W. D. Howells, the Northern povelist, was one of the signers of the petition asking for the pardon of the bomb-throwers and murderers. He is probably crazy. When he repeatedly asserted that Tolstoi was the greatest novelist for all time it was real cause for the serious fears of his friends that he was becoming daft. It is now certain after trying so hard to save the Anarchists from their just doom that he is as mad as insanity itself and the realistic craze or fetich has done it.

The Oxford Orphan Asylum needs help. There are more than 200 children now at this excellent institution and applications are pouring in. It is suggested that the usual collection be taken on Thanksgiving Day. Wilmington has responded to these appeals in the past and it is to be hoped that it will do so this year.

-- Asheville Advance: The Asheville Daily Advance changes hands this week. A sale of the entire outfit of the paper was effected yesterday, and the result is that all title and interest in the paper passes from the hands of the former proprietor into the hands of an incorporation consisting of several gentlemen, who will hereafter manage and edit this journal. In order to give a good legal title to this property and to secure the creditors of the former proprietor of this paper against loss, it was thought better to couple with this sale a deed of assignment. The new proprietors purchase the Advance subject to all incumbrances, which they will, of course, discharge. [The Citizen says i will be hereafter a Republican paper .-

Sonday Notes.

Rev, Mr. Flagg, of New York, conducted services at St. James' church on Sunday morning. His sermon is represented to us as one of uncommon excellence and beauty.

Rev. D. H. Tuttle hewed to the line on Sunday morning at Fifth Street Methodist church. It was all for his members. At night he preached to a packed church on the Theatre. It was marked by his characteristic earnestness and vigor.

Rev. J. W. Guthrie, Presiding E der of this Methodist district, is still a sufferer from an affection of his mouth. If his health allows he ought to be returned to his present extensive field of labor for he is the most efficient Presiding Elder, so far as we can learn, that the district has had since Dr. Burkhead was in charge.

We are pleased to hear that the ministers of several of the Christian denominations of Wilmington will hold a meeting on Wednesday night to take steps to invite Rev R. G. Pearson, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and a noted revivalist, to visit Wilmington and conduct a series of union meetings, as he has done at Charlotte and Salisbury with such blessed reattend the preachers' meeting.

Rev. C. L. Arnold, wife and daugh ter arrived in the city Sunday morning and are at present the guests of Col. J. J. Hedrick. Mr. Arnold accepted the call to St. Paul's Episcopal Church some six weeks ago and comes now to take charge. He is a gentleman of rare intellectual endowments. and a most earnest and eloquent preacher, and there is no doubt that under his ministration St. Paul's will "flourish like a green bay tree." His sermon of Sunday morning, "We are Co-laborers together with God," was particularly impressive, and a treat to all who were fortunate in hearing | the damage has been very great both

One Hundred Years Old.

The African Methodist Church of the United States will celebrate its centennial this month. St. Stephens. one of the largest and most important of their congregations, begins the celebration Wednesday of next week at 8 p. m., with a free concert, under the direction of Miss C. F. Hooper. On Thursday, the 16th, the centennial oration will be delivered by Bishop J. P. Campbell, D. D. LL. D. of Philadelphia, whose father was one of the organizers of the Church. After the oration a banquet will be given in the basement of St. Stephens. Rev. A. J. In pursuance of this, they used as a meeting house the blacksmith shop of the prime mover in this secession, Richard Allen, a native of Delaware and a slave by birth. His shop stood on the corner of Sixth and Lombard streets, and on this spot Richard Allen, who subsequently became the first negro Bishop of the Church in the United States, is buried, and magnificent church now stands there, capable of accommodating four thousand souls. OPERA HOUSE.

A large and fashionable audience were gathered at the Opera House last evening to listen to the first production in our city of the charming opera, "The Beggar Student," by the MacCollin Opera Company. To the company nothing but praise can be given, and it was the unanimous verdict of all that it is the best that has ever visted our city. Misses Hall, Haas and Gaillard formed a splendid triumvirate of female voices, while Messrs. Gaillard, Branson and MacCollin took care of the reputation of their sex.

The fun of the opera is furnished by Mr. MacCollin in the bombastic role of the General, and by Miss Hall's graceful and easy acting in the soubrette role of Bronislava. Mr. Mac-Collin in his topical song of "Sponge 'em Out," and Miss Hall's "Oh me, Mamma," took the house completely.

No greater praise can be given than to say that every solo, every duet, their Tom tition demanded. The music was bright and sparkling, the dialogue fresh and witty, and the chorus strong and precise. To-night "Merry War" will be sung, and it is said to be even brighter and prettier than the opera last night. We would state that the opera company [will not leave here until to-morrow morning for Goldsboro, and therefore our people need not fear that the opera will be cut short. We predict a crowded house for to-night.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW!—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magio—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do miss ur and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DALLY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No Mothers has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City.
