According to the New York World's correspondent a prominent Democratic official in Washington has thus expressed himself as to Carlisle, Randall and reform:

Speaker Carlisle has reached a point where he must meet the issue squarely. No half measures will answer in the crisis which is approaching. No legislation looking to a reasonable reduction of the tariff can possibly meet the approval of Mr. Randall, and the low-tariff Democrats understand this fully. There will be but one great issue before the coming Congress, and this question, with its ramifications in the way of measures to reduce the surplus already in the Treasury.

The country at large is looking to the Democratic party to redress its pledges, and to carry out in the coming Congress the policy outlined in the tariff plank of the recent State conventions. Can they hope to accomplish anything handicapped by such men as Randall, who will exert every atom of influence he may possess to obstruct every tariff legislator looking to the redemption of these promises? I have heard it said that Mr. Carlisle cannot afford to antagonize so powerful a man as Mr. Randall. He certainly cannot hope to secure his support for his tariff-reducing schemes, and that is the only issue. Surely Mr. Randall single-handed on the floor of the House is a far less formidable personage than Mr. Randall, Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations. Mr. Carlisle must take the bull by the horns.

Mr. Carlisle has been so misrepresented by newspaper reporters that he refuses to hold further audience with any of them. He has not spoken words concerning Sam Randall with which he was credited. Probably he ought to have said them for Randall deserves no good words or favors from a genuine Democrat. The Washington Post intimates very clearly that Randall may continue to vote with the Radicals while continuing at the head of the most important Committee in the House. This is a very sorry back down. The Post says: "Mr. Carlisle will certainly be elected Speaker by the unanimous Democratic vote, but there is no good reason to believe that any attempt will be made by Mr. Carlisle or by the House or by the Democratic caucus to discipline Mr. Randall in regard to tariff legislation by depriving him of his influential position as chairman of the Committee on Appropriations."

We do not now look for any really important tariff reform legislation this winter. The Democrats are divided. They do not know their own minds. The old temporizing, equivocating, hedging policy is to be adopted, we fear. This much is given out in advance. Mr. Carlisle's back is believed to be weakening now. Randall can prevent his reelection. He is for conciliating the Protectionist. There is no genuine Andrew Jackson Democracy in the land now whatever else there may be. There was more positive strength in one ounce of Jackson Democracy than there is in a hoghead of your latter day stuff branded by that name.

The following are the appointments in the Virginia Conference, Southern Methodist Episcopal Church, for the North Carolina section of that Conference: "MUSPERRHO DISTRICT—Thomas H. Campbell, Presiding Elder—Murtreesboro, R. J. Moorman; Garysburg, T. O. Edwards; Northampton, John O. Moss; Meherrin, B. F. Herrick; Bertie, R. E. Scott; Iredell, to be supplied; Hertford, J. M. Anderson; Edenton, Ernest Stevens; Pasquotank, Joseph G. Leano; Elizabeth City, Jesse T. Whitley; Suffolk, Francis J. Boggs; Gates, Thomas L. Williams; North Gates, Edward M. Jordan; Newsum's, to be supplied by T. Burton; Boykin, John S. Wallace; Southampton, George E. Booker; Chuckactuck, John H. Kabler; Camden, J. W. S. Robins; Roanoke Island and Dare Mission, R. H. Mullen; Kitty-Hawk Mission, to be supplied by Sanders Payne.

There are papers that stand by the action of the Democratic State Committee because they agree with them as to free drinks and free smokes. If the action had been the other way, dear me, how they would have kicked. If the Committee has power to dictate a platform, why has it not power to nominate the State ticket and save the waste of time and money in holding a State Convention? Probably some papers would favor even that stretch of power, provided their candidates were chosen.

Some Democratic paper in the North says there is but little difference in the principles of the parties. The Tariff, it thinks, is really about the only principle in which there is much difference. An honest formulation of the principles of both parties would reveal the smallest difference possible. Every principle advocated by the Republicans is strongly favored by a portion of the Democratic newspapers.

For the twelve months ending with 31st of October last, the imports into the United States were $707,082,498; the exports, $734,625,735. So the balance of trade is in our favor.

That was quite a battle in the Louisiana sugar section between colored strikers and a picket guard of citizens. There were a dozen or more men killed.

THE CITY

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. COLLIER & Co.—Bankrupt sale. MUNSOR—Clothing at low prices. UNIVERSITY OF VA.—64th session. W. & W. R. R.—Change of schedule. NAVASSA GUANO Co.—Annual meeting. E. WARREN & SON—To day's offerings.

Local Notes. Cotton receipts hold up well at this port. Rev. D. H. Tuttle will leave for the Conference Monday morning. About six feet of water on the shoals in the upper Cape Fear is the last report. Mayor Fowler returned from his visit to the country and presided at the city court yesterday. Tar was quoted yesterday morning at $1 10 per barrel. Later in the day sales were reported at $1 15. The departure of the Ferncliffe yesterday leaves only two British steamships loading cotton at this port.

The train for Clinton, on the W. & W. Railroad, will hereafter leave at 3.45 p. m., instead of 4 p. m. as heretofore. Receipts of cotton for the past two days, 2,800 bales; for the same days last year 2,186. Increased receipts, so far this season, 33,200 bales. The Salvation Army invaded Brunswick county Thanksgiving day and were skirmishing with the enemy in the neighborhood of Phenix at last accounts.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Navaassa Guano Company will be held at the office of the company, in this city, on the 8th of December next. The collection at the joint services held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church Thanksgiving day, for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, amounts to $76.14.

The steamer Hurt arrived late yesterday afternoon. She brought down 123 bales of cotton. The Hurt will leave on her upward trip at 12 o'clock noon to-day.

Messrs. Collier & Co. were busily engaged yesterday in unpacking a consignment of watches, diamonds, jewelry, etc., which they will have on exhibition to-day.

The collection taken up for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum Thanksgiving day was turned over to Mr. C. H. Robinson, Grand Master of the State Grand Lodge of Masons.

We are requested by Lt. Gov. Stedman to state that he has received a large number of public documents from Hon. R. T. Bennett for distribution in this county. Any person desiring any of these documents can have them by calling at the law office of Stedman & Weil.

A negro man named Geo. Edwards, for whom a warrant was issued several weeks ago for larceny, was nabbed by a policeman Thanksgiving day on the wharf. Edwards is accused of stealing ten dollars in money from Jesse Huske, colored, living near Hope P. O., Cumberland county.

Charged with Forgery. James Ingraham, a colored man from Brunswick county, was arrested yesterday for forgery, and after examination before Justice Mills, was sent to jail in default of $200 bail. Ingraham "acknowledged the corn." The forgery was committed in September last. Ingraham wrote an order on Mr. Jno. M. Henderson of this city, to which he signed the name of Mr. J. W. Benton, of Brunswick, as follows: "Please be so kind as to pay the boy two dollars for me and I will have some tax in town next week and will settle with you." Ingraham presented the order himself and got the money.

Criminal Court. The Court met yesterday morning at ten o'clock to take up the case of Stephen Freeman, colored, charged with a criminal assault on Mrs. Ada Sellers. The prisoner was in the dock and the venire of one hundred "good and true men," from which number a jury was to be selected, were crowded in and around the bar, anxiously expectant. After the witnesses for the State had been called and subpoenas ordered to be issued for those who failed to answer, in response to an inquiry from Judge Meares Solicitor Moore said the State was ready to proceed to trial, but Mr. Strange, of counsel for the defense, said that the prisoner was not ready. He (Mr. Strange) and his associate, Mr. Elliott, had only been engaged the day before and sufficient time had not been allowed counsel to get up their case. A number of witnesses whose testimony was of the utmost importance had not yet been found. Solicitor Moore opposed a postponement. The Court, however, ordered that the case should be continued until Monday next, at 10 a. m., and the "one hundred good and true men" were told they might go, but must report promptly at the hour mentioned on Monday.

The Court took a recess until noon, when the case of Aaron Vann, colored, charged with embezzling funds—about sixty dollars—of Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, was taken up and occupied nearly all the time of the Court until a recess was taken in the evening. Vann was found guilty, but judgment was not pronounced.

John McKay, colored, charged with cruelty to animals, failed to answer, and judgment nisi was entered against him and his surety.

The Court will meet to-day at 10 a. m., when the case of C. E. Bullard, charged with obtaining goods under false pretences, will be taken up.

James Darbs, the tramp convicted of larceny, was sentenced to three years in the State penitentiary.

Thanksgiving Services. Joint Thanksgiving services were held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church yesterday, at which Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Fifth street M. E. Church, preached a sermon appropriate to the day and the occasion. The house was packed to overflowing and hundreds failed to gain admittance. The ministers present were Revs. Dr. Yates, D. H. Tuttle and C. W. Godwin, of the Methodist Church, Rev. Mr. Hoge, of the First Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of the Baptist Church.

Services were held also in St. James, St. John's and St. Paul's Episcopal Churches. At St. Paul's the Rev. Charles T. Coerr preached from Deuteronomy, 8th chapter, 20th verse: "As the nations which the Lord destroyeth before your eyes, so shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the Lord your God." The text was a part of Moses' exhortation of the children of Israel to obedience on account of God's dealings with them; and the learned divine applied it with great aptness and force to us and to our country, showing God's wonderful blessings towards us, and some striking and growing instances in which we were forgetting Him, and becoming disobedient to the plainest and most rudimental precepts of His law, especially in the matter of worship. The sermon was one of great earnestness, and was closed with a powerful exhortation to greater and more constant humiliation and worship of Almighty God.

Chamber of Commerce. The following is a list of committees recently appointed by the Chamber of Commerce. Meteorological—W. W. Kerchner, W. L. DeRosset, George Harris. Bar and River Improvements—George Harris, R. E. Heide, James Sprunt. Transportation and Navigation—F. W. Kerchner, D. G. Worth, B. F. Hall. Correspondence and Foreign Trade—G. W. Williams, A. L. DeRosset, G. W. Kiddy. Propositions and Grievances—A. Martin, H. Vollers, B. F. Mitchell, W. T. Daggett. Insurance and Finance—Isaac Bates, Thos. Evans, Samuel Northrop, Sam. Bear, Jr.

These are all re-appointments, except in the Meteorological Committee, on which E. W. Kerchner is appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Hon. A. H. Van Bokkelen; Wm. T. Daggett, on Committee on Propositions and Grievances, in place of Wm. H. McRary, deceased, and Sam'l Bear, Jr., on the Committee on Insurance and Finance, in place of E. E. Burruss, deceased.

Foreign Exports Yesterday. Messrs. Williams & Murchison cleared the British steamship Ferncliffe for Liverpool, with 4,004 bales of cotton, weighing 1,904,297 pounds, and valued at $190,440. Also, by Messrs. Williams & Murchison, the Norwegian brig Olfega for Hull, Eng., with 2,468 barrels of rosin, valued at $2,008.

Wilmington Fox Club had a "gay old hunt" Thanksgiving day. The weather was charming and the pack of twenty-eight hounds was in fine training for the anticipated sport. There were some twenty persons in the mount, including five ladies, and before the day's sport ended they had as trophies of the chase two foxes and a deer. The first fox was started soon after the hunt opened, and was caught after a half hour's run. The second was jumped by the dogs shortly afterwards and his brush soon graced the cap of one of the hunters, who was in at the death. The exciting event of the day was the chase and capture of a deer, which followed, as may be imagined. This was a long chase lasting several hours. Mr. Phil. Thomas and Mr. Geo. Grant were the only ones of the party in at the finish, which occurred near Partridge Island. After the hunt the party returned to Mr. Bowden's residence, where they took dinner.

The night before some of the members of the Club were out with the dogs, captured a coon and found a bee tree.

To Confederates. Mr. J. B. Frees, a druggist and botanist of 179 Sixth Avenue, New York, desires to communicate with the relatives or friends of a Capt. T. M. Garrett, or Garrett, who was with Company I, Fifth North Carolina regiment, and who was killed on the battlefield. Mr. Frees has in his possession a watch, chain and other articles which were taken from the body of the slain Captain, and is anxious to restore them to the relatives.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Col. Garrett was from Gates county in this State. He succeeded Col. Peter J. Sinclair in the command of the Fifth Regiment, in Jan. 1863, and was killed in the desperate fight at Spotsylvania C. H., Va., in the early morning of the 12th of May, 1864, when Capt. Jake Brookfield of Newbern, Capt. Charlie Riddick of Gates, Adjutant Smedes of Raleigh, and many other gallant soldiers of the same regiment lost their lives, fighting as a "forlorn hope" against the tide of Federals that had swept over Johnson's division. The writer of this saw Col. Garrett fall, after striking with his sword at a Yankee soldier who shot and killed him.

Rocky Mount Fair. A correspondent of the STAR writes: The stockholders of the association met on the 24th inst. The report of the Secretary, J. R. Underwood, was very gratifying. Hon. B. H. Bunn was elected President, and J. R. Underwood (the present incumbent) Secretary. A general meeting of the stockholders will be held again on the 10th of January next, and elect the directors for the ensuing year. Mr. Bunn moved that a resolution of sympathy be extended Mr. W. W. Edwards for his misfortune in the loss of his horse. We think it was an accident which no one is responsible for, and that it could not be avoided. A resolution of thanks was extended to the ladies of the various departments for their assistance, also to the gentlemen for their assistance and management.

The Fair was a grand success, having cleared over one thousand dollars. It is on a solid basis. The management purpose holding the next Fair November 14th, 15th and 16th, 1888, if nothing conflicts. Every effort will be made to make the next Fair a grander success.

Mayor's Court. Gid Edwards, colored, charged with larceny, was arraigned yesterday in the Mayor's Court, but on account of the absence of witnesses the case was continued and Edwards was returned to the lock-up.

Philip Ebra, colored, disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. Fined $20 for the disorderly conduct with the alternative of thirty days in the chain gang. Judgment suspended in the case of resistance to the officer.

Henderson Hayes, colored, drunk and disorderly. In his case $20 or 30 days in the chain gang was the judgment of the court. George Mullen and John Moran, two tramps without any visible means of support, were ordered to leave the city forthwith and an officer was directed to escort them outside the city limits.

Fire Thursday Night. A one-story frame dwelling on Gwynn, between MacRae and Anderson streets, was burned Thursday night about ten o'clock. The house was occupied by Wm. Davis, colored, but all the family were absent when the fire broke out. Very little of Davis' furniture was saved. The house belonged to Mrs. Gilbert, and was insured for $450 in the London Assurance Co., with Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor.

The Fire Department responded promptly to the alarm; given from box 14, and prevented the spread of the flames to adjoining property.

Rev. R. G. Pearson. In a letter to Rev. Dr. Pritchard, Rev. R. G. Pearson, the evangelist, states that he can arrange to spend a part of March and the month of April in holding meetings in this city. At a conference of pastors, held last Thursday evening, it was agreed to accept the time suggested, and Mr. Pearson may, therefore, be expected to hold a series of his remarkable meetings here in the early spring.

Weather Indications. The following are the indications for to-day, received at 1 a. m.: For Virginia, fair weather, followed by light rains, except in eastern portion fair weather, light winds generally from east to south and slight changes in temperature. For North Carolina, fair weather, stationary temperature, light variable winds generally from east to south. For South Carolina, local rains, followed by fair weather, light to fresh easterly winds and stationary temperature.

The Charleston News and Courier of the 23rd says: The daughter of President H. B. Shepherd, of the College of Charleston, was very painfully burned yesterday morning. While passing in front of the fire-place her dressing gown caught fire, and before the flames could be extinguished she was badly burned.
