

The Morning Star.
WILLIAM H. BERNARD.
PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT MONDAYS.
RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION, IN ADVANCE.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XLI.--NO. 34.

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1887.

WHOLE NO. 6585

Table with rates of subscription, advertising, and other charges.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

JESSICA AND JOE.
For three nights, commencing TO-DAY...

30 Per Cent. Saved
BY BUYING

CLOTHING
AT

A. SHRIER'S.

In order to introduce our goods in this market we offer our immense line of

Overcoats and Fall Suits

AT PRICES UNSURPASSED, AND AT LEAST 30 PER CENT. LOWER

THAN THE SAME QUALITY OF GOODS SOLD ELSEWHERE.

Remember that by dealing with us you will obtain entirely new goods, a perfect fit and lowest prices and best treatment.

DON'T FORGET THE PLACE.
A. SHRIER'S OLD STAND, AT 114 Market street.

Camel's Hair Shirts, Medicated Flannel Shirts.

DRAWERS OF VARIOUS KINDS, POLO CAPS 10 CENTS

AND CLOTHING AT LOW PRICES.
MUNSON,
107 So. Front St.

ONE DOLLAR AND TEN CENTS WILL BUY A BEAUTIFUL

BASKET OF FRUIT
AT
E. Warren on 107 So. Front St.

For Wet and Cold.
OUR DRESSY & DURABLE BOOTS ARE BETTER BOOTS are suitable to wear in wet and wet weather. Dressy and yet serviceable.

Geo. R. French & Sons.
108 NORTH FRONT STREET.

Come to Headquarters.
WE CAN SHOW YOU THE LARGEST assortment of Toys and Base Balls from the city, and cheaper than ever before sold.

Out They Go.
PEOPLE WILL HAVE THOSE STOVES OF ours, both Cook and Heating. Buy the best of ways, and they are found at PARKER & TAYLOR, Oct 30

Hunting.
GUNS, HISTS, ACCUMULATION, HARD ware, Pistols, Oils, Towels, and everything found in a first class Hardware Store. The best at the lowest prices at
GEO. A. PECK'S,
29 South Front street.
Oct 30

Dunlap Stiff Hats
AND OTHER POPULAR SHAPES.
LOWEST PRICES.
HARRISON & ALLEN,
The Hardware.

School Books.
WE HAVE ALL THE BOOKS USED BY THE Public and Private Schools of the city, and have marked them down LOW. Send for the catalogue down and we will treat them right.
C. W. YATES,
Oct 30

Now is Your Time TO GET YOUR BUGGY OR CARRIAGE repaired and painted. I can make it look as good as new, or can trade or sell you a new one.
Used in the city and building corner of Front and second streets. Yours truly, Oct 30

Five for Ten.
ONE PACKAGE OF THE HENRIEL MARIAGE CIGARETTES, containing five splendid Mariage cigarettes, free from flavor.
C. W. HARRISON,
Oct 30

Liberal POLICY CONTRACTS, PROMPT settlement, quick payment of losses. All of insurable property written in reliable American Companies at the lowest rates.
Custom Insurance a specialty.
W. H. WATSON, REALTOR, Agent, of Fire, Life, Marine, Accident and Tornado Co. A. Telephone No. 11, Office foot of Water street. Oct 30

Foreign Exports in October.
The following is a statement of the amount and value of exports, from this port to foreign countries during the month of October, as compiled from the books at the Custom House:

France—Cotton, 2,900 bales, weighing 1,090,975 pounds, value $96,000.
Germany—Cotton, 9,025 bales, weighing 4,288,049 pounds, and valued at $91,815; rosin, 7,498 barrels, valued at $7,170; spirits turpentine, 14,902 gallons, valued at $4,769.

England—Cotton, 21,890 bales, weighing 10,370,170 pounds, and valued at $94,549; rosin, 12,511 barrels, valued at $11,960; spirits turpentine, 98,044 gallons, valued at $30,563.

Scotland—Rosin, 2,761 barrels, valued at $2,965; spirits turpentine 12,296 gallons, valued at $3,812.

Hayti—Three barrels of naval stores valued at $11,394,000; feet of lumber, valued at $190,700.

Porto Rico—Lumber, 230,000 feet, valued at $3,904.

Summary.
Cotton, 37,814 bales, valued at $1,029,964; spirits turpentine, 125,242 gallons, valued at $39,144; rosin, 22,692 barrels, valued at $21,341; lumber, 633,000 feet, valued at $8,999; shingles, 55,000, valued at $311. Total value of foreign exports for the month, $1,169,459.

Opera House.
"The Round Trip," but no "Fair Encounter."

Notwithstanding the stormy weather, a large and fashionable audience witnessed the first appearance of Mr. John S. Clarke in our city last night, in the character of Adolphus Shad in "The Round Trip." Mr.
Clarke fully sustained the fine reputation which he has won both in England and America, and his acting entitles him to one of the first places in his profession. Mr. Clarke is one of the few comedians of the old school, and it was indeed a pleasure and a treat to witness his delineations last night. From certain-rise to certain-fall he kept his audience in one continuous uproar of laughter.

Mr. Clarke passed with perfect ease from one mood to another, and his facial expression always bespoke his moods. He was well supported throughout, and especial mention should be made of Masters Arthur Myers and James Singletary, who were wise enough to know their papa.

The "Fair Encounter" was advertised as an after-piece, but was not given, and universal was the expression of disapproval of the audience.

The management of our Opera House will soon discover that our people, who heretofore have been long suffering and slow to anger, will refuse to patronize any troupe that does not give some guarantee of good faith.

Rocky Mount Fair.
Mr. J. R. Underwood, the energetic Secretary and Treasurer of the Rocky Mount Fair Association, was in the city yesterday on official business, and called at the STAR office.

He says the prospects for the coming Fair, to be held November 16th, 17th and 18th, are most encouraging. He is now making efforts, and with marked success, to secure exhibits from the Raleigh, Wilson, Goldsboro, Fayetteville and Tarboro Fairs, and altogether he feels assured that this will be the most successful Fair ever held at Rocky Mount. A special train will leave Fayetteville at 6 a. m. on the 17th, and arrive at Rocky Mount at 10 a. m. Passengers from Goldsboro can go by the local freight and connect with the Fayetteville train at Wilson. Trains on the Nashville branch will leave Spring Hope every day at 7:45 a. m., arriving at Rocky Mount at 9 a. m. Fare on all the railroads one cent per mile each way.

Mr. Underwood speaks in high praise of the liberality of the railroad managers, who are doing everything in their power to make the Fair a success.

The Naval Stores Market.
The naval stores market has been on a boom, especially in Savannah, where there has been a steady advance for a week past in prices of spirits turpentine and rosin. The advance is looked upon as a legitimate one, and other markets have responded. In fact, Wilmington has gone beyond her Southern sisters, paying one-quarter of a cent more per gallon for spirits than either Savannah or Charleston.

The advance in prices of spirits turpentine is said to be that the stock in London this year, compared with last, is 11,900 casks short, and the price at the present time is 9d. lower per 100 weight, while the stock for several years, showing that the product has gone rapidly into consumption. In rosin there has also been an increase in value.

The advance is believed by some operators to be speculative, while others say that it is warranted by the movement and stocks on hand.

Opera House To-night.
The Jessica Thomas Comedy Company begin their five night's engagement at the Opera House to-night.
They will present the comedy-drama of the "Daughter of the Regiment," and conclude the evening's entertainment with the one act farce, "The Loan of a Lover."

The company is composed of some ten or more persons, and the universal opinion of press and people who have witnessed their performances, is one of praise.

The manager promises the public that the plays shall be given in their entirety. This ought to be refreshing news to a people who have been duped by "stars" and "combinations" until they are becoming nauseated with the treatment.

E. S. COURT.
Hon. A. S. Seymour, U. S. District Judge, arrived last night on the 7.40 train, accompanied by U. S. District Attorney Busbee and Assistant District Attorney Peoples. Shortly after the arrival of Judge Seymour the District Court was convened, but immediately adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

After adjournment of the District Court, the U. S. Circuit Court met, and Mr. W. H. Shaw was sworn in as deputy clerk. The Court then adjourned.

The Tyler Desk Co., of St. Louis, Mo., manufacturers of Office Desks and Interior Fittings for Banks, Court Houses and Government Buildings, have just published a new 100 page Illustrated Catalogue of new designs. Architects and business men should send for it; free. Postage 7 c.

Local Notes.
The Governor has appointed Mr. A. K. Walker, of this city, a notary public.

This being All Saints Day, there will be services and a celebration in St. John's church at 11 a. m.

The steamer Cape Fear brought down a large freight from Fayetteville, including 180 bales of cotton.

The box sheet of the Jessica Thomas Comedy Company will be open to-day at Mr. P. Heinsberger's.

There was a light fall of snow at Rutherfordton Sunday night, as we learn from a telegram received here yesterday.

Messrs. Robinson & King cleared the Norwegian barque Nor yesterday for London, with 2,900 barrels of rosin, valued at $3,960.

Work was begun yesterday on the temporary bridge over the railroad cut on Fourth street. It is to be finished in fourteen days.

Receipts of cotton yesterday 1,340 bales. Total receipts since September 1st, 81,719 bales; last year to same time, 52,900 bales. Increase, 27,900 bales.

There was a heavy run on the wood flats at Princess street dock yesterday. Wood was selling by the dry load at 65¢75 cents—$2 60/3 00 per cord. Over one hundred cords of wood were retailed from the boats at this dock alone.

Col. Waddell's Oration.
The Richmond Dispatch in its report of the annual gathering of the Association of Veterans of the Army of Northern Virginia, gives a brief account of the oration delivered by Col. A. M. Waddell on the occasion:

"Colonel Waddell was warmly received by the association and the crowd, and was loudly applauded.
With graceful and eloquent allusion to the memories of the occasion and some very fine satire on the changes in the South, he introduced certain so-called statesmen of the present, Colonel Waddell quoted from Colonel Charles Marshall's speech before this association some years ago as to the very great difficulty of giving accurately historic facts.

Among other illustrations of this Colonel Waddell cited the mistakes that had been made in the accounts of Pettigrew's division at Gettysburg.
He eloquently insisted, amid the loud applause of the audience, that while he would not detract from the honor that justly belongs to Pickett's division, yet it was due to Pettigrew's division of Northern Carolinians and Archer's Tennessee brigade to say that on that last day at Gettysburg they went as far and stayed as long as any other troops, and are entitled to equal honor with Pickett's men.

He appropriately introduced as his theme "The Last Year of the War in North Carolina." He gave a very vivid account of the capture of Plymouth, which seemed to be of great interest to the audience. He then proceeded to an account of the bombardment and final capture of Fort Fisher. He also gave a very amusing account of Butler's powder-ship and its explosion, and told an anecdote given him by Admiral Porter, which brought down the house in rapturous applause.

His description of the final assault and capture of Fort Fisher and the gallant defense of the heroic garrison was very fine.

Colonel Waddell enlivened his speech with keen wit, humor, and well-told anecdotes, which brought down the house in applause. The whole speech was an admirable one.

Mayor's Court.
There was a large number of "arrivals" registered at police headquarters Saturday night and Sunday.

Charley Shuddell was drunk and disorderly last Saturday night, and was required to pay a fine of $20 or work thirty days in the chain gang.

Edward Herring, disorderly conduct, in two cases. A fine of $20 was imposed in the first case with the alternative of thirty days in the chain gang. Judgment was suspended in the second case.

Peter W. Gause, drunk and down last Saturday afternoon, was fined $10, with the alternative of twenty days in the chain gang.

Harry Thornly, drunk and disorderly, $10 or twenty days in the chain gang.

Edward Bowden, colored, disorderly conduct; fined $5.

William Ross, colored, disorderly conduct—two cases. A fine of $20 or thirty days in the chain gang was the judgment in the first case. Judgment was suspended in the second case.

James Benson, for keeping an unlicensed dog, was fined $8, one dollar to be remitted when he procured the necessary badge.

Henry Owens, colored, had failed to procure a badge for his dog, and he was fined $6—one dollar of which was to be remitted when the badge was obtained.

Richard Holmes, colored, for keeping an unlicensed female dog, was fined $7—two dollars to be remitted when the necessary badge was secured. An appeal was taken from the judgment of the Mayor and the required bond given.

Annual Meeting.
The fifty-second annual meeting of stockholders of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, will be held at the office of the President of the Company in this city, on Wednesday the 17th inst.

Col. Waddell's Oration.
The Richmond Dispatch in its report of the annual gathering of the Association of Veterans of the Army
of Northern Virginia, gives a brief
account of the oration delivered by
Col. A. M. Waddell on the occasion:

"Colonel Waddell was warmly received by the association and the crowd, and was loudly applauded.
With graceful and eloquent allu-
sion to the memories of the occasion
and some very fine satire on the
changes in the South, he introduced
certain so-called statesmen of the present, Colonel Waddell quoted from Colonel Charles Marshall's speech before this association some years ago
as to the very great difficulty of giving accurately historic facts.

Among other illustrations of this
Colonel Waddell cited the mistakes
that had been made in the accounts of Pettigrew's division at Gettysburg.
He eloquently insisted, amid the loud
applause of the audience, that while
he would not detract from the honor
that justly belongs to Pickett's division, yet it was due to Pettigrew's
division of Northern Carolinians and Archer's Tennessee brigade to say
that on that last day at Gettysburg
they went as far and stayed as long as
any other troops, and are entitled to
equal honor with Pickett's men.

He appropriately introduced as his
theme "The Last Year of the War in North Carolina." He gave a very
vivid account of the capture of Plymouth, which seemed to be of great interest to the audience. He then proceeded to an account of the bombardment and final capture of Fort Fisher. He also gave a very amusing
account of Butler's powder-ship and
its explosion, and told an anecdote
given him by Admiral Porter, which
brought down the house in rapturous
applause.

His description of the final assault
and capture of Fort Fisher and the
gallant defense of the heroic garrison
was very fine.

Colonel Waddell enlivened his
speech with keen wit, humor, and
well-told anecdotes, which brought
down the house in applause. The
whole speech was an admirable one.

Gen. Henry R. Jackson has been explaining elucidating his speech at Macon that, as the STAR prophesied, would be misunderstood and misrepresented. A correspondent of the World reports him as saying:

"Will you pardon me, since you deem this subject of enough importance to seek this interview, for repeating briefly my position? I attempted to make plain two things in my speech. First, that the South did not fight for slavery, but that she fought for a governmental principle in spite of slavery and to the peril of slavery. Second, that this governmental principle, which is not local to this country, but which is world-wide, is the principle upon which successful human government must finally be built; and incidentally, and purely incidentally, that Mr. Davis having represented this principle of State sovereignty, when that triumph came to the world will take precedence of Mr. Lincoln, who fought for the opposite end, as I believe, unwise and pernicious principle of centralized power.
You may understand how incidental this personal allusion was when I tell you that I yielded to few men in my admiration for Mr. Lincoln as a man."

That was a most touching scene at Macon when the veterans took their leave of ex-President Davis. It was a grand historic scene. The Memphis Appeal says:

"The memory of other days completely overmastered the marshaled thousands, and they freely mingled their tears with those of Mr. Davis, as he embraced the flag that so often led them to victory. Their emotions were stirred to the profoundest depths, and the great throng wept as so many children in presence of a great sorrow."

That scene is worthy of the brush of the greatest painter of historic scenes.

While the Democrats are making lively fight in Ohio and reports are favorable the STAR is not looking out for a triumph. Ohio is a Republican State and when the people vote it will go Republican. There is no doubt that the Democrats deserve to carry it and that little Foraker, a most contemptible demagogue, ought to be sent to the rear.

Gov. Gordon is a fine talker and no mistake. He never fails, and he has ability far above what has been generally conceded him. He is one of the safest and surest and best of our Southern speakers. Gen. Jackson's rhetoric is finer, more intense, more ornate, and his imagination is more poetic and sympathetic.

After some six months effort the New York Star has succeeded in raising in money a little more than $5,000 for the monument to the "North's greatest soldier." Military genius is at a discount. But the North gave Grant hundreds of thousands when he was living.

Even the Chicago Inter-Ocean concedes to say of the great Southron:

"Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

Robert E. Lee was unquestionably a
great General, and whether a monument were built to his honor or not, will endure
in history as a fine embodiment of military
character."

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
A. E. IVEY—Indian Citizenship.
TANNER & DELANY ENGINE CO.
R. L. HUTCHINS—Magic Polish.
L. J. POISSON—Real estate agent.
TYLER DESK CO.—St. Louis, Mo.
E. WARREN & SON—Choice fruits.
MUNSON—Clothing and furnishings.
W. & W. R. CO.—Annual meeting.
H. VON GLAHN—W. L. Douglas $3 shoes.

Meteorological.
The following meteorological summary for the month of October was furnished by Mr. F. P. Chaffee, Signal officer:

The highest temperature was on the 3d inst.—85.3 degrees; the lowest, on the 31st, 34.3. The mean temperature for the month was 62.7 degrees.

The highest barometer was on the 15th—30.33 inches; the lowest on the 31st, 29.65. The mean barometer was 30.008.

The highest velocity of wind during the month was 22 miles on the 31st.
The prevailing direction was from the northeast.

The total precipitation the past month was 6.53 inches.

Almost a Fire.
One of the chimneys of Col. O. G.
Parsley's residence, on Princess near Front street, caught on fire yesterday morning about 9 o'clock. A few minutes afterwards it was noticed that smoke was issuing from under the eaves of the house, and it was discovered that the ceiling near the chimney had ignited. The fire was promptly extinguished and no alarm was given. The damage will not exceed five dollars.

Mending Their Ways.
The county authorities are having the brick pavement torn up on Princess street, from the corner of Third to the Court House, preparatory to having the same relaid with new brick, recently purchased by the county commissioners for this purpose.

The Hartford Courant, Washley's
paper, says the late Minister Wain-burn could have been elected in 1860 or 1864. The Chicago Inter-Ocean indorses it. But it is too late. He cannot be elected in 1888.

The Hartford Courant, Washley's
paper, says the late Minister Wain-
burn could have been elected in 1860
or 1864. The Chicago Inter-Ocean
indorses it. But it is too late. He cannot be elected in 1888.

The Hartford Courant, Washley's
paper, says the late Minister Wain-
burn could have been elected in 1860
or 1864. The Chicago Inter-Ocean
indorses it. But it is too late. He cannot be elected in 1888.