OUTLINES.

River pirates and outlaws on the Mississippi river have robbed and murdered a number of laborers employed on the Mississippi river levees. — Joseph Bingham, of the Indianapolis Sentinel, committed suicide yesterday. — Henry Ward Beecher is seriously ill. — Three attempts have been made to set on fire the Pennsylvania Railroad's ferry house and passenger depot at Jersey City. — Six new cases of cholera and four deaths in the last twenty hours at Catania, Sicily. — A military explosion in Belgium caused the death of one hundred and forty-four persons. The victims died from suffocation. — New York markets: Money 3@4 per cent; cotton firm at 9 11-16@9¾c; southern flour dull and moderately active; wheat higher No. 2 red April 93½@93¾c; corn: No. 2 March 50@50¼c; rosin dull; spirits turpentine firm at 39c.

The Austrian Minister says his country must arm quickly and be ready for the worst.

The Senate stands 37 Democrats, 37 Republicans, including Riddleberger and not counting Tarpie.

Senator Rufus Blodgett, of New Jersey, says he is a staunch Democrat and was never anything else.

Says the Fayetteville Southerner: "That horse is sixteen feet high." "You mean hands." "Did I say feet, then I look to it."

The Pope will take a favorable view, it is telegraphed from Rome, of the Knights of Labor and the attitude of Cardinal Gibbons.

We have never yet met a man who did not think himself specially qualified to do two things—edit a newspaper and pronounce upon the merits of verse.

Dr Armstrong indignantly denies that he is a victim to a cholotism, and announces his preference to be a citizen of Atlanta rather than a priest of the church elsewhere.

Sir G. O. Trevelyan, Macaulay's nephew and biographer, has written a letter urging a reuniting of the Liberal party. He was one of the seceders from the Gladstone Cabinet.

Archbishop Croke advises the non-payment of taxes in Ireland. This gets Salisbury, and he will appeal to the Pope. The latter has just celebrated his tenth year of the Pontificate.

The latest attempt to pension Mrs. Logan failed, as it ought to have done. She is no more deserving of a pension than a score or two of other widows of Federal Generals who are not as rich as she is.

President Cleveland is said to be the only President who has been too great to require advisers or to take advice. Washington, Madison, Jefferson and Jackson had personal friends whose opinions they sought.

Miss Margaret Mather, the somewhat celebrated actress, has just secretly married Emil Habercon. She will after the stage fashion continue to be Miss Mather, even if she does Habercorn. We tried to miss that.

John M. Langston, educated and leading negro, writes to the N. Y. Herald that the only way to capture the negro vote is to give one of them a Cabinet appointment. We have no reason to suppose that it would be distasteful to the President.

The Methodists of Richmond met the other day to raise $25,000 that were needed for Randolph Macon College. They raised $25,000. That is $20,000 more than 90,000 Methodists have raised in five years for Trinity College. But contrasts are not desirable and comparisons are invidious.

What sort of civilization must that be and what the type of manhood that take for the standard of nobility and the ideal of character such men as Lincoln, Stanton, Grant and Sherman? Lincoln was an infidel; Stanton was a traitor, as Jerry Black has shown. Grant was not truthful, and Sherman is mean all the way through.

It is claimed by the fuglemen of the President that of 111,000 office holders some 50,000 are Democrats. So this is not quite half a Democratic Administration as yet. It will improve in the future. Only the other day a very offensive Republican partisan was turned out of a high office in one of the Departments. By next summer possibly another one will go. This is a reform term you know. Hurrah!

Here is a story on Thomas Carlyle that is probably another familiar story that has been twisted out of recognition. But it is good and quite like the great Scotch genius:

"The Queen once met Carlyle at Dean Stanley's, and being interested on some point connected with German history asked his opinion upon it. The old sage of Chelsea replied that as the subject was a large one and not capable of being talked out in a couple of minutes, it would be as well if her Majesty was seated. Queen Victoria had never before been asked to take a seat. She was perfectly delighted with the proposal, with the novelty of it, and with Carlyle himself."

Col. Pardee has written two long letters about Wilmington and its interests to the Baltimore Manufacturers' Record. Of our climate and the desirableness of Wilmington as a Winter residence he says:

"The leading attraction Wilmington has for the tourists that usually hibernate in Florida is its soft and genial atmosphere. The annual mean temperature of Smithville, at the mouth of the Cape Fear river, is the same as that of Mobile, Ala., while that of Wilmington (63 degrees) is but three less, and corresponds with that of Jerusalem, in the Holy Land, and of Nicolassi, Sicily. In other words, this southeastern section of North Carolina, for a belt fifty miles along the coast and forty miles inland, has a semi-tropical climate equal to that of Florida. The late Prof. Kerr, State Geologist and Botanist, was wont to say that this country, with its isolated semi-tropical climate, must have been cut off from Florida and floated to its present anchorage."

Knocked Overboard.

Edward Alderman, colored, was knocked overboard, or fell into the river from a wood-flat lying in the dock at the foot of Princess street yesterday. Fortunately bystanders were near who promptly came to the rescue, and Alderman was hauled on before the current carried him under. He had a warrant issued for the arrest of John Mims, the owner of the flat. It was shown at the trial before Justice Millis that Alderman had no business on the flat and was ordered to get off. Mims made a threatening demonstration towards him, and in stepping backwards Alderman fell into the river.

Personal.

Col. E. R. Brink is in the city.

Maj. McClammy, Representative-elect to the next Congress, passed through the city yesterday on his return from Washington.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard returned to the city yesterday from Chapel Hill, and will occupy his pulpit in the First Baptist Church to-day as usual. At Goldsboro yesterday he had the misfortune to lose his valise, the contents of which were principally books and papers.

Painful Accident.

Mr. John T. French, of Wilmington Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, met with a painful accident a few days ago. While running to a fire he burst one of the veins in the calf of his right leg. His physician says it will take thirteen days to repair the injury, and in the meantime the patient must lie on his back with his leg suspended. Mr. French has the sincere sympathy of many friends in his misfortune.

Local Dots.

— The Criminal Court meets on Monday the 21st inst.

— Board of Aldermen meet in regular session Monday evening at the City Hall.

— Receipts of cotton yesterday were only 7 bales; the same date last year 91 bales.

— Some of our city churches have changed their hour for Sunday evening services to 7.45 o'clock.

— The Board of Audit and Finance hold their regular monthly meeting to morrow afternoon.

— To "Anxious Inquirer": The books opened to-morrow are not for the registration of candidates for aldermen.

— Nine marriage licenses were issued by the County Register the past week; eight of the nine were for colored people

— Rev. Wm. Bishop will preach the annual sermon before the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, at Mt. Zion church (colored) at 10 o'clock this morning.

— Rev. J. M. Ashby, of Smithville, N. C., will preach at the Temple of Israel at 11 a. m. to-day and at the Fifth Street Methodist church this evening at 7½ o'clock.

— Coloring for butter and cotton seed oil for cheese and lard are now advertised. How many more impositions will be practiced upon innocent and unsuspecting people?

— Interments in the city cemeteries the past week were as follows: Oakdale, one child; Pine Forest (colored) one child. There were no interments in Bellevue Cemetery.

— The "Japanese Wedding" is represented as being the finest entertainment of its character ever given in this city. It is estimated that at least 600 persons witnessed it on Thursday night.

— Robert Toomer, George W. McKoy and Charles Onslow, all colored, arrested in the "Hollow" while drunk and disorderly, were sentenced each to work twenty-five days on the streets, in the Mayor's court yesterday morning.

— An "artistic entertainment" will be given next Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. E. G. Barker, on South Front street. A charming evening is promised to all who attend. The proceeds will be for the benefit of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

— Rev. M. V. Morris, pastor of Shiloh Baptist church (colored) announces that his sermon at 3 o'clock this afternoon will be on "Regeneration," and at night "Paul's Charge to the Corinthians." Rev. James Williams, of Goldsboro, will assist in revival meetings at this church this week.

— "A reader of the STAR" thinks it "not only a reflection upon our State but upon the individuals who circulate the reports, that the murderer Bingham, who stands charged with two awful crimes, should be represented as being seen in so many different places in the State and no one have the courage to arrest him, notwithstanding the reward offered for his arrest, and to make an example of him in order to better protect virtue and the innocent and helpless females of the State."

Prevention Better than Cure.

The Board of Health of New Hanover county have issued a circular for free distribution, containing valuable information as to the prevention and restriction of scarlet fever. The preventive measures recommended are—

1. Avoid the contagium of the disease. Especially should children be prevented from going near a case of scarlet fever, or from coming in contact with anything which has been near one sick with this disease.

2. Be careful of books, toys, cats and dogs which may have been handled by a scarlet fever patient. The disease has been spread by circulating libraries; picture books having been taken therefrom to amuse the patient, and returned without being disinfected.

3. One recovering from this disease should not be permitted to mingle with the public, until he and his clothing have been thoroughly cleaned and disinfected.

4. No child coming from a house containing a case of scarlet fever should be allowed to attend school or other public assembly, and should be prevented from playing with other children.

5. Any one coming from such a house should bathe, disinfect and change his clothing before going where there are children.

6. Beware of any one with a sore throat; do not allow your children to be kissed by such a person, or to drink from the same cup.

7. When scarlet fever is present in your community, do not take children to crowded assemblies in unventilated rooms.

8. See that your house and premises are perfectly clean. Look to your cellars, sewers, cess-pools, sinks and water closets, and allow no decaying animal or vegetable matter to poison the atmosphere of your dwelling.

A Boy Run Over on Front Street.

David Jacobs, Jr., a colored boy about eight years of age, and son of ex-Coroner Jacobs, was run over by a cart yesterday afternoon on South Front street. The cart was driven by Bolivar Taylor, colored, who was hauling sawdust from Kidder's mill. The boy jumped into the cart for a ride, and accidentally fell in front of one of the wheels, which passed over his body before the horse could be checked. The boy was unconscious when taken to his home on Wooster, between Front and Second streets. Dr. Ellis, the attending physician, said that his injuries were internal, and it could not be determined whether they were very serious or not.

Death of Mr. Theodore Eilers.

Mr. Theodore Eilers, only surviving son of the late H. B. Eilers, died last night at the residence of the family on Fifth and Orange streets. His death was unexpected and a great shock to his family and friends. He was at his place of business Friday in his usual health, but was taken sick during the evening of that day. The cause of his death was not stated, but it was ascertained that he had been suffering from some affection of the bowels.

Is making new friends every day. Consumers state that it goes so much further than the adulterated lard with which the market is flooded. That it is decidedly the most economical to use, and being absolutely pure, it can be substituted for butter in nearly all classes of cooking.
