Whether smoking is good for a man depends on his organization. I do not think that smoking is ever really beneficial for a man.

OUTLINES.

The President and Mrs. Cleveland started on their Western and Southern trip yesterday morning.

A steamer plying between Memphis and St. Louis, loaded with cotton, flour and meal, was burned yesterday morning.

The second race between the Volunteer and the Thistle was yesterday, resulting in an easy victory for the Yankee sloop.

Some papers are always for men. Other papers are for measures. Which is the safer class?

The President has declined the company of certain newspaper correspondents who were anxious to accompany him on his trip.

The political cauldron has begun to boil.

The great question of this country is the reduction of taxes—cutting down the War Tariff.

The county of New York sent 72 delegates to the Democratic State Convention and there was a nary an office holder among them.

The interesting news is cabled that Queen Victoria eats porridge for breakfast just like any other mortal.

Asheville is anxious to have a President "among them," and has accordingly sent an invitation to Mr. Cleveland to please come that way.

The Shelby Aurora of 22d Sept. had a very appreciative sketch of Wilmington. We will copy a part in our next issue.

A party's ideas of reform can be seen in the type of men nominated. Republicans talk reform but they selected some times men of badly damaged integrity for office.

The New York World, with its characteristic enterprise, sent its staff of reporters to Albany and interviewed the delegates as to the Presidency.

The Goldsboro Argus is in earnest about having the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad to go to Morehead instead of to Wilmington.

Dr. W. M. Butler, in Epoch, says that the least harmful method of smoking is a clean pipe with mild tobacco.

When the wagon was deep in the mire and the driver prayed to Hercules for help, he was told to try putting his own shoulder to the wheel.

The "Adrian" fire engine was out for practice yesterday afternoon.

Capt. J. T. Harper is repairing one of the wharves at Southport for the tug Alexander Jones.

In consequence of the increase of traffic a daily freight train is to be put on the Carolina Central.

The British steamship Nicotian hauled in at the Champion Compress wharves yesterday to complete her cargo of cotton.

The Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad meeting will be held at the City Court room next Wednesday night.

Visitors to the Western part of the State are returning by every train.

The British steamship Benacre, now in port, will load cotton at the Wilmington Compress, where the Thornycroft is now taking in cargo.

Receipts of cotton yesterday 1,880 bales. Total receipts for the crop year, 36,562 bales; to same time last year 9,021 bales. Increase, 27,541 bales.

Work is progressing rapidly on the Springer building, on Front street. The two fine stores to be fitted up below and the hotel above will probably be ready for tenants some time in November.

Some of "the boys" have formed an Oats Syndicate and sailed in yesterday on a sale of 20,000 bushels for May delivery.

The greatest rainfall in the Wilmington cotton belt yesterday was reported from Lumberton—sixty-four hundredths of an inch.

The following cases were heard in this court yesterday: J. A. Springer vs. J. D. Kerr. Plaintiff called and failed. Judgment non suit.

W. H. Howe, Jr. vs. Alice Howe. Suit for divorce. Continued.

A. G. Ricard, administrator de bonis non, vs. Kitty Moore. Continued.

Alice J. King vs. James J. King. Suit for divorce. Judgment for plaintiff.

Rosa Carter vs. H. A. Westermann. Suit for $2,000 damages for malicious prosecution. Verdict for defendant.

The trial of the above case consumed nearly all the afternoon. Rosa Carter, the plaintiff, is a mulatto woman; H. A. Westermann, the defendant, is a young man well known in the community.

Judge Russell, President of the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina Railroad company, was in conference yesterday with the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen.

It was decided to issue $100,000 of bonds to aid of the railroad.

It was also decided to have the bonds in denominations of $500 and $1,000.

Miss Lela Martin was easily first in the character of Red Riding Hood, and added golden laurels to her reputation as a "prima donna jeunesse."

Penny Boatwright took the part of the Huntsman at short notice and unwillingly, but acquitted himself admirably.

Miss Annie DeRossett sang delightfully, and was the attraction of the entertainment, though her methods are so artless as hardly to compel the recognition to which she is entitled.

The hit of the evening was little Fanny Doyle's solo, White Wings, a charming bit of vocalism that called forth applause upon applause for the little lady.

The whole performance was admirable and exhibited excellent training. The tableaux were very good.

City Attorney Cutler, who was present at the conference, was asked his views. He said it was a matter upon which opinions differed.

A great deal might be said on each side. He was inclined to believe that it would be better to hold the election if it had been held under the old registration.

Judge Russell said that under the General Election law, the city authorities had the power to order a new registration whenever they saw fit.

A correspondent of the STAR writes as follows, concerning the meeting of Fayetteville Presbytery, on the 28th inst.:

Rev. J. P. McPherson preached the opening sermon. Rev. A. L. Phillips was elected Moderator and Ruling Elders A. D. Brown and W. J. Currie, temporary Clerks.

The attendance both of Ministers and Elders was quite large. The free conversation on the state of religion reveals a steady growth in membership, and so is quite encouraging.

The Presbytery very warmly endorsed the N. C. Presbyterian after several exceedingly kind speeches. The great event has been the address of Rev. Dr. J. B. Mack, in the interest of Davidson College.

The only case before the Mayor yesterday was that of Celia Osborne, a middle aged mulatto woman, charged with disorderly conduct.

Specimens of the coal found at Owen Hill, Mrs. Guion's plantation in Bladen county, were sent to parties North for examination a short time since.

The Fayetteville Observer says: "A gentleman who has been prospecting in regard to the outlook of the partridge crop says that it is better than the cotton crop, and he anticipates a glorious sport.

The committee appointed at the meeting last Thursday to select the time and place for a mass meeting of citizens, have decided to call it next Wednesday night, the 5th inst., at the City Court room.

It is hoped that every citizen who takes an interest in this matter—the proposed extension of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad to this city—will be present at the meeting.

The Newbern Journal of Thursday says that at a meeting of the Cotton and Grain Exchange of that city, held on Wednesday evening, a resolution was adopted.

The steamer Gulf Stream sailed from New York for this port at noon yesterday.

Latest advices from Fayetteville report about thirty inches of water on the shoals.

The Light House Board gives notice that on or about October 10, 1887, the light heretofore shown at Pamlico Point light station, south side of the entrance of Pamlico river, North Carolina, will be discontinued.

"Just out," the cunning druggist said. "But here's a liquid warranted to be 'As good.' The patron turned and fled, asking, 'Do you suppose I don't know nothing equals SOZODONT!'"

There is a preservative principle in SOZODONT that effectively preserves the teeth from decay.

A great many cotton exporters are now much interested in a recent circular issued by the Treasury Department in relation to the drawback on the covering of cotton bales.

This drawback is a refund allowed by an act of Congress of 1861 on all exported articles wholly manufactured in the United States from imported materials.

In June, 1885, however, a circular was issued by the Treasury Department relative to the drawback on jute bagging, in which cotton exporters are largely interested.

The refund was suspended as to this article, but for the reason that the bagging could not in all cases be identified as having been manufactured from imported material.

This provision of the circular appears to have been understood as absolutely prohibitory of claims for the drawback by the exporters.

The collectors at the various ports are by this new circular authorized to accept entries for claims for the drawback which were not paid between June, 1885, and May, 1887.
