WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1887.

We see from the Atlanta Christian Index that the "Evangelical Ministers' Association" of Atlanta, See Fayetteville Observer. have indorsed Dr. Hawthorne, "his course, and the manner in which he met and rebutted the charge." The Doctor is able and probably has been unfairly dealt with, but he did not exhibit a sweet, Christian temper, and by a great deal. The "brethren' say further :

"We are fully of the opinion that said charge would never have been made against him, but for his heroic and uncompromising efforts in behalf of prohibition, and against the whiskey trade. We regard the whole thing as a bit of persecution based upon ill feeling thus engendered."

When Tourgee's novels are freely bought throughout the North it is a clear indication of the decadance of letters and the depravity of the Northern appetite. It is announced that the "smart" and quondam carpetbagger has three volumes ready, two of which are novels. They are called "Bolton's Inn" and "Black Ice." The third volume is composed of a series published in religious papers under the title "Letters to a King." If Tourgee had moral qualities to back his intellectual he would do. But he has no conscience.

Mr. John W. Hays, Jr., of Oxford, recently contributed an article to the Raleigh Chronicle giving an account of a marriage in the mountains of North Carolina, that a literary friend of ours, an accomplished gentleman, praised highly to us. We have but little time for newspaper reading, except with our fingers, and did not read it. Our young friend Hays writes well and has done some good work for a Boston monthly.

Ah! Look out! The Democratic committee reported to the Democratic State Convention of Massachusetts that there were 4,614 Federal efficials in that State. Of these, 3,828, or 83 per cent., are Republicans. Not less than $5,000,000 are drawn from the United States Treasury each year. Put that in your pipes and smoke it. 'Rah for Civil Service Reform! King George III, was not a good critic although a virtuous sovereign. If he was a believer in the Baconian authorship of Shakespeare's plays he had a poor opinion indeed of Francis Bacon, Lord Verulain. He once remarked, "Was there ever such stuff as the greater part of Shakes peare." His profligate son, who succeeded him, would have done better

The New York Commercial Ad vertiser is an Independent Republican paper. It says of the New York platform of its party:

"The platform is so obviously a mere drag net for voters and a carefully designed evasion of living questions, that its adoption brings positive humiliation to Republicaus of sincere minds and earnest pur-

The New York World attributes the monetary stringency to the hoarding of a great surplus in the United States Treasury. The New York Evening Post of Monday says:

"The financial situation at the present time is the most curious and perhaps the most serious one, short of absolute panic. that the present generation has witnessed."

Ex-President Davis's trenchant etter to Bishop Galloway is being praised among Southern papers. If any one thinks that the able statesman is not equal in his eightieth year to an able and vigorous discussion of a subject let him follow him in his three or four latest productions.

Wiggins predicted an awful cyclone for the Lake region and Northern Atlantic Coast on Monday. It came but two thousand miles away between New Orleans and Galveston. That was an excellent guess for Wiggins.

Gen. Rochs challenged Senor Gayon, in Mexico. Shots were exchanged resulting in the mortally wounding of the latter. There are several other duels in prospect. The advantages of Wilmington as | Christianity has not yet done its appointed work in Mexico, it seems.

Charlotte Chronicle: Rumor says that Mr. James Boylin, one of the brightest young men of the town, is seriously contemplating embarking on the sea of journalism in Wadesboro. — The relatives of Richard Caldwell, the colored man who was killed by the accident at the Point mine, on the night of Monday, July 4th, 1887, have brought suit against the Point Mining Company for $10,000. The Point mine is located near the western terminus of Trade street.

An Error Corrected. FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Sept. 21 .-Col. Green did not write that article.

(Being under pressure we did not see the article in the Observer. - Salisbury Watchman: The cotton and corn crops in this section, it is now thought by some farmers, will not exceed an average. — At Granite station, on the Raleigh and Gaston railroad, in Vance county, there is a force of about fifty hands employed in taking out and working granite.

- Asheville Citizen: Within the last two weeks there have been shipped from Hickory, N. C., to Chicago and other points, twenty thousand dollars' worth of dried blackberries. It is estimated that there will be over one hundred thousand dollars' worth of dried fruits marketed at Hickory during the next three months

- Hillsboro Observer: Last Thursday while Mr. John K. Hughes, Jr., was riding in the public road a few miles west of this place, near Cheek's crossing, a bullet grazed his right thigh and cut some hair from his horse's head. This is what we call a narrow escape. Hunters and others ought to be very careful with their guns.

- Goldsboro Argus: Mr. T. B. Parker is engaged in filling his silo with choice green corn. He has about aix acres of corn, planted after his pes crop, which he is cutting now, and he thinks his crop worth at least $60 per scre. The crop was only plowed twice and never hoed at all. e State Board of Education have named Messrs. E. A. Alderman, W. F Kornegay, D J. Broadhurst, H. L. Grant and C. B. - Raleigh Visitor: The officers and members of Person Street Church have disposed of their building and grounds to a colored Presbyterian minister, and they will hold their last service there on Sunday next. They have purchased a more eligible and convenient lot at the corner of Morgan and Person streets, and will in a short while commence the erection of a large and elegant church building. - The dead body of a male infant supposed to be a bright mulatto, was discovered yesterday by Mr. M. A. Bledsoe, while riding through his grove just south of the corporate limits. The body was wrapped in a piece of dark calico and was lying on top of the ground. The indications were that it had been inhumanly dealt with.

- Henderson Gold Leaf: Mr. J. Hester, living six or seven miles this side of Clarksville, fell from the top of a barn some two weeks ago and fractured his shoulder blade and several rits. At last accounts his condition was precarious, having sustained, it was feared, some internal injury.

-Raleigh News Observer: The Supreme Court meets next Monday. One hundred and eighty-three appeals includ-ing old ones had been docketed and 28 applications for license to practice law had been registered up to yesterday. - Governor Scales, with his staff, returned yesterday morning from the centennial celebration of the adoption of the American Constitution. The escort, the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, did not return with the Governor, but remained in the city one day longer. — We are pleased to learn that through the courtesy of Senator Ransom, the authorities of the Smithsonian Institute have offered to Mr. Frank L. Reeting of the Citizens' Building and Loan Association Election of Directors, &c.

The Citizens Building and Loan Association met last night in the city court room, and there was an immense crowd present, which evidenced that great interest is being taken in this matter by the stockholders.

The meeting was called to order by Capt. J. H. Sharp, chairman, and the committee reported that a charter had been procured and all was ready for the election of directors.

It was found that 1,428 shares had been subscribed, after which th stockholders voted for their choice for directors, which resulted as fol lows: H. G. Smallbones, Wm. H. Chadbourn, J. H. Sharp, W F. Williams, E. G. Barker, G. M. Altaffer, J. W. Jackson, W. A Riach, M. Bellamy, Jno. McEntee, T. J. Post, E. F. Johnson, A. G. Hankins. The directors elected are most competent, and we are confident that their administration will reflect credit on themselves and be of great benefit to the Association.

After the election of directors, the meeting adjourned, and the board of directors met and elected the following officers:

President-W. H. Chadbourn. Vice President-H. G. Smallbones Secretary and Treasurer-J.T. Riley. Attorneys-M. Bellamy and A. G

It was decided at this meeting that the first payment should be made next Saturday, and notice will be Opera House.

The season at the Opera House will open here Friday night with Miss Florence J. Bindley and her company, which are most highly spoken of. Below is an extract from the Brook-Bartley Campbell's best effort, "The Heroine in Rags," with Florence J. Bindley (Baby Bindley) as the stellar attraction, was presented last evening at the Academy to an enthusiastic audience, crowding the house from pit to dome. The magnificent scenery and picturesque stage setting, aided greatly to the enjoyment of the good acting of this well bal-anced company. Baby Bindley is an accomplished and versatile little actress, full of bright ideas and pleasing ways, and her impersonation of Ga-brielle, the Flower Girl, will long be remembered by all who witnessed the performance. Her solos on the several novel musical instruments, songs, dances, etc., are simply inimitable.

The body of James Wilbert was found yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, floating in the Cape Fear river, about fifty yards from the Navassa Guano factory. The body was first seen by Mr. Boone, an employe of the factory. A boat was immediately sent out and the body was towed to the city; but owing to the lateness of the arrival the inquest was postponed until 8 o'clock this morning. The body was identified by several as Wilbert's. A large wound, made by a bullet, was found in his head, but it is a matter of surmise whether this caused his death, or whether he was derly conduct; case continued until drowned while attempting to cross the river.
