OUTLINES.

Morbid curiosity led between four and five thousand Chicago people, yesterday, to gaze upon the distorted faces of Parsons and Fischer at the undertaker's establishment; the remains of Spies and Engel had previously been removed by their friends.

We use now and then as a heading for editorial melange the word "Ollapodiana." In the play of "The Poor Gentleman," by George Colman, the Younger, there is a famous character called Dr. Ollapod.

Senator Vance has a new way of "raising turkeys." In his Catawba county agricultural address he said, as reported in Asheville Citizen:

"Among other valuable and timely suggestions he made the following as the best, surest and most agreeable way of raising turkeys. He said his experience was that the man should go into some other man's field, surround the turkey carefully with his knees, get a good solid grip on the top, pull with all necessary force, and then 'skip by the light of the moon.' He naively added, (no pun meant here) this method rarely ever failed to raise a good turkey."

In spite of lying, conspiring, and kicking by Republicans and so-called Reformers, Jackson, Democratic candidate for Governor in Maryland, has a plurality of 9,601. The Legislature stands, Senate, 22 Democrats, 4 Republicans; House, 71 Democrats, 20 Republicans. This will do in the face of the extraordinary exertions of certain Democratic leaders to hand the State over to the tender keeping of the old rotten Republican party.

Virginians are very happy and no wonder. The victory over that wicked little spindle-shank fellow, Mahone, is enough to make them furious with rejoicing. That good Democratic paper, the Philadelphia Record, must go back to the Old Testament to illustrate. It says:

"The Israelites, when they found themselves safe from their Egyptian pursuers on the thither side of the Red Sea, with Pharaoh safe on the bottom, had hardly more reason to be glad than have the people of Virginia to have escaped from the clutch of Mahone."

Old John Sherman has crept out of his hole and says: "I believe the tendency hereafter will be to make the next presidential contest turn upon the same political dogmas that divided the people in 1860."

If he or little Benny Foraker shall be nominated that will be the character of the campaign in 1888. It will be the "Union, now and inseparable" against the Bloody Shirt.

Death of Mr. Samuel Howland. Mr. Samuel Howland died at his residence in this city yesterday afternoon about one o'clock, after an illness of some two weeks' duration. Mr. Howland was about 65 years of age. He was a native of Newbern, in this State, and came to Wilmington when quite a young man, and has since resided here. He was for years a conductor on the Carolina Central railroad, and more recently a member of the police force of the city. He leaves a wife and four children—two sons and two daughters. When the announcement of his death was received at the City Hall, yesterday afternoon, the Mayor ordered the doors closed, and appropriate emblems of mourning displayed.

Local Dots. — The winter schedule on the Atlantic Coast Line goes into effect to-day.

— The new fire-hose received by the city will be distributed to the engine companies to-morrow.

— Services in St. John's church to-day at 7.30 and 11 a. m. and 5 p. m., by the Rector, Dr. Carmichael.

— Evening services at the First Baptist church begin now at 7.30 p. m. instead of 8 p. m., as heretofore.

— Five colored couples waltzed up to the Register of Deeds office last week and were licensed to marry.

— Brother Pleasants, of the Messenger, has returned after a pleasant vacation spent to the northward.

— The temporary bridge on Fourth street, over the railroad, was finished yesterday and thrown open to the public.

— There were five interments the past week in Pine Forest (colored) Cemetery. In Bellevue one interment; in Oakdale none.

— Rev. Samuel Christian, D. D., (colored), a Northern revivalist, will preach at Shiloh Baptist Church to-day. All are cordially invited.

— Our city subscribers are greatly annoyed by newspaper thieves, especially on Sundays. We hope some of the rascals may be caught and properly punished.

— In the comparative cotton statement, published yesterday, the "net receipts at all United States ports during the week" should read 300,688 bales, instead of 330,688.

— A good sidewalk has been laid on Nun street from Sixth to Seventh, in front of the Union school. The work was done by the street force under direction of Capt. Sholar.

— A "Service of Song" will be held at Fifth Street M. E. Church to-night; conducted by Prof. H. C. Lincoln and wife, whose musical attainments have attracted so much attention in the South.

— The bill boards on Market street, nearly opposite the store of Mr. Arthur H. Holmes, are in a dangerous condition, and liable at any time, during a high wind, to tumble over and hurt somebody.

— A burglary was perpetrated Thursday night last at the house of Mrs. C. M. Galloway, on Ninth and Queen streets. The thieves got into the pantry and took all of Mrs. Galloway's supply of provisions.

— The remains of Dr. J. T. Barnes, who died at Southport last Thursday, were brought up to this city yesterday on the Louise and taken North on last night's train, for interment at Stantonsburg, Wilson county, N. C.

— At Fifth Street M. E. Church to-day Rev. D. H. Tuttle will preach a sermon to young men, showing the advantages and benefits derived from the Young Men's Christian Association. The services will begin at 11 a. m.

— The choir of Grace M. E. Church will give an entertainment with a fish and oyster supper, next Thursday night, at the residence of Capt. J. J. Bowden, No. 214 North Seventh street. Every well-wisher of the church is invited to be present.

— Two youngsters charged with disorderly conduct—fighting in the streets—were brought before the Mayor yesterday. They were admonished and discharged. This was about the sum and substance of the business at the City Court yesterday.

— This is "Bible Day" for the Baptists in the United States. At the first church in this city, Rev. Dr. Pritchard will preach a sermon this morning on "Our Duty to the Bible." At night, his subject will be "The Influence of Woman a Power Against Infidelity." He alluded very touchingly and tenderly to the kindness which his congregation and himself had received from Rev. Dr. Mendelssohn and the Israelites of the city and expressed his willingness to serve them to the utmost of his ability whenever it was in his power to do so.

To-day Rev. Dr. Yates will conduct the usual Sabbath morning and evening services for the congregation of Grace Methodist Church. The Sabbath school will convene at 8 p. m.

Cotton Movement. — The receipts for the crop year, so far—from September 1st to November 12th—aggregate 100,259 bales, showing as compared with receipts (67,405 bales) last year an increase of 32,854. It is well to note in this connection that the total receipts last year were 134,030 bales and of the year before 101,537. Receipts the past week are 17,768, against 13,711 bales the same week last year. The stock at this port is 20,861 bales.

Rocky Mount Fair. — A note from the Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. J. R. Underwood, says that the Rocky Mount Fair will be held on the 16th, 17th and 18th inst. Capt. Swift Galloway is expected to deliver an address.

Our Building Associations.

The amount paid in every month to the two Building and Loan Associations of this city approximates $4,500, or over $50,000 per year. Stop a moment and think of this annual accumulation from small payments of 25 cents per share, and the interest on loans, per week. This will give a practical understanding of the immense benefit of these organizations. The small sums paid in by each stockholder and, separately, never be used to any advantage; but, combined, they make an aggregation of capital that is used with equal benefit to all concerned.

The Building Association is in "real" one of the best of Savings Banks. For example: The owner of five shares pays $1.25 per week, and this payment is compulsory to the extent that every failure to pay subjects him to a fine. Should he find that he has taken more stock than he can conveniently carry, there is always a market for it at an advance on the amount he has actually paid in. But even should there be no outside demand for the stock, his Association always stands ready to take his stock and return his money without interest.

The great inducement offered to persons of moderate means who wish to own their homes by the Building Associations, is the fact that they can borrow the purchase money at eight per cent. interest, and pay back both principal and interest in small weekly instalments. In this particular there is nothing that equals the Building Association.

Government Improvements on Black River. — Capt. Chas. Humphrey, engineer in charge of Government improvements on Black river, is doing good work in clearing the stream of obstructions and deepening the channel. The appropriation is small—only three thousand dollars—and not a great deal can be expected, but, nevertheless, many obstructions have been removed and the channel greatly improved. Two large machines for raising logs and stumps that impede navigation are at work under the direction of Capt. Wm. Skinner, and much has been accomplished. The work done has already made it possible for steamers to run regularly from this port to Clear Run, in Sampson county, on any stage of water. The importance of these improvements will be appreciated when it is known that a short time ago it was thought impracticable for this river to be opened for continuous navigation for steamboats, and yet, with this partial improvement, traffic has developed wonderfully, bringing many thousand barrels of naval stores and hundreds of bales of cotton to the city.

Pender County. — The State Board of Education held a meeting in Raleigh, last Thursday, for the purpose of sending an official request to the Attorney General to frame a contract relative to a lease of the "convict road" in Pender county to a syndicate, headed by Mr. Geo. A. Ramsey, to be used as a bed for a railway or tramway. The company deals in timber and wants the road for transportation of timber out of Angola swamp. The main provision of the contract will be that the company may have the use of nine feet of the road bed, provided it will keep the remaining thirteen feet in good order for the general use of the public. The road runs through the swamp for nine miles, and is the only effective mode of going through it. The contract will be submitted to Mr. Ramsey for consideration, and to be accepted or rejected. The road is on the public lands of the State and is under control of the State Board of Education.

Grace M. E. Church. — The lecture of Rev. Dr. Yates at the Temple of Israel last Friday night was a masterly effort, and all who heard him were delighted with the manner in which he handled his subject—"The Influence of Woman a Power Against Infidelity." He alluded very touchingly and tenderly to the kindness which his congregation and himself had received from Rev. Dr. Mendelssohn and the Israelites of the city and expressed his willingness to serve them to the utmost of his ability whenever it was in his power to do so.

To-day Rev. Dr. Yates will conduct the usual Sabbath morning and evening services for the congregation of Grace Methodist Church. The Sabbath school will convene at 8 p. m.

Accidents. — Wm. Buchanan, a colored stevedore, had his right leg broken between the knee and ankle yesterday, while at work in the hold of the British steamship Ferncliffe. He was engaged in stowing cotton, when one of the bales slipped from the slings and fell into the hold, striking Buchanan and breaking his leg as above stated. The injured man was taken to his home on Queen street and a physician set the broken limb.

Another colored stevedore, Jake Richardson, was struck on the head by a hatch and slightly injured, while at work on a vessel lying at the Champion Compress wharves.

A Negro Drowned. — A correspondent writing from Whitaker's, Edgecombe county, says that a negro man named Henry Harper was found dead near that place last Friday. The Coroner of the county summoned a jury, consisting of John T. Taylor, R. C. Crenshaw, O. D. Mann, J. W. Braswell, Chas. Grant and J. H. Taylor, who rendered a verdict that the deceased lost his life by drowning while trying to escape from an officer who was trying to arrest Harper for hog stealing.

Cotton Fire at Maxton. — A correspondent writing from Maxton, N. C., says that fire broke out in a lot of cotton bales on the platform of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad at that place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The origin of the fire is a mystery. About fifty bales were damaged; the loss is estimated at $500. Mr. J. C. McCaskill was the heaviest loser. The "Rescue" Fire Company did good service, and in a short time subdued the flames.

Naval Stores Receipts. — Receipts of spirits turpentine for this crop year—from April 1st to Nov. 12—are 53,076 casks, against 47,742 casks received up to Nov. 13th, 1886; an increase of 5,334.
