THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XLI.--NO. 56.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1887.

WHOLE NO. 6607

Col. Alex. McClure has the reputation of being a very smart and a very tricky politician. He blows for Tariff reduction between times and then when Congress is about to do something in that direction he becomes violently opposed to all he had been saying and talks glibly of "freetraders" and so on. He has been in Washington in the interest of Randall. A Washington dispatch says:

Alexander K. McClure, who came down here yesterday with Mr. Randall to find out whether the latter was to be reappointed chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, saw both the President and Mr. Carlisle last night, but had very little to report to Mr. Randall when he took breakfast with the latter this morning. Mr. Carlisle would not of course say anything about what he would do when he should become speaker, and neither he nor the President would be quoted by Mr. McClure to Mr. Randall as even having opinions on the subject.

Representative Heard, of Missouri, is a man of sense and observation. He says he would prefer that the internal tax should not be touched. He prefers to reduce the surplus by a liberal extension of the freelist and by cutting down the tariff duties on such articles of common necessity as might bear it. While not opposed to some reduction of the sugar duty, Mr. Heard would not vote in favor of its repeal. As to the tobacco tax, he would consent to some modification of it in a bill providing for tariff reform on the basis already indicated. This is much nearer the true policy than the plan of the Democratic State Committee, unless legislation is to be limited to the moonshiners.

It is reported from Chicago that the Anarchists are bent upon resuming their business of bomb-throwing. The next time this devilment begins there ought to be no room for another series of trials and sensations. New Orleans would not pity bomb-throwers any more than it would mad dogs.

Randall is as dumb as an oyster on the subject of Tariff reform.

The Lutheran Synod.

The United Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the South convened last Thursday in the Lutheran Church of the Ascension in Savannah, Ga. The body is composed of clerical and lay delegates from the Synods of Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia, southwest Virginia, Tennessee, and Mississippi, and the Holston Synod. The delegates from North Carolina are: Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, Rev. T. S. Brown, Rev. C. B. King, Rev. J. D. Shirey, Rev. C. A. Rose. Lay--Capt. T. L. Seigle, Capt. W. A. Barrier, I. F. Patterson, A. D. Wessel, Col. P. N. Heilig.

The synodical sermon was preached by Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, of this city, at 11 o'clock. The Church of the Ascension was crowded. The only decoration was a bank of fruits and flowers surmounted by a sheaf of grain, in front of the chancel.

The sermon was from the text, "And of the children of Issachar which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do." I Chronicles xii, 32. Man's duty to his country and to his God was the theme upon which the preacher dwelt at length, in the opening of his discourse.

The Synod was organized at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. After religious exercises the Rev. Mr. Peschau, acting president, called the body to order and read his annual report, which showed all branches of the Church in the world in a highly encouraging condition, with prospects for the future very bright.

In his report Mr. Peschau made the following recommendation: Let me suggest and recommend, that until after other arrangements are made and perhaps even then also, that a Lutheran Seamen's Aid So-city be formed. Fully two-thirds of all the officers and sailors coming to the ports of Savannah, Charleston and Wilmington are Lutherans. We are doing nothing for them spiritual-ly except what our city pastors are doing for them, and they are too busy with their regular duties. Let us have in these ports Lutheran chaplains and Bethels to care for these our people and children with us in the same household of faith.

I am glad to report that Mr. Carl Schmidt, a German Lutheran sailor, offered me $1 00 for this noble object. I take pleasure in herewith turning over $1 00 as the beginning of a fund for a Lutheran Seamen's Aid Society. The Menger Missionary Society of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church of Wilmington, promised $5 00, and, no doubt, the American Seamen Society would cheerfully co-operate with us and help us support our chaplains.

Immediately after the report was read the Synod proceeded to the election of officers. Dr. E. T. Horne, of St. John's Church, Charleston, was elected president; Dr. Socrates Henkle, Virginia, vice president; Rev. A. L. Carrer, secretary, and Capt. W. A. Barrier, North Carolina, treasurer.

Criminal Court.

The business of the term was finished yesterday, with the exception of the trial of Stephen Freeman for rape, set for to-morrow.

The trial of C. E. Bullard, charged with obtaining money on false pretences, consumed the greater part of the time of the Court yesterday. The case was given to the jury about half-past two o'clock in the afternoon, and three hours afterward they returned into Court, rendering a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy. Sentence was not pronounced upon the prisoner, as in the meantime the Court had taken a recess until 10 a. m. Monday morning. The penalty is not less than one nor more than five years' imprisonment, or not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars fine, at the discretion of the Court. Mr. Bullard is a merchant and turpentine distiller engaged in business near Smith's Landing in Bladen county. He was convicted of obtaining seventy-five dollars in money and seventy-three dollars in merchandise from Mr. R. W. Hicks, merchant, of this city, some time in October, on representations that were alleged to be false.

Mr. John D. Bellamy, Jr., conducted the prosecution, and Messrs. Russell & Ricard were the prisoner's counsel.

George B. New, a young white man, charged with willful abandonment of his wife, submitted, and was sentenced to ninety days in the County House of Correction.

Sentences were imposed as follows: Aaron Vann, convicted of embezzling funds of Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs, and to pay back the missing funds--fifty-six dollars--to the church. Vann's counsel, Mr. M. Bellamy, said that the matter would probably be arranged Monday.

Wm. Beatty, colored, convicted of larceny, three years in the State penitentiary.

Ben Gay, colored, larceny. Three years in the State penitentiary.

Cain Hines, colored, larceny. Three years in the State penitentiary.

Alonzo McGowan, convicted of defacing a house, was sentenced to pay the costs.

Hattie Chadborn, a negro girl who had been in jail for costs in an assault and battery case, was ordered to be discharged, the Court remarking that this was another illustration of the fact that you can't get blood out of a turnip.

Theatrical.

Mr. Geo. H. Lennox, business agent for Marie Prescott, is in the city, arranging for the appearance of this actress in the Opera House here on Friday and Saturday, December 2d and 3d. Mr. R. D. McLean appears with Miss Prescott. Both are Southerners, and both are highly endorsed by the press. Marie Prescott is a Kentucky, born near Lexington, on a famous farm known as "Forest Retreat." Her family and connections "are among the celebrated people who have distinguished that State as the native place of remarkable men and women." She is represented to be a fine actress. Mr. McLean is a native of New Orleans, and was educated at Washington and Lee University, Va. He has been playing with Miss Prescott for two seasons in such parts as Pygmalion, Ingomar, Romeo and others. Their repertoire while here will be "Pygmalion and Galatea," "As You Like It," the "Merchant of Venice" and scenes from "Richard the Third."
