OUTLINES.

An attempt was made to wreck the Presidential train while it was passing through Arkansas; a trestle was fired, but it was discovered in time by the pilot train to prevent a terrible catastrophe. — On Friday, when the train on the Southern Pacific Road, was a short distance from El Paso, Texas, it was stopped by robbers and a dynamite bomb hurled at the mail car. which was badly shattered; the mail agent seized a gan and, shot one of the robbers dead, and the others took to their heels. — The total visible supply of cotton for the world is 1,946,049 bales. - Judge H. T. Ellett, who made the welcome address to the President, in Memphis, died on the stand before the ceremonies were completed. - The President was in Memphis yesterday, and met with a most cordial welcome; the city was crowded to overflowing with people, all anxious to see the nation's chief executive officer; the response of the President to the welcoming address was well conceived. -- Telegraphic communication with Charleston was cut off Friday night, by a fire in the suburban town of Magnolia, which melted all of the wires. - The President left Memphis yesterday at 1 o'clock for Nashville. - The Chicago wheat market yesterday was steady, and corn and provisions weaker. — It has been established beyond doubt that the disease prevalent at Tampa is yellow fever. -New York markets: Money easy at 21 @3 per cent., closing offered at 3 per cent; cotton firm at 91@91c; southern four steady; wheat, No. 2 red October 814c; corn steady; No. 2 October 514c; spirits turpentine dull at 34c; rosin

It is given out that the last move n the celebrated case of Mrs. Gaines will be soon made. It has been a long affair.

The Nebraska Republicans are pealiar. They reaffirm their devotion to Protection and ask for a reduction of the War Tariff. They like the bounty, and a great deal of it, out still it is better not to oppose making it some smaller in view of a growing public sentiment.

Rev. Thomas K. Beecher, brother of the late Henry Ward, has accepted the nomination of the Green back party in New York for Secretary of State. Up to now we beheve there are only seven tickets in the field. Some are probably mere side shows of the old parties.

The New York World wished to earn all about the internal working of the insane asylum at Blackwell's Island. One of its female reporters got herself arrested as a crazy peron and passed all the tests of insantty at Bellevue Hospital. Her name is Nellie Brown. Nellie is a "brick."

"Mr. Candler will be upheld by his sect and by numerous persons outside of it.—Anniston Hot-Blast

He will meet with the hearty approval, we have but little doubt, of all evangelical Christians of every "sect" or denomination. Why not Is he not on the side of religion and morality? Did he not speak words of truth and soberness?

If the President has any poetic entiment and human sympathy, he must have been most pleasantly moved when the little flaxen-haired girl at an obscure water-tank reached forth her rustic arm and presented her little banch of golden rod adorned with pink tinted paper to the most prominent of living Americans for the nonce, upon which in girlish style was written-" For the President and his Wife." We are quite sure the Wife must have had a thrill of pleasurable emotion at the homely offering, given in such perfect loyalty of admiration, if she is as sweet and ovely as she is beautiful.

A funny suit is to be brought in teglish clergyman, to become rector. le has taken charge. He is a son of Samuel Warren, author of the once greatly read and still very eadable "Ten Thousand a Year." tis now affirmed that foreign elonence can not be imported or confacted for, and suit for damages are be begun. The Society of St. Andrews will bring suit. A Scotsnamed Cumming was obliged o return to his country because he ad come here under contract. It Pesolved to get that law repealed d hence the promised suit.

Frank Hatton and Bob Porter the English High Tariff blowers, are to start a one cent Republican Protection paper in New York. If Hatton can make as bitter a Radical sheet of the new venture as he does of his Chicago paper, he will meet all the demands of the boys who think the first duty of man is to hate true Democracy.

Mrs. Craik (born Mulock) is dead, we are sorry to learn. She has done a great deal of literary work and some of it of an exceptionally high order, Her "John Hahfax, Gentleman," deserves to live with the language in which it is written. We have no sketch of her life at hand. She was born in 1826.

A man by the name of W. H. Walker assaulted Rev. Dr. Tidball, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, at Camden, N. J., because his wife complained that the Doctor neglected her. The Doctor told him that but for his own calling, he would thrash him soundly.

The World gave 3,247 news boys a night's entertainment at one of the theatres. It chartered the performance for the occasion.

Collision on the Turnpike.

Drivers of carts on the turnpike frequently lie down in their vehicles and either go to sleep or allow their horses to keep the road, and approaching vehicles have to turn out and give up all right to the road.

As Mr. J. M. Forshee and Dr. Schonwald were returning in a buggy from the Sound, driving rapidly on the turnpike Friday night, they met a cart in this predicament, and Mr. Forshee naturally expecting the driver to give him his portion of the road, kept on. The vehicles came together whereupon Mr. Forshee was thrown out, falling almost under the wheels. Dr. Schonwald jumped out of the buggy and seized the horse by the bridle and held him, which doubtless prevented a serious accident. It is suggested that the authorities of the Turnpike Company to prevent such accidents as the above, require all drivers to be in their seats, prepared at all times to control and direct the movements of the teams they are driving.

The Whipping Post Discussed.

Two colored men-one an old infirm stutterer and the other a middle aged man-had a discussion on Front street a day or two ago. The old man was favoring the restoration of the whipping post as a punishment for violators of law for both white and black. He said "whip them and then turn them loose to support their families." He did not believe in putting them in jails and penitentiaries to be fed at public expense, while their families were suffering, or had to be taken care of by the people. To this the younger man replied that he was opposed to such a law; that it would ruin the country; that the hides of old negroes like the one who had just spoken, were so thick and tough New York. The Church of the Holy and hard that they could not feel Trinity invited Rev. Mr. Warren, an the lash, and they would always be stealing and violating the laws of the

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—Ray STLVARUS CORE thus writes in the Boston Uhristian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething slege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
