

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

A Valuable Resource for the Sick.

Among the many resources which medical skill has made available for the sick and debilitated, none rank higher than Simmons' Liver Regulator, a non-poisonous remedy for

PURELY VEGETABLE.

It releases the bowels without griping, purifies a bilious and completely restores the many distressing symptoms which torment sufferers from Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Kidney troubles. It also effectually removes those nervous symptoms felt when bile is imperfectly secreted. It is mild and gentle, which has our Trade-Mark in red, on front of wrapper.

Prepared by J. C. SIMMONS, 111 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia, Pa.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

CURES ALL HUMORS,

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula, Salt-Rheum, and all the various stages of the disease, from its earliest origin, to the most advanced stage, it cures the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, Eruptions, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Swellings, White Swellings, Gout, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send for a full description of this new and valuable medicine, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections.

"THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE"

is the motto of this Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, and vital strength, are established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its marvelous power over this terrible disease, which has for so long been a scourge to the public, Dr. Pierce has thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but has abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, antiseptic, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unquestionably the most powerful remedy for all chronic diseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have yellow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, and loss of appetite, or if you are afflicted with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and a general feeling of languor, or if you are afflicted with Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness," in many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is unsurpassed.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and all the affections of the Throat, it is sold by Druggists at $1.00, or SIX BOTTLES for $5.00.

Send ten cents to Dr. Pierce's Medical Dispensary, for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, 665 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the proprietors of this medicine for a case of catarrh which they can cure.

Having a discharge from the nose, offensive or otherwise, partial loss of sight, or a feeling of heat in the eyes, or a pressure in head, you have Catarrh. Thousands of cases terminate in consumption. Write for a full description of the worst cases of Catarrh, "Cold in the Head," and Catarrhal Headache. 50 cents.

The Morning Star

THIS LIFE IS WHAT A MARKET.

Let's offer talk of noble deeds, And rarer of the bad ones, And not about the happy day, And not about the sad ones. We were not made to fret and sigh, And when grief aches, to wail; it; Bright happiness is standing by— This life is what we make it.

Let's find the sunny side of men, Or be believers in it; A light there is in every soul That takes the pains to win it. O, there's the slumbering good in all, And perchance you may wake it; Our hands contain the magic wand— This life is what we make it.

Then here's to those whose loving hearts Shed light and joy about them; Thanks be to them for countless gems We never had known without them. O, this should be a happy world To all who may partake it; The fault's our own if it is not— This life is what we make it.

RELIGIOUS MISCELLANY.

— Three of the Northern Methodist Episcopal Bishops have died since the last General Conference—Bishop Matthew Simpson, Bishop Wiley and Bishop Harris.

— The Christian schools are open again. The Christian year, and these words truly describe all that bear the name? Respectfully submitted to all concerned.—Nashville Advocate.

— A rich Baptist, who has put half a million dollars into Baptist enterprises, says to us: "I have gone back $300,000 of late, and if I had not given those amounts when I did it might not be possible for me to cure this now. I am glad I did it then."—Richmond Religious Herald.

— From a list of the Protestant pastors in active service in New York city, drawn up by the secretary of the City Mission, it appears that the Protestant Episcopalians lead, with 78; the Presbyterians come next with 63; the Methodists have 51; the Baptists 34; the Reformers (Dutch) 28; the Lutherans, 21; the Independents, 18; the Congregationalists, 7, and the Reformed Episcopalians and the Moravians, 2 each. This makes a total of 326.

— Rev. S. Taylor Martin made an appeal to Dr. M. D. Hoge's congregation in local of the endowment of Union Theological Seminary, by referring to Dr. Hoge's grandfather, the first president of the Seminary, and said: "The forty years of the pastorate of his grandfather, whose work is seen all around us today, and will continue to be reproduced in Richmond and Virginia, ought to be sufficient to awaken profound interest in this venerable school of the prophets, so intimately connected with the progress of the Master's kingdom in this city." Then he proceeded to tell that over 700 ministers of the gospel had received a free education at Union Theological Seminary, and gradually won the heart and then the money of his hearers. That tells in a business like that.—Richmond Herald.

— Rev. J. D. Hafham, D. D., is the man that made Dr. J. L. M. Curry cry until he was ashamed of himself. Here is one of the things Dr. Hafham said that made Dr. Curry cry: "Brother, thirty-one years of hard work for Christ and souls lie behind me. I have never learned to rest; have never sought to spare myself. My only ambition is to go where there is most to be done and suffered for Him who died for me. During these thirty-one years of toil, I have not laid up enough to bury me, if I were to die to-day. Yes, the brethren have given me a section in the graveyard where my dear boy sleeps. I am proud of that much. The doctors gave me up and said I must die. As I was lying there on what all thought was my dying bed, waiting for death to come, I asked myself, 'What is the life of life?' The fact that I had lived for Christ, and for my self, made me supremely happy. Instead of dying, God raised me up, and now I wish to testify to you that nothing pays so well as living for Christ." But you must hear Dr. Hafham to know how he said it, and that he says "His voice is sweeter than that of a woman."—Richmond Religious Herald.

— Every man has some schedule of conduct to guide him. In biographies we find rules of life set down one by one as boons for the keel. Is it not easier to order our ways by acting at home as if Jesus was always in the guest-chamber, than to have the Polemic Theology, a cold doctrinal cadaver, for dissecting and demonstrating His "perfections," but the gracious, noble, tender personage seen in the sacred memorabilia. How considerate in Cana—to prevent domestic commotion, He supports the cause of the wine jar! How charming the face that wins to a stranger's arms babes from the bosom of their mothers! Peter's child sits in His knee—a sermon in itself without the previous words uttered then. Martha must not be anxious about the meal—one dish only is useful for Him. John leaned back on His breast in loving familiarity. Women saluted Him by touching His person, as Mary let us see when she attempts to embrace His feet, not yet gone above the clouds, and so often and often it is told how He touched the sick, caressingly and to cure. Creeds, Confessions, Commentaries, Moses, Elias—all fade before the faith that sees all in Jesus. The saint, aged or child, dying, catches the vision of the Redeemer, and whispers of joy on the air—"Jesus."—Rev. Dr. LaFargy.

WOMEN AND THEIR WORK.

— A memorial to Helen Hunt Jackson will be the Ramona Indian Girls' School, at Santa Fe. The building will cost $30,000, and will accommodate 150 pupils.

— Miss Frances E. Willard will preside over the National Convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union to be held at Nashville, Tenn., November 18 to 21.

— It appears that Mrs. Mackay's gorgeous evening cloak is not an original idea. A cloak of this kind is now at the National Museum in Washington, which was originally the property of a Sandwich Island chief, who wore it into battle to establish idolatry, and from whose body it was taken.

SOUTHERN ITEMS.

— Sam Jones, in an interview, said: "It is Sam Small, not I, who is going to Washington, and I will never get too large for my native town." This is a neat way the Rev. Sam Jones has of saying that the Rev. Sam Small has the big head.

— The epitaph of Thomas Jefferson, written by himself, and inscribed on his monument, is as follows: "The author of the Declaration of Independence; of the Statute of Virginia for Religious Freedom, and Father of the University of Virginia."—Anstion Hot Blast.

— New Bern Journal: Many of the largest taxpayers in the county want to vote on the question of subsidizing the Wilmington and Washington railroad project. The county commissioners ought to give them, as well as others, an opportunity.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Trusts are bagging everything this season.—Chicago Inter Ocean, High Protestants.

— The Republican ticket for 1888 is pretty well arranged now. It will be Blaine and Foraker, or Foraker and somebody else. Mr. John Sherman is bowled out.—Wash. Post, Dem.

— Mr. Blaine will be likely to give undivided attention to his health for awhile longer. He may get a little fun out of the scramble among the other Republican candidates for a Presidential nomination by and by.—Phil. Times, Rep.

— It was sufficiently apparent to his fellow citizens in New York, during the campaign just closed, that Mr. Delancy Nicolli was not a great man. It seems to be certain now that he is one of the nastiest little cads alive.—Washington Post, Dem.

— "It was Foraker's victory" says the New York Times, "and the Sherman men are not wholly pleased." Of course not. But Sherman is really of small account in Ohio now—a-days. He is not half the demagogue Foraker is.—Washington Post, Dem.

— In Ohio the Democrats entered into a combination with the Labor party, and in New York the Republicans made a similar arrangement. The result is both cases was disastrous, and in both cases the punishment fits the crime. There never has been but one honest Labor party in this country.—Phil. Times, Dem.

— In national affairs the outcome of this year's contest seems to make it certain that Mr. Cleveland will be nominated, and probably that he will be re-elected to the Presidency. New York shows clearly that he can carry this pivotal State with a much larger plurality than he did in 1884, and that fact alone would secure to him the nomination.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, Rep.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

— Congress water is misnamed. They don't drink much water there.

— Never want anything you can't get and you will always get all you want.—Glenwood, (Minn.) Cactus.

— In the lottery of life, the man who works for results, instead of speculating for them, wins the biggest prizes.—Baltimore American.

— Three year's undisturbed possession of a setter dog will destroy the yacoon of the best man in America.—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph.

— A Texas photographer advertises to "take a photograph as quick as a mule can kick." It will be a killing picture, of course.—Baltimore American.

— A woman awoke her husband during the storm the other night, and said: "I do wish you would stop snoring, for I want to hear it thunder."—Otago Witness.

— The only enduring bribery at elections is when pretty girls at church fairs wave kisses for votes. The Mayor wump would take some of that.—Missoulian Journal.

— Now what would you think of it, Mr. If you had a pretty young girl, And an impudent chap Should sit in her lap, And refuse to get up till he'd kick?—Boston Record.

— A queer thing about water is that it adulterates nothing but milk. A man can put it in his whiskey, his wine, or his cider, and he is all right; but if he puts clean water in his milk he goes to jail.—New Orleans Picayune.

— "I notice you are giving me only 19 pounds of sugar for a dollar," said an irate customer to his grocer, "and you used to give me 14." "Yes, that's so," was the answer; "but, you see, our business has increased so much that we have had to hire another clerk, and, of course, I've had to pay him it makes our expenses that much greater."—Nashville American.

Spirits Turpentine.

— Mr. W. F. Askew, of Raleigh, is dead.

— Wilson Mirror: Taut Grimes, the notorious burglar and highwayman, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years.

— Raleigh Visitor: Rev. Wm. Meade Clark, rector of the Episcopal Church, at Chapel Hill, has accepted the call to the Church of the Good Shepherd recently tendered him.

— Davidson Doings: One of the ears of Hiram Raper, a colored citizen of the western section of the county, got between a post and the wall of a mill and was torn clear off his head. The last payment on the Thomasville orphanage lands has been made. The orphanage has over three hundred acres, all paid for, with the exception of a building. It is now on the threshold of its career of usefulness.—Mrs. Res, while feeding a white rat, suffered her hand to come too near the cage. His rashness moved by a desire for a change of diet, laid hold of the nearest finger, bit out a piece and deliberately ate it.

— Raleigh News Observer: Col. T. M. Holt delivered the annual address at the Murfreesboro Fair yesterday.—The Board of Directors of the Rocky Mount Mills have decided to purchase $40,000 worth of cotton for next year's business, in addition to $250,000 worth of the same. This indicates power and prosperity.—Kinston jettings: The river here is two miles below. The water is surging through Mr. J. F. Parrott's farm, covering nearly every square foot with water. Mr. R. F. Parrott and family moved out of their residence on Saturday. The water now has possession. He lost a large number of hogs and poultry, together with his entire crop of potatoes.—Mr. John Rhodes, who lives near the foot of Parrott's bridge, was driven from home by the water on Saturday. One foot of water now stands in his house. He also lost considerably.

— Mr. John Tull, who lives about two and a half miles east of Kinston, lost his entire flock of sheep by the rising water. He and his knockers the head in, were drowned and hundreds caught and killed by sportsmen.

— Wadesboro Intelligencer: Dr. Rosser still continues to preach, morning and evening, in the Methodist church, with the power and effectiveness of one inspired. He will leave next Monday, for a conference, which assembles in Danville, Va., on the 18th.—Wednesday night last was a beauty. The moon was round and bright, and Mr. Sam Sheppard gave a corn-shucking right in the heart of Wadesboro. He rolled a barrel of rum down the street, and knocked the head in. There must have been a hundred "oultured persons" present. They "shucked," drank and sang, making melodious the air for miles around. It reminded one of the happy plantation scenes in the far cry past.—There are more painted houses in Lilesville than there are in Wadesboro, the respective sizes of the places being considered, and in the country surrounding Lilesville, for several miles out, in every direction, there is no comparison with the country surrounding Wadesboro. It does one's eyes good to look upon the broad, spreading acres, the well-tilled fields, and the pretty, neatly-painted, home-like residences dotted here and there, in every direction.
