Secretary Whitney Troubled with Severe Headaches and Unable to Work -The Contest for Carlisle's Seat in congress-Threatened Conflict Besween Civil and Military Forces-Norfolk Navy Yard-The Cape Charles Quarantine Station.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. Secretary Whit-ney is now in New York and will not return to Washington for an indefinite pes riod. Although not suffering from any disease, he is forbidden by his physician from undertaking any work. For the past year the Secretary has had troublesome headaches, which have grown more and more severe and frequent until he is unable to work. For the past two weeks he has not been able even to read his letters, and although he has accumulated some of the material, he has written no word of his annual report, and there is no prospect that he will be able to prepare one. A physician states that with the necessary rest the Secretary will be perfectly well again; and it is probable that he will go to some quiet country place to recuperate. During his absence Commodore Harmony will act as secretary; his duties and responsibilities being shared, however, by a board of bu-reau officers recently organized to meet this emergency. To-day, J. Hale Sypher, attorney for George H. Thoebe, contestant against John G. Carlisle for a seat in the Fiftieth Congress, filed sixty copies of his brief with the Clerk of the House, as required by law. The brief asserts that Thoebe was elected by 6,000 majority. This result is found by rejecting about 1,000 votes cast for Carlisle and about 200 votes cast for Thoebe, which were polled at precincts where it is claimed the laws of Kentucky were not observed. The brief cites Congressional precedents from 10,791, to prove that Congress maintained this view of the law of elections. It also quotes the admissions made by Mr. Carlisle in his answer to the contestant's notice, which are held to be fatal to his title to the seat.

The threatened conflict between the civil and military forces at the Round Valley, Cal., reservation, has been averted by instructions sent by the Secretary of War to General Howard, to withdraw the United States troops now on the reservation pending a judicial settlement of the matter. It is learned at the War Department that a company of soldiers under command of Captain Shaw, was ordered to eject a number of squatters from the reservation. At the request of the Interior Department an injunction was obtained by the squatters from the State Court, and as the captain of the U.S forces refused to obey it the Sate militia was called upon to enforce the court's order. At this juncture the At-torney General appealed the case to the United States Court, and at his suggestion Captain Shaw was directed to discontinue further proceedings. It was while this appeal was pending that the sheriff began his movement looking to the arrest of the military force. The order sent to General Howard to withdraw the military force is expected to prevent an immediate conflict, but the question of jurisdiction involved is regarded at the Department as of the gravest importance. It has cropped out in one shape or another in all of the Indian outbreaks of the last few years, wherever State or territorial authorities have attempted to make arrests on Indian or military reservations, and a final settlement of the conflicting rights of State and Federal authorities over government reservations is earnestly desired by military officers. WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.-Secretary Fairehild to-day authorized this dismissal of sixteen clerks of the $1,600 grade in the New York custom house, who had failed to pass a civil service examination for promotion. This is in addition to 33 clerks in the custom house who were dismissed yesterday. Commodore Harmony, Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks in the Navy Department, in his annual report to the Secretary, says, concerning the Norfolk Navy Yard, "that its importance with its fine position, mild climate and abundant national resources within control, cannot be overestimated, and it is earnestly recommended that every opportunity should be taken to make its equipment ample in all particulars. An appropriation of $25,000 for railroad extension is requested, and it having been determined to build an armor-ed vessel at this Navy Yard, an estimate is submitted of $75,000 to provide permanent building for iron and steel shops to contain such portion of the plant as needs such shelter. Mr. Harmony says: The necessity for a naval station on the shores of the Gulf of Mexico is said to be imperative, not only from possibilities likely soon to arise in these waters and adjoining West Indian countries and seas, but also because the station is needed as the best for naval defence of our own coast and the protection of outlets of our Gulf and Mississippi

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. CINCINNATI, OHIO, Oct. 29.—In his-speech here last night, Governor Gordon, of Georgia, alluded to the reception of Jef-ferson Davis, at Macon, as follows:

"It is charged that we cheered Jefferson Davis. Does that mean going to war again? Let us reason. Suppose we did nt. Sup-pose we turned our back on this palsied, broken-down old man? What did he do that I havn't done? I don't think I shot anybody, but I tried pretty hard. You might ask me to turn the cold shoulder on the wife of my bosom. She went with me to the front; she followed me to the camp, shared my dangers, even to the picket, and at times in danger of the battle, and under Providence I owe to her tender nursing that my life was spared me. Why should I hate her? If we should turn our backs on that man, refuse him our sympathies, we should merit the scorn of every brave man in this audience, and you would feel an absolute contempt for us. When Jeff. Davis left the United States Senate, he left i rich, with regret, and full of political honors. For our sakes he became poor, and debarred forever from political honors in his own country. He lingers to-day with broken health and scarcely a place to lay his head, dragging after him wounded limbs, with increasing suffering, that followed him from Buena Vista. What would you think of me if I said, 'Go hence; I have no more use for you.' I am not going to do it. I would have contempt for Gen. Merijon (who sat on the stage), if he went back on the grand old name of Abraham Lincoln. Put yourself in the other fellow's place.

"It was my fortune, a few weeks ago, in Philadelphis, to take part in the celebra tion of the adoption of the Constitution, and where Georgia had taken her part. ] was proud, as I stood in the streets, to see the shattered remnants of the Union army bearing the shattered remnants of the old flags, and as they were viewed by that October light amid the shouts of ten thousand throats, I felt that the thrill that I knew was pulsating in the veins of the strong, grand men, remnants of the Grand Army of the Republic. Why shouldn't In They were consecrated to a cause which, to those who gathered around them, was as holy as honor and truth. I would have no faith in home and liberty if those men did not love their old flags. So, too, we loved ours. Let us get out of the universe when hatred of the South is called loyalty to the North. "I am going to show you that our children should love their flags. A man is better who has the nerve to do justice, whatever it costs. Was there any honor in carrying these old flags ? They, too, were woven by the patriotic hands of Southern women. They were delivered to husbands and brothers, consecrated by tears and prayers. Some were rent with bullets, blackened with gunpowder and reddened with the blood of the brave. Don't we build monuments to the Confederate dead ? Why. Gen Grant, the greatest General of the Union army, said he was willing to share in the dedication of the monument to the Confederate dead. There isn't good sense in it, and the man who tries to stir your passion does not deserve your votes.

"You see in some of your papers column the promotion of Spencer and the after column about rebel flags. This is resignation of King. Which of them truth; I was there. There were in all that great central city of Macon, Ga., a dozen Confederate flags and fifty thousand of the stars and stripes, and yet some people are so color-blind that they could not see anything but the rebel flags; and yet the very carriage that bore Jefferson Davis, and the horses that drew him, were literally covered with Union flags. The very house that he was in was so covered with them as to al-most blind him. Some speeches were made, a leader was chosen to present a memento of affection to his wife, and the great climax of it was that the Union was rehabil itated on the firmer basis than ever.'

President Grovy and the Caffarel Scandal-Chamberjain's Departure for America

by Cable to the Morning Star. PARIS, October 29.—La Justice states that President Grevy has agreed to post-pone tendering his resignation, in conse-quence of an interview with Rouvier, Le Royer and Floquet, who declared that many members of the Chamber of Deputies would revoke their first vote on motion for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the Caffarel scandal, when it became evident that their vote might be susceptible of an ambiguous interpretation. Other papers assert that there is no question of President Grevy resigning.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day M. Bryce questioned the government about the army forage contracts, and moved that M. Ferron, Minister of War, modify the system. The Government proposed to pass to the order of the day, but the motion to that effect was rejected by a vote of 281 to 219, and Bryce's motion was adopted-308 to 165. The result of the vote caused a sensation in the Chamber. The committee appointed to inquire into the Caffarel scandal unanimously reported that parliamentary inquiry into the matter and into the charges made against Wilson in connection with the affair was necessary.

LONDON, Oct. 29.-An official denial has been a ade of the rumor which has been in circulation here that President Cleveland had requested Lord Salisbury to cancel the appointment of Chamberlain to represent England in the fisheries negotiations. It is announced that Chamberlain is assured of a cordial reception by the American authorites, despite the attacks made upon him by interested parties. Chamberlain started from Birmingham to-day on his way to America, to take part in the fisheries begotiations. Before leaving the city he addressed a crowd which had gathered to see him off. He said he hoped the relations between England and America would continue to be cordial. He also said that' these might be the last words he would ever address to his hearers, and advised them to stick firmly to the union and maintain the inheritance bequeathed them by their forefathers The greatest enemies of the commonwealth, he declared, were those who would do anything to weaken or impair the integrity of the union. Upon the arrival of Chamberlain at Liverpool, the station was cleared and the public was not admitted. The station was strongly guarded by policemen. A num-ber of detectives followed Chaimberlain from the station to the steamer Etruria, it being expected that an attack would be msde upon him in the streets. He was cheered and hooted at as he passed along.

A Dewnward Tendency in Grain and Provisions. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—There was less ac-tivity at the opening on 'Change to-day than for a few days past, and the general tendency for grain and provisions was downward. About the only feature in the wheat pit was the promiscuous unloading of wheat early in the day by the crowd, and the purchasing by several large opena-tors. December wheat, which opened at 784c, under this influence eased off to 784 @781c, the closing figure. Receipts at @784c, the closing figure. Receipts at twelve primary points aggregated 737,500 bushels, and the shifts 301,500 bushels Corn was fairly active at times; with the feeling weaker. The market opened at yesterday's closing prices, and declined, with slight changes, 1@4c Near futures, showing greater weakness, changed some and closed 4c lower for near futures and 4c lower for May than yesterday's closing prices. The weakness was due mainly to prices. The weakness was due mainly to free offerings by one or two prominent operators, which, with an absence of out-side buying orders, ruled the market weak. There was considerable changing of near futures to May. Shipping demands were less urgent and prices for cash were i@ic lower. May closed at 451c Oats were steady and a fair business was transacted. Prices changed but slightly from yesterday's range. Provisions opened strong in sympathy with the hog market, and yesterday's prices were temporarily sustained Later speculative offerings were considerably enlarged and a weaker feeling was developed, accompanied with a decline in prices, especially for deferred deliveries. Prospects of larger receipts of hogs next week with weaker corn market and free selling by packers, were the leading causes contributing to the weakness. The demand was only moderate and chiefly from "shorts." Receipts were light and shipments quite liberal. January mess pork opened at $12 623, sold at $12 653 @13.40, closing at the latter figure. January lard opened at $6.40, sold at $6.821, closing at the latter figure January short ribs opened at $6 871, sold at $6.421@6.80, closing at $6.821.

Mr. Harmony believes that Pensacola, although defective in some respects, combines more advantages for a naval station than Key West, or any point on the Mississippi river. He recommends that the navy yard be moved to the upper part of the bay and nearer the city; and a new and large dock constructed to replace the unserviceable sectional dock.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.-Dr. T. E. Stratton, president of the Richmond Board of Health, called on Surgeon General Ham. ilton to-day in relation to the proposed re-moval of the quarantine vessel from Cape Charles, Va., and raising of quarantine. He represented that the step would expose Richmond, Norfolk, Baltimore and Washington directly, and that vessels might land cargoes and passengers in Chesapeake Bay and spread cholera germs in the country, Dr. Hamilton replied that the vessel now doing quarantine duty was not fit to re-main out during the winter months, and that to leave her out would jeopardise the lives of her physicians and crew. He, however, appreciated the gravity of the danger, and promised to consult with Secretary Fairchild with a view of having a revenue cutter to perform quarantine service,

A Canadian Embezzler Arrested-Jay Gould's Departure for Europe. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 .- Morden Burch, of St. Catherine's, Ont., was arrested to-day for robbing the law firm of Riker & Ingersoll, of a draft for $3,860 and cash amounting to $2,400. When he was asked why he had stolen the money, he said that paying teller Jackson, of the sub treasury of this city, had taken $10,000 into Canada, acce. and he knew of no reason why he should not bring some Canadian money here. He was locked up until the Canadian officers appear. The technical charge against him is bringing stolen money into the ountry. NEW YORK, Oct. 29 .- Jay Gould and party sailed for Europe to-day. The party consisted of Jay Gould, Mrs. Gould, Miss Nellie Gould, aged 16, a young son aged six, and Capt. Shackford, of the "At-alanta." When Mr. Gould had gotten things somewhat in order on shipboard, he left his friends and made himself the centre of a group of reporters who were waiting for him. "Now," said he, "what can I do for you? What do you want me to say.? Don't talk business though, for I am thinking of nothing but pleasure; that is what I am bent upon at present, and expect to attend to for the next three or four months." Without waiting to be questioned, he continued, "We are going direct to Gibraltar, where my yacht is to meet us. Then we will cruise around the Mediterranean for two months. No business, only pleasure. George is capable, and I rely upon him aided by the advice of my friends. I wish you would deny the statement that my physician goes with me. I am not sick, only in need of rest. I expect to be home in the early spring."
