OUTLINES.

The letter of the President, accepting the resignation of Commissioner Sparks, of the General Land Office, has been given to the public; it is very kind in tone, and is highly complimentary of the retiring commissioner.

The people seem now to have less appreciation for religious and civil liberty than formerly; hence, there is more need for popular education. Our inherited freedom must be preserved.

Virginians are very much disappointed over Conkling's speech in the habeas corpus case. The Washington Star says: "It seems to have been expected that Mr. Conkling would make one of his greatest efforts; that he would put himself on record, before the Court, as maintaining that the sovereignty of a State could not or should not be invaded."

The New York Herald is now published in Paris as well as at the old stand. But are they the same? The Augusta Chronicle seems to think so. It says: "The experiment of printing and publishing the Herald simultaneously on two continents, begun in Paris October 4, last, has proved to be a great success."

The New Orleans Picayune, referring to Gen. Henry R. Jackson's speech, says, and it is true, every word: "When people have no other excuse than cowardice for disapproving of the honest expression of their own friends, they are in a pitiable way."

The New York World says it costs nearly $1,000,000 to secure city and county officials in the recent elections. It publishes a three-column article, giving assessments, etc. The candidates for justices paid $123,800. Very hopeful that.

The Macon Committee of the Georgia Memorial Fund for ex-President Davis, have issued their address. A general canvass of the whole State will be made. Georgians will respond generously we have no doubt.

Some papers think, and such an one is before us, that if you do not burrah for free drinks and free smokes you are untrue to the Democratic party. Save the mark!

It was a mild decision, no doubt, that suspended nine students at Williams College for hazing. Expulsion would have been better.

Spirits Turpentine. - Winston Daily: An intoxicated drummer applied to the ticket agent at High Point Saturday night for a ticket to Greensboro, and the agent refused to sell him one, according to the rules of the railroad company.

Our old friend, John S. Long, Esq., one of North Carolina's most gifted men, but who is neither "Col." nor "Hon." - but the papers think he ought to be, for they give him the cheap titles - made a fine address at the University. He discussed a "College Graduate in Pursuit of a Living." A correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer says: "His graceful manner, his pleasing delivery, the useful didactic of his address, set in a beautiful diadem of rhetoric, logic and lofty imagery, all combined to profoundly impress an audience not always attentive when dry literary topics are considered."

The Anarchists do not stop at this world with their wholesale destruction, but they even try to dethrone God. They are all Atheists!

The U. S. Army now consists of 26,438 men and officers. Gen. Sheridan wants an increase of 5,000. What is the use for a 31,000 standing army in time of peace?

Maj. Finger addressed the students and citizens of Chapel Hill, on the "Public School Problem." A correspondent furnishes us with an abstract from which we culled a few sentences. He said: "The people seem now to have less appreciation for religious and civil liberty than formerly; hence, there is more need for popular education."

to cross a stream in a boat in Nash county. The News-Observer says: When half way over, and in the deepest water, the little canoe suddenly sank; every one of them went down, but the boy being able to swim made his way across. Mr. Batchelor caught one of the little girls, and after a severe struggle managed to get to the bank with her. The other little girl was carried rapidly down the stream, the current being very swift, and it seemed almost impossible to do anything to rescue her. Just at the critical moment, however, a colored man, whose name the gentleman did not know, appeared upon the scene and seeing the little girl about to sink for the last time, plunged in and brought her safely out but in an unconscious condition. But for the colored man she must have been drowned. The escape was a narrow one for all parties.

Cor. Richmond Dispatch: The North Carolina Baptist Convention embraces in its jurisdiction all the State save the counties west of the Blue Ridge. These are in the Western Convention, which makes a membership of 35,000 while Baptists in those counties. It has an entirely separate organization, and held its convention some weeks since. The reports for the North Carolina Convention which it must be borne in mind, consists only of white Baptists, show what earnest work has marked the year now ending. There are eighty-one missionaries employed by the State Mission Board in all parts of the State. For this purpose $10,000 was raised during the year, all of which was expended. For foreign missions the amount raised was $6,600; for home missions, $2,050; for education, $3,560; for the orphanage at Thomasville, where there are now seventy-five orphans under the kind superintendence of Mr. J. H. Mills; for Sunday school work and the supply store, $6,000.

Police Officer Burlington left for Raleigh last night, via the Carolina Central railroad, with Fuller Hamsley (or Hansley), the escaped convict, whose arrest was mentioned in the STAR of yesterday. Fuller escaped from the penitentiary about a year ago. He was sent up from Brunswick county for larceny.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Annual Meeting - Election of Officers - Government Improvements on the River and Harbor - An Interesting Account by Capt. W. H. Bixby, U. S. Engineer.

The annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held at the rooms of the Produce Exchange yesterday at noon.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Eduard Peschau, 1st Vice President. Minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved, and the report of the Secretary and Treasurer from October 6, 1885, to November 15, 1887, was submitted and ordered on file.

A letter was read from the President of the Chamber, Mr. F. W. Kerchner, regretting that he could not be present at the meeting, and requesting that Capt. W. H. Bixby, U. S. Engineer in charge of river and harbor improvements, be invited to attend the annual meeting and give such information as he could in regard to the work, particularly in reference to Corn Cake inlet.

Capt. Bixby was present and upon invitation addressed the Chamber, and with the aid of maps explained fully the difficulties encountered and overcome by the engineers. In regard to closing Corn Cake inlet he showed that if not impracticable, it was not advisable to close this inlet, but that its disadvantages and the injury it might cause would be obviated by building the dam now in course of construction from the lower end of Zeke's island, to connect with Smith's island; thus forcing the water from the river to flow around Smith's island and through the swashes by a devious course, before it could pass out at Corn Cake inlet.

The attraction at the Opera House to-night will be something unique and funny. There are shows and shows, and a good many worthless shows have managed to find their way down South, especially during the last ten or twelve years. "The Two Old Cronies," which will be produced to-night, however, is something far above the average of the usual Southern attraction. The play, if it can be called a play, is new. It is a combination of music and comedy, a performance by artists which keeps the audience in a roar of laughter and which is so interspersed with music that one is almost uncertain whether to laugh or applaud, and generally ends by doing both. The performance is a production of comedy and music, both of an exquisite character and both interpreted by a company of artists.

Mayor's Court. John Smith, alias Ben. Gay, colored, charged with the larceny of a pump used on a mud sow, the property of the U. S. Government, was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed to jail.

John McMillan, colored tramp, who was found asleep in a box car at the railroad, was sent below for three days.

James Miller, colored, disorderly conduct, was fined $10, with the alternative of twenty days in the chain gang.

RIVER AND HARBOR.

The steamship Parklands, hence for Liverpool, arrived out yesterday.

Steamer Gulf Stream sailed from New York for this port last Wednesday.

Schr. Thomas Clyde, Frazier, cleared at Philadelphia for, this port Nov. 15.

THE RAILS.

The mails close and arrive at the City Post Office as follows: CLOSE. Northern through and way mail, 10:50 P. M. Northern through and way mail, 10:50 P. M.

Capt. Bixby's remarks were highly interesting and instructive, and were listened to with profound attention. At their conclusion, on motion, the thanks of the Chamber were extended to him.

The Chamber then went into an election for officers.

On motion, the rules were suspended, and Mr. J. H. Currie was requested to cast the vote of the Chamber for the old incumbents, as follows: President - F. W. Kerchner. First Vice President - Eduard Peschau. Second Vice President - Donald MacRae.

Secretary and Treasurer - Jon. L. Cantwell.

Executive Council - R. E. Heide, H. C. McQueen, Wm. Calder, Jas. H. Chadbourne, George Harris.

Col. W. L. DeRosset offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we learn with sincere regret of the continued ill-health of ex-President A. H. VanBokkelen and beg to assure him of our earnest sympathy and heart-felt wishes for his early recovery.

The meeting then adjourned.

The three drinking fountains purchased by the city will be put in position - one at Front and Market, another at Fifth and Market, and the third at Fourth street market.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for to-day, received at 1 a. m.: For Virginia, fair weather, slightly colder, light northerly winds, becoming variable.

North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, eastern Florida and western Florida slightly colder, fair weather, light to fresh winds, generally shifting to northeasterly.

Ladies' Benevolent Society.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society met yesterday during the forenoon in the Session room of the First Presbyterian Church, to hear an address from Mr. J. A. Bonitz, of the Messenger. It was a pleasing and instructive discourse, abounding in good counsel and sympathy. We regret that our limited space precludes the publication of this admirable address in the STAR. Mr. Bonitz's closing words were: "Your society is entitled to the sympathy and the help of the benevolent minded people of this city. You should have the membership of all worthy ladies, their contributions, their cooperation in your good work and their presence at your meetings, and we all remember that 'inasmuch as you have done it unto me, ye have also done it unto me.'"

At the conclusion of the address the thanks of the Society were extended to Mr. Bonitz, and on motion of one of the ladies present the Secretary was directed to furnish a copy to the newspapers of the city.

The election of officers of the Society for the ensuing year was postponed until next Thursday, at a meeting to be held at Miss Hart's school room.

ROCKY MOUNT FAIR.

Big Day - A Tremendous Crowd - Great Success - A Fine Trotting Horse Sale.

Special Star Report. ROCKY MOUNT, Nov. 17. - To-day (Thursday) closes the big day of the Fair. A tremendous crowd was in attendance from every point on the railroad. Excursion trains came in from every direction - Fayetteville, Short Cut, Wilson, Williamston, Tarboro, Weldon and Nashville.

The Fair has been a grand success financially - able to pay all indebtedness and a surplus to pay off all premiums.

Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of attendance except the misfortune of Mr. Wily Edwards, of Wilson, whose horse had been trotting, and from some unknown cause became frightened, ran and fell, and in falling broke one of his shafts, cutting the tendon of his right hind leg just above the knee, ruining the horse for life. Mr. Edwards had refused $1,500 for him a few days ago. The horse was a very fine animal.

Friday the premiums will be awarded, and the crowd will be small, comparatively.
