Or sit on the rocks for a quiet talk.
'Twas always, "So jolly of you, you know.
Indeed, I'd be only too happy to go, But, you see, I have an engagement."

The summer flew on, as summers do,
And lover and despair to anguish grew,
At the thought of the winter's estrangement: .

So he asked her one night to be his bride, And go through life with him at her side; Her laugh rang out on the evening air, As she showed him a ring on her finger fair.
And murmured, "I have an engagement."

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

The Wilmington STAR and several other leading papers have voiced their unmistakable opposition to a re-lease. If the lease is not renewed will the R. & D. build a connecting link between Winston and Statesville? The answer to this question will have considerable bearing upon the position our people are likely to take in the matter. — Winston Sentinel.

The Wilmington STAR says: "Arch-bishop Corrigan, of New York, has issued a pastoral letter in which he warns his people against unsound ideas of the rights of property." "Unsound ideas" underlie all the crookedness which men manifest as to "rights of property" and rights of many other things. Right principles are in dan-ger on every hand. It is almost useless, it would seem, to warn men against dangers which beset them. There is one great Straight Edge by which men and principles are to be tried: "The word of the Lord is right, and all His works are done in truth." Society has drifted away from the great Test, and hence "right ideas" are lost.—

Greensboro Workman.

We fear that the whole thing indicates a continuance of discriminating freight rates in favor of Richmond against all North Carolina towns and cities that want to sell goods to Western North Carolina. If the Richmond & Danville syndicate intends to continue to run North Carolina railroads in the especial favor of Richmond and Virrinia, it will have fewer friends in North Carolina as time rolls on. The management which has just been superseded was more popular with our people than the old one, or the one which seems to be reinstated. We are certainly kindly disposed towards railroads, and think that juries often do them injustice, but we want them to act fairly with our North Carolina business people, especially while using lines of road built with North Carolina money.— Charlotte Democrat.

WIVES, TRY IT.

Wytheville (Va.) Enterprise. Wife, do you make your husband's home a place of rest after the toils of the day have been concluded? Do you by kind words and a cheerful smile light his pathway, as he struggles along, often weary, often fainthearted and, oh, a thousand times almost ready to dispair and say within himself, I cannot go farther?

Do you help him try, "To climb the steep, Where fame's proud temple shines afar ?" If you have not, try it for one short month, and see if you will not profit by the experience.

Men are singular creatures; so singular that one kind word, or one cheerful smile, would make them dare to swim through rivers of blood, make them dare to risk all that is near and dear to them, when a commanding word, or a request couched in language not the neatest, would raise the rebellious spirit within them at once. Wives encourage your husbands.

The Night Life of Young Men.

Exchange. One night often destroys a whole ife. The leakage of the night keeps the day forever empty. Night is sin's harvest time. More sin and crime are committed in one night than in all the days of the week. This is more emphatically true of the city than of the country. The street lamps, like a file of soldiers, with torch in hand, stretch away in long lines on Davie—Hillis, rep.

The city under the gaslight is not the same under God's sunlight. The allurements and perils and pitfalls of night are a hundred fold deeper and darker and more destructive. Night life in our cities is a dark problem, whose depths and abyeses and whirlpools make us start back with horror.

COTTON.

N. Y. Commercial and Financial Chronicle NEW YORK, Nov. 27 .- The movement of the crop, as indicated by our telegrams from the South to-night, is given below. For the week ending this evening (Nov. 26) the total receipts have reached 280,262 bales, against 268,596 bales last week, 273,-550 bales the previous week, and 2,425,282 bales for the same period of 1885, showing an increase since Sept. 1, 1886, of 12,592 bales.

The exports for the week ending this evening reach a total of 186,463 bales, of which 130,066 were to Great Britain, 9,715 to France and 46,682 to the rest of the Continent.

To day Liverpool was stronger, and our market advanced smartly, but the close was at some reaction from best prices, owing to the rapid accu-mulation of stocks in Southern markets. Cotton on the spot has been very dull, with prices nominally unchanged, and closes quiet at 9 3-16c. for middling uplands.

Total sales for forward delivery for the week are 376,300 bales.

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salen Press. The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

—Uharlotte Democrat. The Wilmington Star has entered on tatwelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register

The Wilmington Stan has entered upon its thir teenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette. The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington Stan is not only one of the be edited papers in the State, but for freshness news and typograpical appearance cannot beaten.—Jackson Reporter. The Wilmington Stan is one of the very best pa pers in the South, in every department from typo graphy up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

The Wilmington (N. C.) MORNING STAR is a mod el newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald. The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—

We like the Star because it is thoroughly re liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect news-paper. Long may the Star twinkle.—Mt. Airy

Although at the nead of the press in this Stat in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magnitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baptist. The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South.—Hobsonian.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina tournalism.—Charlotte Observer. That magnificent beaming Star has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerns.

The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's Observer.

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Beidsville Times The Wilmington STAB, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—

Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—

Bichmond (Va.) State. Remond (Va.) State.

2 The Wilmington Star has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news newspapers that comes to this office. Its news a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial degartment is conducted with much ability.—Morganton Flads.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of for fane that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the Star has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a neweraper it has few equals, and no superior, for appraints selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most accepts ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness,—Goldsboro Messenger.

Agricultural Weeklies. THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the Leading Journal of American Agriculture. In amount and practical value of Contents, in extent and ability of Correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the FIRST RANK. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions of

while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology, Bee-keeping, Greenhouse and Grapery, Veterinary Replies, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the News of the Week. Its Market Reports are unusually complete, and much attention is paid to the Prospects of the Crops, as throwing light upon one of the most important of all questions—WHEN TO BUY AND WHEN TO SELL. It is liberally illustrated, and is intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a
