There were sold upon our warehouse floors from Oct. 1st, 1886 to Oct. 1st, 1887, 8,802,800 pounds of tobacco, an increase of 701,900 pounds over the sales of 1886, the amount sold last year being 8,101,901.

Charlotte Hornet: Mr. S. S. Hoover went before Squire D. G. Maxwell this morning and swore out a peace warrant against Thomas Gaines, colored, who is now serving a three months term on the chain gang for assaulting Mr. Hoover. It appears that Gaines has repeatedly threatened to kill Mr. Hoover as soon as he was released from the chain gang.

Chadborn Times: A house of Col. Wm. Baldwin's of Whiteville, was burned last Friday night about 8 o'clock. It was a house not far from his dwelling. We paid a visit to the colored Presbyterian church of this place. We venture the assertion that there is no prettier church in this county than this. This church will be completed about the 15th of December. The most of the wood work is done and the lathing is completed.

Shelby News Era: On Tuesday morning about four o'clock Deputy Collector H. B. Quinn with U. S. Deputy Marshals J. A. McFall, and R. S. Jones and Messrs. J. H. Elliott and W. C. Harris, "form men," seized in Cleveland an outfit of apparatus, 8,000 gallons of beer, 120 gallons of singlings, 18 beer stands, a still cap and worm, supposed to be the property of Peter Buff, Mr. Buff and two men named Prutt were arrested.

Charlotte Chronicle: Mr. Pearson's Sableburg meeting closed last night, and he leaves at once for his evening at the home of Mr. J. Milton Alexander's cotton gin, near Huntersville, last Wednesday, an accident occurred which resulted quite painfully to George Johnston, a colored man. His arms were caught in the saw of the gin and were lacerated from the finger tips to the elbows, though fortunately the cuts were not deep and none of the bones were broken.

Pittsboro Home: W. E. Davis, an Orange county man, but who has been living in this county for about a year, left his home on last Saturday night a week ago. He went to Chapel Hill on Sunday, and on Monday morning to Cary, where he met the wife of John W. Bond and her daughter, who, in his absence, had left home and taken the train at Moncure for Cary on Monday morning. They left Cary together, but for what destination is not known. Davis leaves a wife and six small children in a very destitute condition.

Goldboro Argus: One of the most touching displays of the affection of a dog for his master that has ever come to our knowledge is that which was evidenced on the plantation of Mrs. John Robinson, near this city on Wednesday. A colored man died and was buried in the old slave grave yard on the place; his dog followed the remains to their last resting place, and when the interment was completed, he lay upon the grave, with his head resting upon his forehead, and howled most piteously, and would not be persuaded away, but remained there all the afternoon and night, until yesterday morning, when some of the family went and carried him away.

Oxford Torchlight: The Oxford market has steadily grown in popular estimation. In 1881 she sold half a million pounds of tobacco, and in 1887 she will sell over eight million pounds. She now has five commercial warehouses, four being of brick and averaging 70x40 ft. The $10,000 bond, bearing 7 per cent. interest, and running for ten years, for the new market house and opera house, have been disposed of to a party in Baltimore at face value. The money arrived by express last Saturday. The surveyors of the Oxford & Durham Railroad have pitched their tents on the outskirts of town. They have completed two preliminary surveys between this place and Durham, one line being 81 miles long and the other about 63.
