The Memphis Appeal refers to Rev. E. S. Alderman as "the talented and eloquent pastor," and describes his first sermon as "a brilliant religious discourse."

Our brother Law has very much improved the Charlotte Chronicle. It is a well edited paper in its political and local columns. - We wish the Chronicle and all connected with it, the greatest success.

Mr Randall is a true man. We can never torget how faithfully and wanfully he stood up for the South at a time when she needed firm and true friends in Congress - Augusta Chronicle, Pro

Mr. Blaine is a true man, &c., for he did precisely what Mr. Randall is 80 gratefully praised for doing.

The Memphis Appeal hits the nail squarely in the following timely paragraph:

"Volapuk, the 'Universal Language,' is the newest kick in society. A better one, and more to the purpose, would be the study of universal good manners. Good breeding, in some respects, seems to be going out of date."

We congratulate the Washington Post upon its very much enlarged and generally improved appearance. It is now a large eight page daily, is neatly printed and is well edited throughout. It is a propitious sign to see the Democratic organ at Washlugton so enlarging its borders and improving its general get up.

The sudden death of Rev. Dr. L. S. Burkhead at Favetteville, while attending the Conference, will be a great shock to a great many friends in North Carolina. It occurred on Friday night after he had left the Conference room. We have no particulars. Dr. Burkhead was the friend of the writer. He was a man every inch of him. He had decision of character in a marked degree. He was frank, sincere, affable, companionable, a man of mental force and of information in theology and in general matters. He was a strong preacher, apt to preach too long, and had a logical mind well trained. You could always rely upon him. He had nothing little about him, but was of noble impulses and high aspirations. He received several votes for Bishop in the last General Conference if we are not mistaken. He had filled every place of importance in the Conference and was equal to all demands. He was a true believer in the promises of the Almighty Father and in the atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ. We have no doubt that he was ready for the sudden summons. His death is a

Mr. Carlisle is to visit Georgia during the Christmas recess of Congress and will speak at Atlanta and possibly at Macon. There are persons in Wilmington who would be pleased to hear this able and upright and well balanced statesman.

American stars are baving a good time in Europe. Emma Nevada has had a brilliant success at Lisbon and Ella Russell at Warsaw.

In case Randall does not get his old place on the Ways and Means Committee it is thought the choice will be either Mills, of Texas, or Cox, of New York, or one of the two able Breckenridges. We are expecting to see Sam Randall installed in the same place of great power and influence.

Death of Mr. Roger S. Williams, of Fayetteville. A telegram was received in this city yesterday announcing the sudden death of Mr. Roger S. Williams, at his home in Fayetteville, Friday night. The deceased was aged about 37 years. He was a son of Mr. John D. Williams, of Fayetteville, and had many friends, not only in that place, but throughout the State, who will sincerely mourn his death. Mr. Williams was a man of most kindly nature and sterling integrity, generous to a fault, and had many qualities which endeared him to all who knew him. For mady years he was mana-affliction. Death of Rev. L. S. Burkhead, D. D. The sudden death of this good, useful and talented divine on Friday evening at Fayetteville, N. C., where he was attending the session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist E. Church, South, cast a gloom over his friends here where he was so favorably known. In his earlier ministry he was pastor of the Fifth Street church in this city. He was afterwards pastor of Front Street church and on two different occasions was Presiding Elder upon this district. A good and useful man fell at his post when Dr. Burkhead died.

The Sunken Plat. The steamer A. P. Hurt arrived yes. terday, discharged her freight of naval stores and started on her return trip with a lighter to bring down the cotton on the sunken flat at Phœbus Landing, some sixty miles up the river. Capt. Robeson reports that none of the cotton was lost. The lighter struck a snag and sunk five minutes afterwards.

- We have been requested to state that at 11 o'clock this morning Rev. J. W. Craig will preach for the congregation of Grace Methodist Church at the Synagogue, and at 7:30 p. m. Professor Lincoln and family will conduct a service of song. Sabbath school at 3 o'clock p. m.

- The statement that a meeting of stockholders of the Clarendon Water Works Company was held last Thursday was incorrect, but the fact that a contract was pending and would probably be conc'uded with Messrs. Ray and Hambley for boring artesian wells for the company, as published in the STAR, was correct.

Assault and Battery and Trespass.

Hattie Davis, a middle-aged colored woman, was arrested yesterday on warrants issued by the Mayor, charging her with forcible trespass and as sault and battery. An investigation of the case was had in the afternoon Mrs. M. E. Owens and her daughter, Miss J. C. E. Owens, were the complainants. From the evidence it appeared that the colored woman was sent with a message to Mrs. Owens, at the latter's residence on Fifth and Mulberry streets. The woman persisted in entering the front door when she was told to go around to the back entrance to the house, and finally assaulted Mrs. Owens and her daughter with a chair. Both ladies sustained severe bruises at the hands of their assailant. At the conclusion of the hearing Hattie Davis was committed to the custody of the sheriff in default of bail in the sum of $150 for her appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

hicken Thieves. The premises of Mr. J. Sternberger, corner of Seventh and Dock streets, were raided by fowl thieves at an early hour yesterday morning, and nearly all his poultry was stolen. The thieves got away with fifteen fat hens and four geese, Mr. Sternberger thinks the raid was made by persons well acquainted with the of fine material, and of various premises.

Opera House-The Merchant of Ventce

A fair-sized audience witnessed the production of Shakespeare's great drama, "The Merchant of Venice," last night, by Miss Prescott and her company. Miss Prescott took the leading role of Portia, and Mr. Mc-Lean undertook the difficult role of Shylock. The audience were well pleased with the play throughout. and applauded the good points as they were brought to light by the splendid acting of Miss Prescott and her company. The acting of both Miss Prescott and Mr. McLean evinced great care and study throughout, and Miss Prescott was seen at her best in the scene before the Court, where she delivered in splendid style the speech on "Mercy." Miss Prescott is a young and talented actress, and will receive a warm welcome whenever she comes amongst us.

Mayor's Court. Isaiah Tillinghast, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. The testimony showed that he was guilty and he was required to give a bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

John Love, colored, disorderly conduct, claimed a previous trial and conviction before a magistrate, and was discharged.

Albert Baxter, drunk and down, was fined ten dollars, or twenty days on the chain gang. Andrew Foy, colored, for fast drivng, was required to pay a fine of $5. Edward Roderick, for disorderly conduct, was required to pay a fine of twenty dollars or be imprisoned thirty days. Defendant appealed and a bond of $100 was required to prosecute the appeal.

J. D. Wesson, a countryman, was very drunk and down. . He was fined five dollars for the offence, with the lternative of ten days' imprison-

Edward Fay and Thomas Smith, hailing from Jacksonville, Fla., applied at the guard house for lodgings. They said that they were going to ship and go to sea, and the Mayor gave them that privilege, providing they went at once. Otherwise a policeman would escort them outside the city.

Pire Last Night. Mr. J. R. Melton's tannery, at his butcher pen a short distance beyond the city limits, near Smith's Creek bridge, was destroyed by fire last night about 8 o'clock. An alarm was given from box 31, Fourth and Bruns wick streets, and the Fire Depart ment turned out, but did not go to the scene of the conflagration. During the progress of the fire the boiler in the tannery exploded, scattering the burning debris of the building in every direction, but fortunately inflicting no injury to the people assembled at the place. Mr. Melton's slaughter house, adjoining the tannery, was saved through the exertions of persons on the ground. The loss sustained by the fire could not be learned, but it was thought to be

In Distress.

The schooner Lizzie Dewey, Capt. Clark, boundifrom Baltimore to Savannah with a cargo of guano, arrived here yesterday in distress. Capt. Clark reported that his vessel encountered a heavy gale on the night of November 30th, between Cape Lookout and Frying-pan Shoals, during which the vessel shipped a heavy sea which carried away part of the stern, the compass and wheel, one of the boats, and filled the cabin with water. The schooner having sprung aleak during the gale, the Captain put into this port for repairs. The Dewey came up to the city yesterday and anchored. A board of survey will be held Monday to ascertain the extent of the damage.

The schooner Belle Brown, Capt Perry, which arrived yesterday, also encountered the gale on the 30th ult. and had some of her sails blown Fire up the River. The store house of Messrs. Lucas & Lamb, at Lloyd's Landing. in Bladen county, was destroyed by fire last Thursday night, together with the stock of goods in the building. It is supposed that the fire was caused by an incendiary. The firm's loss is estimated at $2,000. They had insurance on their stock of goods to the amount of $800 in the Rochester German Insurance Co., represented in Wilmington by Messrs. Smith & Boatwright.

Ladies' Costumes at the Jahrmarkt. The ladies who are to be participants in the "Jahrmarkt," are working diligently and faithfully on the costumes to be worn on that occasion. It is intimated that the costumes will be very tasty, and not a few of them costly. The patterns of some are unique, and the texture popular shades.

The following are the indications winds, becoming variable. For South Carolina and Georgia, slightly warmer, 'generally fair weather, light to fresh variable winds.

Decorations at the Jahrmarkt. The decorations at the Wilmington Jahrmarkt, we are informed, will be superb. Flags have been contributed by the owners of many vessels of Wilmington, and by private individaals, and bunting of many colors will be festooned from the ceilings; together with the placing of mistletoe, cedars, hollies, the long-leaf pine, laurels, potted plants, cut flowers, etc., artistically, in every part of the auditorium of the City Hall. The dates of the Jahrmarkt, December 7th, 8th and 9th, remain the same, as does also the price of admission, ten

The Horse Mart.

A lot of horses in the vacant lot on the corner of Third and Princess streets attracted a crowd of sightseers yesterday. They were just from Texas and are said to be the best ever brought to this city from the Lone Star State.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.-REV SYLVANUS CORE thus writes in the Boston Chris-tian Freeman: We would by no means recom-mend any kind of medicine which we did not mend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents un-broken rest at night. Most parents can appre-ciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege on any consider. inished with the teet ration whatever, Sold by all druggists. 25 cents
