Frederick Warde in "Virginia."
Lovers of the legitimate drama are promised a grand treat Tuesday night when Mr. Frederick Warde appears in "Virginia."

The Concord "Cowhiding" Affair.
A correspondent writing from Concord, N. C., in reference to the recent difficulty between Col. Paul B. Means and Mr. John B. Sherrill, editor of the Times newspaper of that place, says that the telegraphic account of the affair conveyed a false impression, and adds:

CASSARD'S STAR BRAND PURE LARD

Is making new friends every day. Consumers state that it costs so much further than the adulterated lard with which the market is flooded. That it is decidedly the most economical to use, and being absolutely pure, it can be substituted for butter in nearly all classes of cooking.

Cure of the celebrated "Star Brand" pure lard cured Ham and Breakfast Bacon. 37-11-17

The French press are down on De Lesperp's utterances while in Berlin.

Ex-speaker Carlisle and wife will sail for Europe in June. He needs rest.

How a waste of time to reason with King and the plebeian with a shriek for free application.

The bark at Asheville, we see it mentioned, only change from $40 to $30 a month. Pretty steep.

The famous John R. King, one of the masters of literature of the Victorian epoch, has a poor opinion of railroads. In fact he seems to despise them as the devil's invention.

Gen. Long's remains have been taken to St. Augustine for sepulture. Great honors were paid as Jacksonville to the memory of this gallant soldier who was born in this city.

Who knows but that Cardinal Gibbons will be the next Pope? Leo XIII. is old and feeble. The Cardinal has received the sapphire ring and the red hat and is now eligible for the pontificate.

The Greensboro Star, Republican, refers to the Democratic House at Raleigh. The Durham Plant pertinently inquires: "When did it become Democratic?" Who elected Webster a Ricker Speaker?

Eight new cotton seed oil mills will be erected in the South. The contract for the machinery for the number has been signed and read. Two companies have the contract, one at Dayton, Ohio, the other at East Bridgewater, Mass.

When will the smaller towns and villages prepare for fire? In North Carolina every year three or four of the newspapers "blatants" are half destroyed. It is suicidal to continue the neglect. Get ready for a fire while there are no signs. In time of peace prepare for war is the wise old adage.

An extra session of the Congress is expected to be held in the Fall. The Tarif Reformers are resolved to make another effort to reduce taxation and relieve the farmers and others of a part of the tremendous burden that a great and grinding monopoly has placed upon them. They may be foiled by Randall again, but the trial is to be made.

The Tory Government is said to be willing to stay victorious temporarily. A London special to the N. Y. Star, dated the 17th inst., says:

Mr. Gladstone has been approached again by representatives of the Unionists with proposals for an agreement on the Irish question. Mr. Gladstone has replied that the concessions he is willing to make are the extreme limit to which he is prepared to go. Anything further is something affecting the principle on which he is on the basis of his home rule scheme. He positively declines to entertain it.

Henry George has been nominated for President by a paper in California. How many newspaper nominations does it take to win the pile? Our good friend of the Scotland Neck Democrat floats from its masthead: For President, David Hill, of New York; for Vice President, John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky. There are Register! Register! Register!

The Criminal Court convenes in this city to-morrow.

No interments are reported in the city cemeteries the past week.

Board of Audit and Finance meet to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Receipts of cotton yesterday 143 bales; the same date last year 113 bales.

Box sheet for "Virginia" at the Opera House will be opened at Heinsberger's to-morrow.

The Register of Deeds issued six marriage licenses the past week—two for white and four for colored couples.

English services will be held in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church to-day at 11 a. m., and German services at 8 p. m.

Rev. D. G. Kelly will preach at the First (colored) Baptist Church, corner of Fifth and Campbell streets, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son cleared the German barque Pilsa yesterday of Glasgow, Scotland, with 3,650 barrels of rosin, valued at $7,000.

The city election will be held Thursday next, the 24th. The registration books will be closed Wednesday afternoon. If you fail to register you cannot vote.

Mr. John J. Fowler, Democratic nominee for Alderman from the Fourth Ward, having resigned the position of registrar for that ward, Mr. W. J. Rosenthal has been appointed to the place.

Mr. King, the Charlotte editor arrested on a charge of libel, was taken to Durham yesterday by an officer who arrived here from that place Friday night. The officer said that the indictment for libel was founded upon the article published in Mr. King's paper alleging that the operators in the cotton factory at Durham were cruelly treated.

Fire Yesterday Morning. Fire broke out about half-past 3 o'clock yesterday morning, in a two story frame dwelling, corner of Seventh and Swann streets, owned and occupied by Eli Currie, colored. The flames had gotten under such headway before the firemen arrived that the upper story of the building was destroyed and the lower story was badly damaged. Currie had insurance to the amount of $400 on the building and $100 on furniture and wearing apparel in the Connecticut Insurance Company of Hartford, represented by Messrs. W. L. Smith & Co., which will about cover the loss.

About half-past 7 o'clock fire was discovered on the roof of the kitchen on the premises of Mrs. Gaston Meares, on Fifth between Market and Princess streets, and an alarm was sent in from Box 14, corner Third and Princess streets. The blaze was speedily extinguished by a stream from a hydrant, and the damage was slight.

A Colored Woman Fatally Burned. Nancy King, an aged colored woman living on Brunswick street near the corner of Fourth, was kindling a fire in her house yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, when in some way her clothing was ignited, and before help came she was enveloped in flames and so severely burned that it is thought her injuries will prove fatal. The old woman was alone at the time, and her outcries caused an alarm to be turned in from box No. 81, which brought out the Fire Department.

Cotton Movement. The crop year receipts at this port up to yesterday, are 181,817 bales, against 94,580 for the corresponding period last year. An increase of 87,237 bales.

The receipts for the week ended yesterday were 686, against 1,078 bales the same week last year.

The stock of cotton at this port, above and abroad, is 2,783 bales; at the same time last year, 4,671 bales.

More Nominations. The following nominations for Aldermen were made Friday night, at a meeting held in the Knights of Labor hall, corner of Market and Second streets:

First Ward—John R. Melton and Andrew Walker.

Second Ward—Jos. W. Taylor and Oscar Peasall.

Third Ward—R. W. Smith.

Fourth Ward—J. R. Guthrie and S. H. Fishblate.

Fifth Ward—Alex. Sampson and O. H. Keasedy.

Attempt at House Breaking. A negro burglar attempted to break into the house of Mr. Albert Gore, on Orange between Fourth and Fifth streets, last Thursday night. The man was on a shed near one of the sleeping rooms on the upper floor, when he was seen through a window by Mrs. Gore. She called for assistance, and the burglar finding that he was discovered, jumped off the shed and made his escape.

Personal. Mr. E. E. Burruss, who had a stroke of paralysis Friday morning, was reported yesterday to be steadily improving, and his physician hopeful of a speedy recovery.

OBITUARY. Dr. C. C. Corbett. It is with sincere regret that we chronicle the death of Dr. C. C. Corbett, which occurred Tuesday evening, March 15th, at his home in New Hope, Ky. He was soon made Chief of Ordnance of the Army of New York in 1860 in the class with the late Dr. John DeRoset. Immediately upon his graduation he went to Georgia whither his family had preceded him, and thence to Tallahassee, Fla., to engage in the practice of his profession, but the war was coming on he entered the Confederate army early in '61 as a private soldier in the company of the ill-fated Maj. John H. Go. He was soon made Chief of Ordnance of the Army of Mobile which position he filled with entire satisfaction. At a dining in Mobile he met the famous Confederate cavalry leader, Gen. John H. Morgan, who was so pleased with him that he prevailed on him to join his command. He resigned the position of Chief of Ordnance and again took his place in the ranks, but was soon promoted for conspicuous gallantry on the field of battle. He rose to the rank of Captain of Artillery and commanded the famous "Bull Pups" of Morgan's command. He was captured with his chief on the Ohio raid and with other officers incarcerated in the penitentiary. He was a true Confederate and General Basil Duke in his history of "Morgan and his Men," pays him several very handsome and deserved compliments for skill, devotion and courage. After the war he settled in Kentucky and devoted himself to the practice of his profession. In 1870 he was married to Miss Mattie Edmon of Mantion, Ky., a grand-niece of Mr. Jefferson Davis, who survives him. Dr. Corbett was a life-long Democrat, and at the time of his death held an appointment under President Cleveland in the revenue service. Mentally and physically he was highly endowed. He was an assiduous and omnivorous reader, and his alert mind readily seized upon and easily appropriated the cream of whatever he read. He had traveled much, and being possessed of a rich fund of anecdotes and reminiscence when at his best, he was a rare companion. He was all sympathy, and through a man of convictions and had the courage of these, we question if in dying he left an enemy. Thus another relic of the "Lost Cause" has passed from the stage of action to join the "silent majority," and let us hope that his brave, sunny spirit awoke in a land where shadows never gather and friends are never dispersed. He was a brother of our fellow townsman, Mr. John A. Corbett and Mrs. W. H. Hankins. FRIEND.

To Whom it May Concern. I have had a bad ear trouble for some time, and had the best local medical skill without relief, until I applied to Dr. Freeman, now at the Orton House, and he relieved me with his first applications and I got a good night's rest. I would advise others afflicted with any chronic trouble to apply to him. M. M. PARKER, 504 North Front St., Wilmington, N. C.

Dr. Freeman. Would say to all persons interested that he is a regular graduated physician, and has diplomas at the Orton House, which he will take pleasure in showing, though petty jealousies may have caused some M. D.'s to make insinuations to the contrary notwithstanding.
