Der Jahrmarkt."

Preparations were completed last night by the ladies of the Lutheran Church for their "Jahrmarkt." The booths are all in order, and the decorations are tastily arranged. The whole system of interior decoration of the City Hall is economical, but very pretty.

To the left of the entrance the public will have a good view of the Art Gallery and Museum, where will be displayed many historical and interteresting articles. Three celebrated French rifles, used in the Franco-Prussian war, with which the Germans feared they could not compete, were sent by a German Infantry Company, of Charleston, S. C., to the Jahrmarkt. This Company is said to be the oldest German "shuetzer" Company in the United States, of which the South should be justly proud. In compliance with a special request made by this Company, King William sent them six "Chassepots." These are, as far as we know, the only guns of the make in this country. They are, therefore, very interesting and valuable, and a special committee will take charge of them while they are on exhibition at the "markt." A sabre, the property of the grandfather of Mr. Wessell has been contributed, which was used in the war against the Turks. Another curiosity will be a medal which was pre-well known here. To the left of the Art Gallery and Museum, beginning at the door, and extending nearly all the way across the hall, are tents, or booths, reaching to the Winter Gadren. The latter is surrounded by large and handsome trees, freshly cut from the forests, presenting a pleasing and artistic effect. The rostrum of the hall is arranged as a Summer Garden, and extending from this to the entrance, there are a series of booths, each having its respective name, in German, placed conspicuously near the entrance to the booth.

Every precaution will be taken to secure safety and pleasure, not only in this respect, but throughout the entire hall by gentlemen who act as floor managers, to whom the guests are referred for any information desired, as well as to receive all complaints of losses, etc.

The Jahrmarkt will be opened to the public at seven o'clock p, m. each evening, commencing to-night, and continuing until Friday night, inclusive. Admission, each night, ten

|Special Correspondence.]

FAYETTEVILLE, MONDAY, 7.30 P. M. -Conference convened with Bishop Key in the chair. Religious exercises were conducted by Rev. Frank H. Wood. The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The report of the Colportage Board was read. It was the first year of special colportage work, and showed that a great work had been accomplished by Rev. P. L. Groom (the agent of the board) in the distribution and sale of Method st literature. The report was adopted and Rev.P.L. Groom was made Agent of the Board another year.

Report of the Committee on Books and Periodicals was read and adopt-

Next in order came the report from the Board of Missions which made a decided forward movement; $9,000 was assessed for Domestic Missions and $18,000 for Foreign Missions.

The report from the committee on Church Property was next heard. The number of churches and parsonages built during the year is up in the hundreds. There is yet a demand for fifty-six new churches.

Next came the report of the committee on Education, which was decidedly encouraging; showed marked advancement in all educational institutions under control of the Conference.

SEVENTH DAY'S SESSION.

Dec. 6.-Conference met at 9.30 a. m., Bishop Key in the chair. Religious services were conducted by Rev N. A. Hooker. The minutes of vesterday were read and approved. NOTE .- O! what a look of anxiety is on the face of more than two hunired faces. The Bishop holds the secret-the preachers are in ignorance—and the ignorance is not bliss either. Two hours more and the Bishop will tell these men of God where they must work for the coming year. A spirit of consecration seems to be on the preachers, caught from the Bishop. It has leaked out that many changes have been made and that there will be satisfaction both to preachers and people.]
The Washington, Trinity College

and Warrenton Districts were called and the reports from pastors on those districts were heard, and their characters passed. When the call of preachers to passage of character was concluded, the Bishop congratulated the Conference that not a single complaint was made against ministerial character. The Financial Secretary then read his report, which showed the work accomplished by the Methodists in North Carolina to be as follows Total present membership in the Conference, 86,262-a net gain of 3,389 Adults baptized, 3,520; infants baptized, 2,627; total baptisms, 6,147. Number of churches, 895-a gain of 15. Value of churches, $917,446; increase in value, $65,126. Number of parsonages, 108—a gain of 4. Value of parsouages, $136,825—an increase in value of $3,060. Amount of money paid to Pasters and Presiding Elders, $128,000; to Domestic Missions, $5,240; Church extension, $2,395; to Trinity College Sustentation fund, $2,572; Conference claimants, $5,831.83; Bishops $1,649 other purposes, $10,872.90; for Sunday school literature, $8,626.61. Number of Sunday school scholars, 55,077-a gain of 4,097.

Resolutions were passed thanking the people of Fayetteville for the kind entertainment of the Conference. They did it well Resolutions were also passed setting down squarely on theatres, dancing—especially round-dancing.

The hour of 11 a. m. having arrived, the Conference went into Memorial exercises in honor of minis-ters, who had died during the year. The Bishop read the hymn begin-ning: "Why do we Mourn Departed Friends." A memoir of Rev. T. A. Stone was read by Rev. W. C. Wilson. A memoir of Rev. C. A. Gautt w s read by Rev. M. W. Boyles. A memoir of Rev. H. H. Gibbons was read by Rev. John T. Abernathy. A memoir of Rev. L. S. Burkhead was
