Local Notes.

Seven large steamers in port and five of them loading with cotton for foreign ports.

The election of a chief of police will come before the Board of Aldermen to-morrow night.

Every citizen of Wilmington who feels an interest in the prosperity of his city should attend the railroad meeting to-night.

Mr. James Quinn, employed in the Lutheran Publishing House, had one of his hands badly mashed in a printing press yesterday.

The steamer Cape Fear arrived from Fayetteville yesterday afternoon with several passengers and a large freight, including 250 bales of cotton.

People should be careful with fire, or anything that may cause fire at this season. Everything is as dry as tinder, and a small spark might start a big conflagration.

A subscriber at Southport sends his subscription, and writes: "I have been reading your paper for a long time, and I can say that I regard the STAR the best daily in the State."

The audience at the Opera House last night were very much annoyed at the noises in the galleries. The management should take steps to prevent this annoyance in future.

Receipts of cotton yesterday 1,479 bales; same date last year 2,136 bales. Total receipts for the crop year 43,263 bales; to same time last year 19,854 bales. Increase, 23,409 bales.

The Mayor's Court yesterday was uninteresting. A colored man was fined five dollars for fast driving, and a colored boy found asleep under a building was sentenced to ten days confinement.

The Cotton World of October 1 says that during the past week or ten days the trade have remodeled their figures on the cotton crop, and that their estimates now range from 6,000,000 to 6,750,000 bales.

The truck of the Wilmington Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1 was the first to respond to the fire alarm yesterday, and was at the place in one minute and forty-nine seconds after the first tap of the bell.

The alarm of fire yesterday about 3 p. m. was caused by a blaze discovered on the roof of a shed in rear of the Sutton House on Market street. The fire was speedily extinguished; the damage was slight.

The citizen's mass-meeting will be held to-night at 8 o'clock, in the court room at the City Hall. Everybody interested in the advancement of the city and the material prosperity of its people should be present.

Simon Brown, colored, was arraigned before Justice Millis yesterday, charged with assault and battery on Rachel Brown, his wife. The woman had received a terrible blow in the eye, and had been handled so roughly that the magistrate required Brown to give bond for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

Graded Schools.

The enrollment of pupils in the graded schools was completed yesterday, the aggregate being about thirteen hundred in the four schools. Union and Hemenway (white) and Williston and Peabody (colored)...

British Steamships in Port.

There are now six "tramp" steamers in port, to load cotton. The Benacre, 1,130 tons; Thornycroft, 1,123 tons; Nicolson, 873 tons; Penner, 991 tons; Parklands, 1,194 tons; and Roseville, 1,086 tons. All of these vessels will load compressed cotton and will carry something near twenty-six thousand bales. The stock at this port is upwards of twenty-nine thousand bales.

Personal.

Hon. R. E. Bridgers arrived in the city last night.

Mr. Cam Devane, of Pine Blom, Ga., is in the city on important business.

Judge Phillips enjoyed a sail on the river yesterday in Mr. Morton's steam yacht, in company with Sheriff Manning and Mr. Morton.

Superior Court.

The case of G. A. Peck vs. S. H. Manning, tried Monday evening, was decided in favor of the plaintiff. The questions submitted to the jury were: "Was the property levied upon at the date of levy by the sheriff the property of W. E. Davis & Son? Answer—yes."

The following cases were heard yesterday: Parsley & Wiggins vs. Jerry King and L. Brown. Decree issued setting aside sale and ordering new sale. J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for plaintiff; no counsel for defendant.

Drussell & Klein vs. C. H. Robinson and C. H. King. Order to take depositions. Order signed.

Julia A. Hart vs. Godfrey Hart. Continued for defendant and sixty days allowed to file answer. John D. Bellamy, Jr., for plaintiff; Stedman & Weill for defendant.

John D. Southerland vs. Melissa Southerland. Verdict for plaintiff and divorce granted. J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for plaintiff; no counsel for defendant.

Godfrey Hart vs. Julia M. Hart. Continued for defendant. Stedman & Weill for plaintiff; J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for defendant.

Gaston C. Hawkins vs. C. Bellois. Continued. J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for plaintiff; M. Bellamy and Russell & Ricard for defendant.

E. G. Barker vs. A. David. Compromised and settled at defendant's cost. J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for plaintiff; Stedman & Weill and M. Bellamy for defendants.

L. A. Capps vs. T. J. Capps. Continued and set for first Tuesday of next term. J. T. Elliott for plaintiff; M. Bellamy for defendant.

Henderson Davis vs. The City of Wilmington. Motion for removal of cause. Motion denied. M. Bellamy and E. S. Martin for plaintiff; D. B. Outlar for defendant.

Wilmington Mutual Insurance Co. vs. J. C. Millis. Continued by consent. H. McClammy for plaintiff; M. Bellamy for defendant.

Fore & Foster vs. N. Jacobi. Continued for defendant. J. D. Bellamy for plaintiff; J. I. Macks and M. Bellamy for defendant.

E. S. Jaffray & Co. vs. Sol. Bear et al. Appeal. Notice of appeal waived. Appeal bond $50.

Court took a recess until 10 a. m. to-day, with the following cases set for a hearing: Robert Williams vs. Mary Williams. M. Bellamy for plaintiff; C. P. Lockey for defendant.

J. G. Boney vs. Sam. Bear, Sr. Russell & Ricard for plaintiffs; H. McClammy for defendant.

Married Against His Will.

An interesting case was tried in the Superior Court yesterday; John D. Southerland suing for divorce from Melissa Southerland. The plaintiff in the case is quite a young man. He came to this county with his parents from Duplin three or four years ago and settled in Federal Point township, where he became acquainted with Miss Melissa Turley, the daughter of Mr. Wm. Turley, a farmer living in the neighborhood. Young Southerland "kept company" with Miss Melissa for some months. Although he might have contemplated matrimony, she was rather dilatory about coming to the point, and Miss Turley's father thought it was advisable to hurry up matters.

It was alleged by the plaintiff that he was waylaid in the woods and captured, and with a pistol pointed at his head by the father of the young lady, was told that he must "marry or die." Seeing that there was no escape, Southerland reluctantly submitted, and was then and there joined in wedlock with the young lady by a justice of the peace, who was with the party that made the capture. Southerland, the reluctant groom, said that he accompanied his bride to her parents' home but left soon afterwards, and has ever since refused to live with her.

The defendant was not present in the court room, nor was she represented by counsel.

The jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff, finding that he was forced violently and against his will to marry the defendant.

Trustee's Sale of Land.

By virtue of authority conferred on me by a Deed of Trust, executed on the 29th December, A. D. 1881, by J. O. Franklin and E. F. Murray, and registered in the office of the Register of Deeds of Onslow County, N. C., in Book 41, pages 24, 25, 26 and 27, I will sell at auction for cash, at the Court House door in Jacksonville, N. C., on Monday, 7th November, 1887, at 10 o'clock, that certain tract of arable land situated about six miles below Jacksonville, on the junction of New and North East Rivers, formerly owned and occupied by David W. Simmons, deceased, known as "Paradise Point," and containing about seven hundred acres, more or less.

Mr. James O. Frazer, living about four miles east of the Simmons place and bearing a title will show the place to persons wishing to inspect it, and give information concerning it. There are three or four hundred acres of arable land on the place. The wide water on each side of it makes the outlook fine and the woods abound with wild game.

OPERA HOUSE.

Mrs. D. P. Bowers as Queen Elizabeth. Mrs. D. P. Bowers appeared in the title role of Giacometti's historical play "Queen Elizabeth" to a cultured audience last night and scored a great success. That she is an artist was fully demonstrated last night and she proved herself worthy of all the good words that have been said of her.

She passed with perfect ease from mildness and gentleness to sternness and austerity and in all the varying phases of the play, she walked and talked a kingly queen. At the end of the first act, her dictation of two letters at one time, showed her powers—the one mild and kind, the other masculine, stern and severe. In the scene of signing Mary Stuart's death warrant, she displayed her greatest powers of facial expression, and in the scene of the declaration of war by Philip, her voice displayed its greatest force and power. The last act—her death scene—was a fitting climax to a fine performance. Her repentance and sorrow, though mingled with an unwillingness of mortals to relinquish earthly power, touched all hearts and made all forget her faults.

Mrs. Bowers was fairly well supported, but especial mention should be made of Mr. Aveling, who was a good Essex.

Mrs. Bowers will always receive a warm welcome from a Wilmington audience.

The Late Col. Griffin.

The funeral of the late Col. C. L. Griffin took place yesterday forenoon, at 11 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Yates, of Grace M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. P. H. Hoge, of the First Presbyterian Church. The interment took place in Oakdale Cemetery. The pallbearers were Capt. W. M. Parker, Col. Roger Moore, Dr. W. G. Thomas, Messrs. W. W. Hodges, H. M. Bowen, Isaac Bates, Geo. P. Cotchett, Geo. W. Kidder, W. T. Daggett and R. Chapman.

Col. Griffin was a steward and trustee and a member of the building committee of Grace M. E. Church, and as a token of respect, its official board met the remains at the depot on Monday night, and yesterday morning in a body met at the parsonage and attended the funeral, wearing badges of mourning.

Water Protection at Fires.

The recommendation of Mayor Fowler that the Hook and Ladder Company (Wilmington No. 1) should detail some of their number to act as a fire patrol, was approved by the company at their regular meeting last Monday. The officers of the company—Alex. Conoley, foreman; D. M. Williams, first assistant foreman, and H. J. Gerken, second assistant foreman—will be invested with police authority. Under this new arrangement, a detail from the Hook and Ladder Company will give attention to the protection of property at fires, and will stretch ropes to prevent the approach of all who are not members of the Fire Department.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS! MOTHERS!—Are you distressed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, at once send for a bottle of WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little and never immediately depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is no mother on earth who has ever used it who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of a first-class and best family physician and nurse in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle.

DEATH OF E. H. McQUINN.

Mr. E. H. McQuinn, a former resident of Wilmington, died in Washington, D. C., last Monday, from consumption. Mr. McQuinn was a Republican; for a number of years he was a justice of the peace for New Hanover county, and at one time U. S. Commissioner. He was a man of excellent sense; quiet and unobtrusive in manner, and had many friends in this community. He leaves a wife and two children.
