The Japanese Wedding. The "Japanese Wedding" and outertain-ment given by the ladies of the First Methodest church at the City Hall last night attracted a great many people, the spacions hall being crowded with ladies and gentlemen from the opening to the close of the feativities. The affair was a pronounced success and those who had it in charge have every reason to be proud of its man-

The Wedding-a pantomime-in which some sixteen persons participated, was delightfully novel and interesting. The bride and 'groom and their attendants were all dressed in Japanese costumes, procured especially for the occasion.

The Cornet Concert Club, under the lead ership of Mr. James Wilson, added a great deal to the enjoyment of the evening. The band was present in full force, and furnished excellent music. The bright new uniforms of the members lending no little to the brilliant display.

The hall was decorated with Japanese drapery, fans and other aticles. The tables were laden with a variety of refreshments and delicacies, and were by no means among the lesser attractions.

The whole entertainment gave such general satisfaction, that the managers annonnce that it will be repeated this evening at half-past 8 o'clock.

Bound Over to Court. The colored man Ed. Stanley, whose outrageous treatment of a small boy last Wednesday evening created a great deal of excitement in the neighborhood of Fourth and Church streets, was arrested yesterday, on warrants charging him with assault and battery on the boy-John Devane-and assault and battery with a deadly weapon on Mr. Autony De Staffeno. The cases were investigated by Justice Millis, who required Stanley to give bond in the sum of $50 fo his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court to answer to the charge preferred by Mr. De Staffeno, and suspend ed judgment in the case of assault on the MOTHERS: MOTHERS: MOTHERS:—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a stok child suffering and crying with the exeru clating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTH-ING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere.
