MORNING EDITION

OUTLINES.

Some of the English cotton spinners have agreed to run on half-time. Seventy-five bales have been recovered from the ruins of the burned theatre in Paris. The Southern Presbyterian Assembly probably adjourned last night. The cotton crop in sight is 6,260,615 bales. A fatal boiler explosion occurred yesterday at Natchez, Miss. Seventy miners were employed in a coal mine in Scotland; volunteers were working for their rescue. Cardinal Gibbons will sail on the steamer Umbria for New York. Eight persons were killed and six others injured in a collision on the Pennsylvania Railroad near Pittsburg. New York market: Money easy at 3 1/2 per cent., closing offered at 3 1/2 per cent.; cotton—no quotations; southern flour quiet and unchanged; wheat, spot lots 2 1/4c lower; No. 2 red May 96 1/2c; corn—spot a trifle lower; No. 2 May nominal; rosin quiet at $1 23 1/2c; spirits turpentine quiet at 36c.

It was found in the statement of Christ. He was the greatest manifestation of love the world ever knew. Self-sacrificing love is greater than omnipotence. To know Christ is our greatest wisdom.

We notice that the very able Rev. Dr. C. K. Vaughan, of Lexington, Va., spoke against the majority report in the Presbyterian General Assembly. He said, among other things: "He thought the church could not change its relations as quickly as business men and politicians. There were three different religious differences between the Northern and Southern churches, doctrinal and vice versa, political and ecclesiastical policy. The speaker was opposed to allowing such a wide latitude to women as in the Northern churches. He laid particular stress upon the color line and after a time he said: 'Our people, from Virginia to the Gulf, will not have their relations with the colored race decided by the Northern church. The church must teach that slavery was a moral relation, not necessarily a civil institution.' He would as much expect to revive slavery in the days of Ramezes as now. If it was in his power to revive slavery now he would not. He advised the assembly to be careful and go slow."

ABOUT NEWSPAPERS

Raleigh News-Observer. An exchange states that the stockholders of the Messenger at Wilmington have guaranteed to editor Bonitz, an advertising patronage of $30,000. The advertisements of the Raleigh News from all sources used to be about $4,000, of which about $3,500 was from North Carolina; the advertising patronage of the Observer used to be about $3,000, of which about $2,000 was from North Carolina. The Wilmington STAR, we understand, charges very high rates, and its advertising patronage in that commercial metropolis is, we suppose, about $6,000. We have heard that the Wilmington stockholders promised $8,000 advertising patronage instead of $20,000, on our exchange has it. We estimate that the number of North Carolina people who subscribe to daily papers taking dispatches, is about 4,500. The expenses of such a paper as the Charleston Courier are about $75,000 a year. The expenses of such a paper as the Wilmington STAR, we suppose, are above $30,000. We could like to see great big papers in every town in North Carolina, but it takes an advertising patronage of $30,000 or $40,000, such as only a large commercial city can afford, and not less than 5,000 daily subscribers to keep afloat such a paper as the Charleston Courier. The weekly Courier, with its 6,000 daily subscribers, has never been able to furnish its paper for less than ten dollars a year, although it issues a Sunday edition separate from its daily, which is relatively very profitable. Newspapers are sustained by wage-earners, not by capitalists; by the many, not the few. Charleston, Savannah, Atlanta, Augusta, Macon and other places where factories and workshops distribute wages among the people whose weekly earnings enable them to support their families and then indulge in a newspaper are able to maintain only one morning paper. Richmond has the Dispatch, and the Virgin, which is the great deal of money has been lost last year was revived as a morning paper, but we do not know how successful it has been under its new management. Little boats cannot venture out into the big sea without danger of being swamped, and therefore ought to keep near the shore. We suppose that the papers taking the dispatches in North Carolina, all combined, did not last year earn three per cent. on the capital invested. [There are several inaccuracies in the foregoing article, but as a whole it is well worth reading, so we give it in full.—EDITOR STAR.]

Local News.

No preaching at Brooklyn Methodist church to-night. Under the Blue Law, iron-clad Sunday ordinance, it is unlawful to sell milk, even to the sick, on Sunday. In accordance with regulations, on May 30th (Monday) the postoffice will be closed from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Rev. D. C. Kelly will preach this afternoon at the First (colored) Baptist church, corner of Fifth and Campbell streets. The chairman of the Board of County Commissioners advertise for proposals for building and repairing the walls around the jail. Rev. R. McKenzie, (colored), of Franklinton, will preach at the corner of Sixth and Harnett streets to-night, at half-past 7 o'clock. The report of the annual meeting of the Oskdale Ladies' Memorial Association is crowded out to-day, but will appear in our next issue. Roanoke College, Salem, Virginia, under Lutheran management, is not a female institution, as was erroneously stated some days since. Rev. C. W. Godwin, pastor of Brooklyn Methodist church, will preach a memorial sermon to-day on the death of John M. Darden, Jr., who died May 23d.

The "Wide Awakes," Capt. L. Myers, and the "Amateurs," Capt. W. Bryce, struggled with the ball and bat yesterday. Score 15 to 10 against the Amateurs. Interments in the city cemeteries the past week were as follows: Oakdale, four—two adults and two children; Pine Forest (colored) two adults; Bellevue, one child. Josephine Lewis, colored, drunk and very disorderly, was sentenced to pay a fine of $30 or be confined in the city prison thirty days, at the Mayor's court yesterday. She was locked up. An entertainment will be given at St James' Home Tuesday afternoon; opening at 5 o'clock with the coronation of a May Queen and closing at eleven. Refreshments will be on sale at reasonable prices.

Our seaside resorts are booming. Capt. E. W. Manning, proprietor of Pine Grove, at Wrightsville Sound, has been obliged to refuse many applicants for board during the month of July—so great was the demand. It is the duty of all public officers to enforce the laws. No one will condemn Mayor Fowler for enforcing the Sunday ordinance. But it should be modified or repealed. Are not the State laws ample to prevent Sunday traffic? The tax assessors say that the increase in valuation of all the real estate in the city will probably not exceed $250,000. On the same authority it is stated that the increase in valuation in the "burnt district" is about $60,000.

The Passport will go down to Harper's Pier to-day for the accommodation of persons desiring to visit Carolina Beach. The boat will leave the wharf here at 2 o'clock p. m. Returning, the train will leave Carolina Beach at 6 p. m. There will be services to-day at the Brooklyn Baptist church at the usual hours, conducted by Rev. Mr. Tolson, the pastor. We understand that this church is making steady progress in that part of the city, there being constant additions to its membership. The camp meeting down the river, near Gander Hall, will break up to-morrow. It has been largely attended. The steamer Cape Fear carried down to the place yesterday between 800 and 1,000 colored people, and many more will go down to-day. The Cape Fear and other colored fire companies, and the New Hanover Guard, have been invited to take part in the Decoration Day ceremonies to-morrow afternoon. A procession will be formed in front of the City Hall at half-past three o'clock, under the direction of Chief Marshal Twining. The New Purcell House Bar has changed management, Mr. R. J. Lewis, the popular compounder of fancy mixed drinks, having taken charge. In the preparation of palae-tickling beverages Mr. Lewis is without a rival, and under his direction the past popularity of the place will be greatly enhanced.

Postponed. The meeting called for Monday June 13th, by Mr. H. A. Baggett, of chairman of the Boards of Commissioners of Bladen, Columbus and other counties along the line of the Carolina Central and Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroads, has been postponed until Tuesday, the 14th proximo, on account of there being no train arriving on the morning of the 13th of June on the Carolina Central road.

Smithville no longer. Postmaster W. R. Ferguson gives official notification that the name of the town and postoffice of Smithville has been changed to Southport.

ICE. ICE. ICE. THE ICE FACTORY AT WILMINGTON, N. C. has been in full operation since January 15, 1887, and our facility for furnishing ICE is three times as large as it was last year. AS THE SEASON IS OPEN we desire to say to all who may order ICE from us that our ICE is made of the PUREST WATER, and that distilled. It is, therefore, Solid Flint Ice and meets all requirements, and will stand inspection by the Medical Faculty. We call attention to the following article.

DANGER IN ICE—In an article on "The Number of Bacteria in Ice" in the American Journal of Pharmacy for December, 1886, the author concludes that "the common 'raw' ice, till lately almost exclusively used, on account of the large number of bacteria, capable of development, which it contains, should not be taken with food, as drinks, or for medicinal purposes. It should never be used in the treatment of wounds. In these connections, artificial ice, made from distilled water, should be employed. The use of raw ice in contact with food, which is afterwards to be cooked, is permissible, but artificial ice is to be preferred. Saw ice may be freely used where it does not come into direct contact with food."

We have both natural and manufactured Ice, and can supply which ever is preferred. We have unequalled facilities for shipping Ice by the barrel and in car loads. Prices given upon application. We solicit your patronage and guarantee fair treatment. W. E. WORTH & CO., Proprietors. my 17 1/2
