Many outrages are reported as occurring in Iowa and Kansas. It is said that blackmailing is resorted to in some instances. The prohibitory law is the cover under which these gross outrages are perpetrated. Some of the most offensive instances are given editorially in the N. Y. Star.

"One is that of a lady of Des Moines, who when sick and with a day old babe in her arms, was turned out of her bed and her premises sacked by two constables named Pierce and Potts, who were searching for liquor. The second instance of brutality under cover of law is that of Andreas Druer of the same city, whose home was broken into and his wife grossly maltreated by rufflans armed with authority to search for liquor. The husband resisting this misconduct, he was so brutally beaten that he has remained ever since a belpless invalid. During last March, while the sacrament was being administered at a Methodist Episcopal Church, a prohibition fanatic seized the vessel used in the sacred rite. In the city of Des Moines searches are made at the rate of 100 per month, and in Pope county, during the year 1886, there were granted by magistrates no less than 4,000 search warrants, of which about 330 were directed against private dwell-

A writer in the N. Y. World insists that the correct orthography is cigar and not segar, and he makes a strong ase. He says:

"To begin with, this (segar) is not sanc tioned by any dictionary ever published, and is followed by no daily paper. In the second place it does not represent the pronunciation, which is correctly given, ac cording to English orthography, only in the spelling "cigar." We do not say seegar, but the "i" in the first syllable is short, precisely as in cinder. A third objection to this idiotic spelling, "segar," is that i disguises the derivation of the word, which is from the Spanish "cigarro," pronounced by Spanish - Americans si-gar - ro.

Monroe Enquirer Express. We have several first-rate newspa pers in North Carolina, but the Wilmington STAR stands head and shoul ders above the list in all the elements which go to make up a really good paper. This is our opinion. The STAR is twenty years old and is well sustained, as it should be. It is worth a great deal to the beautiful city which gives it a home. If its light from any cause should be dimmed, this would be felt we have no doubt. The STAR has recently made a reduction in its rates. It is now but $6.00 per year-the cheapest and best daily in the State combined.

Among the crowd were Thomas Plummer, Wm. Plummer and Gibson Kimmons, who were at enmity with each other, and on the way home from the funeral, as they reached Cicero Smith's house, in the Greenville suburbs, they proceeded to fight it out after the modern style with their pistols. As Smith advanced upon him, Plummer drew his pistol and commenced firing, but Smith ran into him and grappled with him. Kimmons, who was in Smith's house, secured Smith's pistol and running out to where the two men were scuffling, he presented the muzzle at Plummer's body and fired a shot that put an end to the proceedings. The Wilson Excursionists.

The excursionists from Wilson and other points along the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad south of that place arrived here yesterday morning about half-past 11 o'elock on a special train, consisting of five passenger coaches and a refreshment car. The party numbered about three hundred and fifty. Probably onethird of the entire number are from Wilson, with representatives from Toisnot, Enfield, Mount Olive, Warsaw, and other places. The Fairview Cornet Band and the Wilson Base Ball Club came with the excursionists; the band enlivening the trip with music. Its members are W. C. Hewlett, C. J. Warren, Thos. Hayes. W. B. Alley, D. E. Winstead, Ed. Hawkins, R. L. Alley, Joe Barnes, S. M. Warren, J. O. Gordon, and G. Winstead. There is quite a large number of ladies among the excursionists.

Our streets were thronged with the visitors during the forenoon. They gathered on the water front and visited all the places of interest in and around the city. In the afternoon many went down to Carolina Beach, the Passport being crowded; others went down to Wrightsville Sound, and the remasnder sought the base ball grounds; so that by & p. m. scarcely a stranger was to be seen upon the

- Quite a number of the excursionists called at the STAR office and showed their appreciation of the STAR, not only in words but in other ways which delighed the heart of the young man "in receipt of customs."

- A colored man reported at the Court House yesterday that his horse fell dead in the county road at Jumping Run, a short distance beyond the city limits. He said that he was unable to have the horse moved out of the road himself and wanted the county authorities to do it.

- The death of Mrs. Edwin E. Burrus, which occurred vesterday morning, was a great shock to her numerous relatives and friends; and coming so soon after the death of her lamented husband, it is inexpressibly sad. She was a daughter of the late Isaac Northrop, and was greatly beloved by all who knew her. She will be sadly missed, and by none so much as by the four little orphans who survive her.

Mayor's Court. Frank Sadgwar, alias Frank Sidbury, the colored boy charged with the larceny of a silver watch, a pocketbook and other articles from Jane McFarland, colored, and arrested by Policeman Everitt Tuesday night (as reported in the STAR) was arraigned before Mayor Fowler yesterday morning. The evidence was conclusive as to the guilt of the prisoner, and in default of $100, bail for his appear ance at the next term of the Criminal Court, Sadgwar was sent to jail.

Coroner's Inquest, Coroner Miller held an inquest yes terday morning over the body of Lucy Williams, a colored woman, who dropped dead the evening before in the road near Melton's butcher pen just beyond the city limits. The jury rendered a verdict that the cause of death was neuralgia of the heart. Dr. Potter, city physician, was present at the inquest, but did not consider it necessary to make a post mortem examination. The woman's husband, Emanuel Williams, said that his wife had been unwell for some time. In company with two of her children she was on her way to town with a cart-load of melons, and a few moments before the fatal stroke got out of the cart to walk. After the inquest was held the husband of the deceased had the remains of his wife taken to his home about four miles from the city for burial.

D. S. Commissioner's Court.

Messrs. Kerr and Hubbard, owner and master of the steamer Delta, which was blown up by the explosion of the boiler several weeks ago, were in the city yesterday. The case against them for violation of the U.S. steamboat inspection laws will be heard to day before U. S. Commissioner Gardner. District Attorney Busbee is expected to conduct the examination.

BASE BALL.

Wilmington vs. Wilson-Game Called on Account of Rain.

The heavens did not smile on the Knights of the Diamond" yesterday, but on the contrary shed tears, for it was raining slightly when the game commenced and continued to increase until the umpire decided it was best to call the game.

The play was well attended; all anxious to see the friendly contest between two clubs so evenly matched. The grounds were in a most unfavorable condition to play ball, and the boys were fully cognizant of this fact. Errors were made on both sides which otherwise would have been inexcusable.

The Wilmington boys first went to the bat, and scored two runs, and the Wilson boys only made one

Our boys again went to the bat and were retired in good order, after having succeeded in placing three "goose eggs" to their credit.

The Wilson boys then, in their turn, scored twice, and the game at the end of the second inning stood-Wilson 3, Wilmington 2.

At the commencement of the third inning, while the Wilmington boys were putting in some good work, having made two runs, it began to rain, so that the umpire was obliged to call the game. Therefore the last two runs of the Wilmington club did not count, as Wilson had no chance of going to the bat.

There were no special features during the two innings except the twobagger of Moore and the foul catch of Woodward, of the Wilsons, who was put behind the bat, the regular catcher, Casey, having been hurt. Bacon did extremely well and Latouche did also.

The rulings of Mr. Kiley were excellent and gave entire satisfaction.

This afternoon there will be another game and all those who attend will be fully repaid for their trouble, for everything will be done to make the game interesting.

Mr. John D. Williams, of Fayette ville, is here and will probably cpend some days in the city and yicinity. Mr. Williams is a leading and influential member of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Syndicate, and as he will visit Southport before his return, it is surmised that it may be with a view to determining the advantages of that place as a seaport terminus. The Maxton Union speaks as follows of a prominent minister of this city: "On last Thursday night Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Wilmington, N. C. filled the Methodist pulpit here, to the delight and edification of all present. His sermon was a soul-stirring effort and showed that it came forth from an eminently pious nature, one whose mind was stored with great scriptural research, for one of his age, and one upon whom great natural powers have been poured out."

Mistaken Identity. Deputy Sheriff Barnes, of Wilson, arrived in the city yesterday. He visited the jail in company with several other gentlemen of that place for the purpose of seeing if they could identify Orange Wooten, the colored man arrested last Monday, as an escaped murderer - Casar Wooten from Wilson county. As soon as they saw the man they said that he was not the murderer. Orange Wooten was thereupon discharged. As stated in the STAR Wooten was arrested on an affiadvit made by a colored man from Mt. Olive. He says that he will sue some one for false imprisonment. WHOLE NO. 6503

For South Carolina, local rains, variable winds generally southerly and stationary temperature.

A Southern Cyclone.

The first of the West Indian cyclones incident to the latter part of summer made its appearance on the Gulf coast yesterday. It was central in the vicinity of Pensacola at 3 p. m. when the barometer recorded 29.70. From this point it moved in a direction a little east of north, and by 10 p. m. it was central at Montgomery, Ala., with the atmospheric pressure measuring 29.58 inches-the lowest in its short passage.

The Signal Service furnished a map ast night-showing the location and probable course of the storm. From it we should conclude that the centre of the storm will strike this State in the extreme western part, and if it does not deviate from its present course it is not probable that its severest effects will be felt in this sec

The highest wind reported from the immediate vicinity of the storm thus far reached, was thirty-two miles an hour. The rainfall, how ever, is unusually heavy. The Signal Service reports show nearly three inches at some points during the seven hours preceding 10 p. m., and our Press dispatches show a fall at some places of nearly six inches. The following telegram was received relative to the cyclone at the Signal Office last evening:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 27, 4:50 P. M.—Hoist cautionary signal. Cy clone from the Gulf now central in southern Georgia, moving northward

New Investment.

The well known mercantile firm of Bridgers & Rankin, of this city, have purchased the line of railroad in Sumter county, S. C., running from Atkins to Bishopville, S. C., a dis tance of fifteen miles. It connects with the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad at Atkins, and passes through one of the richest cot ton producing sections in South Carolina. It is estimated that during the coming season it will transport from 5,000 to 7,000 bales of cotton. The road is the exclusive property of the firm and solely under their management and control. Mr. P. L. Bridgers is president and treasurer, Capt. John Barry general superintendent, and Mr. N. B. Rankin freight and passenger agent and auditor. Messrs. Bridgers & Rankin propose to extend the road, if concessions as to right of way are made. The firm have also bought the saw mill at Atkins, and the stock of merchandise of the company formerly operating the mill and the railroad."
