OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

The presumption is our Department of Agriculture grows in usefulness as it accumulates years and experience, but that usefulness is yearly frittered away to a great extent by carping and harsh criticisms. Alf of its plans and operations are stabled seriously, some of them fatally, before they can be tested. We do not think the Department is the recipient of fust or generous treatment. It is indeed easy to pull down and destroy, but a difficult thing to build up. Let the Department alone; give it time to develop and percet its plans; and it will be

What we want is a jury system which shall enable courts of justice to arrive at truth in defiance of the sophisms of learned, ingenious, and elequent lawyers. To incure this most desirable result, juries must be composed of men of character and intelligence. A citizen bicause he is a citizen has no more right to serve on the jury than on the beach. The judge determines the law and the jury the facts of the case. Both are weighted with a great responsibility. and ought to be well qualified to bear it .-Hickory Press.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS: The Stan is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press. The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year as good a paper as any people should want. Wilmington Stan has entered on tstwelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register

The Wilmington Stan has entered upon its thir teenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gasetie. The Wilmington STAS has entered its twenty fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Twoic. The Wilmington Stan has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchight.

The Wilmington Stan is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Ecorter. The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best pa pers in the South, in every department from typo graphy up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Indez-Aspeal. The Wilmington (N. C.) Morning Star is a mod el newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsissi (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald. The Wilmington STAR has now entored upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.-We like the STAB because it is thoroughly re liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAB twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor.

Although at the nead of the press in this Stat in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best da! lies in the South.—Robesonian. The Wilmington Stan has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina iournalism.—Obariotic Observer. That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dallies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Turboro Southerher. The Wilmington Star is now taking the regular midnight associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter.

The Star is an excellent paper. Its prosperity in not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reids ville Times The Wilmington Star, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Stan, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.— Richmond (Va.) State. The Wilmington STAR has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still contin ues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuher than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial de-aurtment is conducted with much ability.—Mrrfumble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of for tune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the Star has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a neweraper it has few equals, and no superior, for apprepriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptate be exchanged.—IRLieboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Monnine STAR has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Stan is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Stan (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are theretaken all reporters are new many first thing in the standard newspaper men. Agricultural Weeklies.

THE COURTRY GENTLEMAN is the Leading Jour-nal of American Agriculture. In amount and practical value of Contents, in extent and ability of Correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the FIRST RANK. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions of FARM CROPS AND PROCESSES. HORTICULTURE & FRUIT-GROWING,

LIVE STOCK AND DAIRYING, while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomo logy, Bee-keeping. Greenhouse and Grapery, Veterinary Replies, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the News of the Week. Its Market Reports are unusually complete, and much attention is paid to the Prospects of the Crops, as throwing light upon one of the most important of all questions—WHEN TO BUY AND WHEN TO SELL. It is liberally illustrated, and is intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a LIVE AGRICULTURAL NEWSPAPER. Although the COUNTRY GENTLEMAN has been GREATLY ENLARGED by increasing its size from 16 to 20 pages weekly, the terms continue as heretofore, when paid strictly in advance: One Copy, one year, $2.50; Four Coples, $10, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club; Ten Copies, $20, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club.

PUBLISHED AT

STATESVILLE, IREDELL CC N. U

Leading Newspaper in Western North Carolina. It is the only Democratic Paper published I Iredell County—one of the largest and wealthfest counties in the State—and has attained a larger local circulation than any paper ever hereto published in the county. Its circulation in Alexander, Wilkes, Ashe, Alloghany, Yadkin, Davie and Iredell, is larger than that of any two papers in the State combined; and is rapidly acquiring a strong foothold in Forsythe Surry, Rowan and western Mecklenburg. It is the only paper in Western North Carolina that employs a REGULAR CANVASSING AGENT, and thus keep constantly before the people. Unser this system a rapidly increasing circulation is the result, making the LANDMARK.
