro township there were but 65 votes polled, when the full vote is 125. It is a Democratic township but it went Republican. Over half of the Democrats remained at home. Gen. Apathy, Colonel Disgust and Major Indifference were in command this year. What gave them prominence?

We had the pleasure of a visit from Maj. Gen. Cullen Battle, of Alabama formerly, but now of Wadesboro, this State. He is a distinguished Confederate, and is of good North Carolina stock. His father was Dr. Colina Battle, of Edgecombe. Gen. Battle is the agent for Gen. Long's forthcoming Life of Gen. Robert E. Lee, the knightliest soldier of the world.

There is no doubt of wide-spread dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks. It is not confined to any one State. Democrats feel disappointed and hundreds of thousands have become indifferent. In Washington the Southern men are laying all of the calamities upon the Cleveland Administration. This is unjust in part. The Knights of Labor and Prohibition have had a hand in the Democratic disaster. At Raleigh Knights of Labor who have been life-long Democrats voted for John Nichols, one of the most thoroughly wowed, bitter Radicals in all North Carolina. And so in many other places. No doubt the defeat of many Representatives is owing to the discontent of Democrats at the course of Mr. Cleveland.

Game birds are said to be abundant. Cotton receipts yesterday were 1,008 bales. The collection of State and County taxes will now be resumed with renewed diligence. Rev. D. H. Tuttle will preach at Brooklyn Methodist chapel this evening, at half-past seven o'clock. The rumor that Anthony Howe, Jr., had been arrested in New York City is discredited at the Court House.

A good Democrat will wait until all the returns are in before he gives thought to a Thanksgiving turkey.

Mr. C. C. Lyon, Democrat, is elected to the House of Representatives from Bladen county by over 100 majority.

In the Mayor's Court yesterday, Ann Williams and Dave Martin, both colored, were fined five dollars each for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The woman paid her fine and was discharged, while Martin was locked up in default of payment.

A Deserved Tribute. Capt. James Knight, so long and so prominently connected with the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, was the recipient last evening of a handsome tribute from Mr. W. T. Walters, a director of the company. All the prominent officials of the Atlantic Coast Line, and all employees of the system located here, assembled in the large dining room of the Coast Line at the depot and the throng was augmented by the presence of a number of ladies and prominent citizens of Wilmington.

Hon. Geo. Davis presented the testimonial to Capt. Knight on behalf of Mr. Walters, and hailed feelingly to his own knowledge of the recipient's worthiness as well as to the significance of the compliment coming from such a source. Mr. Davis' speech was of course in every way admirable and felicitous, and Mr. Walters is to be congratulated on having so able and distinguished a representative.

Hon. R. R. Bridgers responded on behalf of Capt. Knight, and made a feeling reference to his own relations with the recipient, alluding to Capt. Knight's long service and unequalled record, and returning thanks both to Mr. Walters and Mr. Davis for the matter and the manner of their compliments.

The testimonial is in the shape of a handsome, elegantly embossed silver pitcher and server with the engraving of an engine and tender, and the letters "W. & W. R. R." inscribed on the latter. The silver bears also the inscription which is undoubtedly of all, most highly prized by Captain Knight:

CAPTAIN JAMES KNIGHT, From His Friend, W. T. Walters. A testimonial to his "never having been found wanting" during half a century's railroad service. Oct. 1886.

After the speeches and while the guests were examining the testimonial, Mr. T. D. Mann, Superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line Restaurants, and Mr. P. E. Kiley, Manager of the Dining Saloon here, served an elegant repast, during which numerous toasts were drunk to the good health and long life of James Knight, the veteran and popular railroad man.

The River. Reports by steamer from up the river yesterday were that the water is again at a very low stage—only about four inches higher on the shoals than before the recent heavy rains. Boats, however, manage to get through from Fayetteville, but with considerable trouble.

The steamers A. P. Hurt and Murchison arrived yesterday afternoon; both with good freights.

Earthquake Shock. Several persons stated yesterday that a slight shock of earthquake was felt Wednesday night about 9 o'clock. One gentleman said that the tremor was accompanied by a low rumbling noise like distant thunder. The shock was strong enough to make windows rattle.

Personal. Hon. T. D. McDowell was in the city yesterday. We were glad to welcome him to the STAR office.

But your knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pain, quiet sleep, and the parents broken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which follows the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as 'bright as a button.' And during the process of teaching the value is inculcated. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teaching stage, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists, 25 cents a bottle.
