The great international scandal concerning the forged Bismarck let ters is still the topic of foreign talk. It is said that noted Prussian and Austrian women leagued together to deceive the Czar and misrepresent the German Prince.

Rev. Dr. Parker, of Loudon, has certainly had a rather rough, time in this country. He has been for minrepresented that he at last wrote to the assistant paster of Plymouth Church that "he did not come to this country to be insulted."

Alfred Tennyson has written a letter to the alleged poet, Walt Whitman. It appears in a Northern paper. He says in the last paragraph:

Truly, the mother country, pondering: on this, may feel that howmuchsoever the daughter owes to her, she, the mother, has, nevertheless, something to learn from the daughter. Especially I would note the care taken to guard a noble Constitution from rash and unwise innovators."

Gen. Jackson, of Ga., has issued his Macon speech in pamphlet and it contains a vigorous and important preface, we suppose, from the following from the Atlanta Constitution: "It presents a complete refutation of the criticisms which have been made upon the speech, and no unprejudiced reades can doubt that the principles of government enunciated are true and loyal, and of which any Southern man might well be proud."

The news we get all tends to show that Bishop Key is a man of remark-

Scarcely in the history of Methodism

The only one who would be named

The Missing Men.

No tidings have yet been received here of the three young men who it is feared were lost in Currituck Sound last Thursday night, Messrs. Thad. Branch, John Keeter and Chas. Barnitz. Mr. J. W. Branch, the father of Thad. Branch, received a letter yesterday from Capt. J. H. Williams, of the Stetson. The letter was written from Elizabeth City and was dated Sunday and in it Captain Williams

I am sorry to inform you that the theee men are yet missing. On last Thursday evening Thad. Branch, Keeter and young Barnitz left the dredge to go to Powell's Point P. O. after the mail. They reached the shore all right, got the mail and left for the dredge between 6 and 7 o'clock. They were under sail and that is the last tidings we have heard

It is possible they were blown on the lee shore. If such was the case the distance was about 15 miles. The captain of the dredge, myself and three more men went ashore and searched the beach for miles, but found nothing of them, nor any part of the boat.

We inquired of all passing steamers of a stray boat, but no tidings could they give us. We also went to the ighthouse, but could hear nothing there. Capt. McConnell is here with us and is trying in every way to hear something from the missing men This is the best information we can give you at present. We will leave here to-morrow morning at 5 o'clock for the dredge. We are in hopes of hearing something of the men when we reach the dredge.

hanges in the Office of the Atlantic Coast Line.

Mr. Herbert L. Borden has been assigned to duty in the General Manager's office under the instruction of Mr. R. D. Cronly, Secretary to the President and General Superintendent, until Mr. Borden becomes familiar with the duties of the position, when he will assume full charge. The vacancy in the Auditor's Department, caused by Mr. Borden's promotion, will be filled by Mr. G. S. Le Grand, and in turn, Mr. G. N. Harriss will assume the duties laid down by Mr. Le Grand. Mr. Benj. Jacobs has been promoted from Mr. Rutland's office to a desk in the General Auditor's office, and Mr. W. L. Parsley from Mr. Yopp's office to the vacancy in Mr. Rutland's office. while the vacancy in Mr. Yopp's office has been filled, the appointment is not yet announced. The system adopted by the Atlantic Coast Line of always filling positions by promotion of the faithful men in its service, is a commendable one, which it would be well for all corporations to follow.

Magistrate's Court.

Lizzie Blackman, colored, was sent to jail yesterday by Justice Millis, in default of bond in the sum of fifty dollars to keep the peace. The warrant for the woman's arrest was issued at the instance of Bettie Moore, colored.

Emanuel Lane, colored, arrested on warrants charging assault and battery and bastardy, and also on a paace warrant, all issued at the instance of Ida Lewis, colored, was committed to the custody of the sheriff in default of the payment of costs under a suspension of judgment and on failure to furnish bond for $100 to keep the peace.

Death of Mrs. Josephn Atkinson. On yesterday morning, in the city of Baltimore, at the residence of Dr. Robert Atkinson, Mrs. Josepha Atkinson relict of the late Thomas Atkinson, LL.D., Bishop of the Diocese of the North Carolina Protestant Episcopal Church, died, aged about 80. She had been in declining health for some years, and for a year or more had been a sufferer, being confined almost entirely to her chamber. She was born, we think, in the little historic city. of Petersburg, Va. Her maiden name was Wilder. She was a woman of most striking character Well born, connected with many of the leading families in her native State, refined, accomplished, cultivated, intelligent beyond most of her sex, she was a woman of mark, of force, of influence. She was practical, had decided managing talents, was a clear-headed and sincere friend had intuitive decision, had "pru dence to withhold," was of large and active benevolence, was an earnest Christian, was a help-meet to her dis tinguished and admirable husband of blessed memory, and lived a life of

A thousand claims to reverence closed In her as Mother, Wife, and Friend. She never lost a child, and up to Bishop Atkinson's death, after a wedded life of fifty years, there had been no death in her immediate family. She had every comfort that life required, commanded the love and veneration of a large circle of relatives and friends, and at an advanced age went to her rest.

But few people knew of her many acts of sympathy and benevolence Only those who were in the most intimate relations with her knew of her constant efforts to palliate suffering and make easier the hard lot of the poor. She made it an invariable rule never to turn away any one soliciting alms. It was the principle of her life to give one-tenth of her actual income to the cause of Christian benevolence. She said she would consider it as robbing the Lord if she failed to give at least ten cents of every dollar she received. She was very much attached to those of her own blood and to her husband's kin. She was the first mover in the establishing of St. Paul's Church in this city, and as long as she could was its most earnest friend and supporter. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Mary Buel, wife of Rev. Dr. Buel, of Asheville, and two sons, Col. J. W. Atkinson, of this city, and Dr. Robert Atkinson, of Baltimore. Her remains will be brought to this city for interment, by the side of her husband in Death of Mr. W. M. Parker.

St. James Church.

The sad intelligence of the death of Mr. WILLIAM M. PARKER was received here yesterday afternoon through a telegram from Fayetteville. He died at the Hotel LaFayette in that place at 3 p. m., after a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, with which he was attacked while on his way to the boat coming to this city. The dispatch to the STAR announcing Mr. Parker's death states that the remains will leave Fayetteville by train this afternoon at half-past three o'clock. They will reach here to night, and the funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon, and probably from Grace Church, if the necessar; arrangements can be made. Mr. Parker was about fifty-nine years of age. He was a native of Hamburg, Conn.; came to North Carolina and settled at Asheboro in 1850, and afterwards removed to Fayetteville, where he was employed as clerk by the late Wm. R. Utley, commission merchant. At the outbreak of the war Mr. Parker was among the first to volunteer, and as a private served in the La Fayette Light Infantry (Co. F.) of the First (Bethel) regiment, until it was mustered out of service. During the latter part of the war he had charge of the State salt works on the coast below Wilmington. After the war Mr. Parker engaged in business in this city with Mr. A. H. Neff, and in 1873 formed a partnership with Mr. James H. Taylor, in the hardware business, which has ever since been successfully conducted by the firm. Mr. Parker was a quiet, unobtru sive gentleman, but was ever active in works of charity and benevolence; devoted to his church and to his friends, and with a warm heart full of the kindliest sympathy for all. He was chairman of the Board of Trustees and Stewards of Grace M. E Church, and for sixteen years Superintendent of the Sunday School.

Important Change. An important change in the running of trains on the Carolina Central Railroad is to be made next week. The day train is to be discontinued, and the entire mail and passenger business will be transferred to the night train. The management all regret the necessity for the change, but they say the day train is being run at a loss, and this is the sole reason for its discontinuance.

It is greatly to be regretted that the business of the road does not justify the running of both trains, but the figures show that the passenger traffic (except in the summer months) is too small to make the day train pay

The change will go into effect eith er on Monday or Wednesday next.

Timely Warning. Mr. B. R. Russell who "biles the water" that makes the steam for the "Atlantic" fire engine, has been very much annoyed by persons other than firemen getting on the rear of the machine when on the way to a fire. Yesterday he consulted Mayor Fowler as to what course to pursue, and was told that it would be lawful for him to use sufficient force to remove intruders who interfered with the proper performance of his duties as fireman. Acting under this advice Mr. Russell will hereafter use "sufficient force" if the persuasive powers of a wrench or spanner fail to induce intruders to "get off," when requested to do so.
