Go, lavely rose! Tell her that wastes her time and me, That now she knows When I resemble her to thee How sweet and fair she seems to be.

Tell her that's young And shuns to have her graces spy'd, That hadet thou sprung In deserts, where no men abide, Thou must have uncommended dy'd.

Small is the worth Of beauty from the light retir'd: Bid her come forth: Saffer berself to be desired. And not blush so to be admired.

Then die! that she The common fate of all things rare May read in thee: How small a part of time they share, That are so wondrous, sweet and fair!

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

One of the greatest drawbacks to material progress in North Carolina is the unwillingness of many of our people to get out of their stereotyped ways-methods that were used in past years and deemed practicable and the best modes at that time. But he times are changing. New and improved methods of farming are crowding upon us. Economical plans are being adopted, but many of our people are loth to give up the old ways for the new. We might cite, for instance, the no-fence law. In many counties it has worked well, and we could name some counties where the farmers would not go back to the old plan. This has been brought to our attention by the trouble experienced in some counties and the drawing of the question into politics, as was done in the last campaign. The opponents of the law are not willing to get out of the old ruts of farming. - Charlette Chromicia

John R Webster, Speaker of the House of Representatives, says that he is a Sam Randail Democrat. Well, there is no one to dispute the assertion; for one we believe it. But if we were Webster we should hesitate a long time before declaring ourself a decree lower than a Republican .- Tartore Southerner

It may be questioned whether the ends of justice would not be better served by a professional jury than by the jury as empanelled under the present law. It is not incommon to see a jury sitting on the triat f a prisoner composed in part of unintelgent men who, for lack of ability to weigh the points of the evidence are inclined to disagree to a verdict of guilty under the mistaken idea that they are giving the prisoner at the bar the benefit of a reasonable doubt - Dundury Reporter.

Let no State or District Board assess the value of our property. Let the county Board attend to that business. What does John Jones in Cherokee know of the value property in Halifax, or Bill Smith in Halifax know of the value of property in Cherokee?-Seotland Neck Democrat

We would not be understood as engaged in the advocacy of covering imperfections and thereby aiding in their perpetuation. We are in favor of discussing them and removing them. We are not, never have been and never expect to be, an abettor in the defense and continuance of any injurious measure of State policy, fallen upon by the Democratic party, save in subservience to the principle it is our duty to advocate that action which will work the greatest good to the greatest number .- Monroe Enquirer Express — Charlotis Democrat.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on tatwelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thir teenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gasette. The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth rear. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight. The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be besten.—Jackson Reporter.

The Wimington Star is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typo graphy up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal. The Wilmington (N. C.) MORNING STAR is a mod el newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exagerate its merits when we say it is the newsissi (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald. The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly re liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor.

Although at the head of the press in this Stat in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baptist.

The Stan is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South.—Ecohemnian. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina tournalism.—Chariotte Observer.

That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the pa-per surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner. The Wilmington Stan is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has be-sides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Chariot's Observer.

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington STAB. It has just reached one of its with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Felds ville Times

The Wilmington Star, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South—Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Ster are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) STAR, the Washington Ster, the Fredericksburg Ster, New York Ster, for example. There must be something in a name after all. Bichmond (Va.) State. The Wilmington Stab has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the Stab very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fulier than those of the role of the rol any other of our exchanges, and its editorial de agreement is conducted with much ability .- Mcr-Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of for tune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newgaper it has few equals, and no superior, for apprepriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptate.

we are proud to rank it among our most acceptal ble exchanges. - Hillsboro Recorder The Wilmington Morning Stan has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it apon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the STAR is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the STAR (rightfultion to business. The boast of the STAR (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and ts corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the STAR never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness,—Goldsboro Messenger.
