Railroad Projects in which Wilmington is Interested.

It is given out that the management of the Carolina Central Railroad have ordered that a preliminary survey should be made at once for the proposed extension of this road from Rutherfordton to Asheville; and upon the estimates so made the company will base its conclusions. After Rutherfordton is reached there will be only forty miles to construct to extend to Asheville, and railroad men think that there is little doubt but that the road will be built. Buncombe county, it is said, will-give $100,000 towards this enterprise, which will put Wilmington in close direct connection with

It is said that the friends of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad Company are arranging for the extension of their system from Norfolk, Va., to Jack. sonville. Fla., and the great Pennsylvania Railroad corporation is backing them up. The new route, it is said, will be indepen. dent of all other lines, and the most direct that can be chosen. In some quarters it is regarded as only a scheme on the part of the Pennsylvania Railroad to bring the Atlantic Coast Line to terms. Other persons, however, think that the road will be built, running down the coast from Norfolk and following the line on which it was intended that the Wilmington and Charleston Railroad should be built. In this event Wilmington would have another great through line to the North, which could not fail to add to its commercial importance.

An effort is now being made to secure the right of way into Atlanta for the Georgia, Carolina & Northern Railroad. It is part of an extensive plan of railroad extension. It will be built direct from Atlanta to Athens, thence to Monroe, N. C., on the Carolina Central. Mr. Hoke Smith, the attorney for the company, says: "The money for building the road is already provided, the surveying parties are already in the field and we simply await this charter, which I feel sure will not be denied us.

The present field officers of the regiment are Col. W. C. Jones, of Wilmington; Lieut. Col. McRae, of Shoe Heel, and Major Cook, of Fayetteville.

A movement is on foot to buy new uniforms for the entire regiment, and it is understood that an effort will be made to get the companies to attend the national drill to be held in Washington next May. Military organizations from all parts of the country will participate in this affair. Already one hundred separate organizations, representing twenty-seven States, have given notice of their intention to be present. Sudden Brath.

Mr. C. D. Brownley, of Wilson, N. C., died very suddenly at the Rock Spring Hotel yesterday evening at thirty five minutes past 6 o'clock. The cause of his death is said to have been hemorrhage of the brain. Mr. Brownley arrived at the hotel Sunday from Wilson, and was apparently in good health; but in the evening he was taken with bleeding at the nose, which continued through the night. Yesterday h was better, and arose, dressed himself and went into the dining room to breakfast. Shortly aftewards, however, he had another attack of hemorrhage, blood issuing in quantities from his mouth and nostrils. Physicians were summoned and remedies applied, but without avail.

Mr. Brownley was well and favorably known in Wilmington. He was a contractor and builder, and came here, it is understood, for the purpose of taking a contract on the new Methodist Church. The new Champion Compress building was built by Mr. Brownley.

A small but appreciative audience greete Miss Kate Castleton and her Crazy Patch company at the Opera House last night. It was one of those farcical comedies in which the stage of the present abounds-s play replete with side-splitting scenes and ridiculous situations. The fun of the play is constant and irresistible, and its fresh ness keeps the audience in a continued uproar. The play is "constructed for laughing purposes only" and it fills the bill exactly. Miss Kate Castleton is a pretty and vivacious soubrette, and sang and danced herself into popular favor. She is well supported throughout, and the company is the strongest of its kind seen here this season. WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW:—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels.
