M Goblet has announced his inability to form a French Cabinet, and President Carnot has appealed to M. Follieres to undertake the task. -A stay of proceedings has been granted in the case of Herr Most, and he was vesterday released on $5,000 bail. _ Total receipts of cotton at all of the ports since September 1st, 3,383.-197 bales. - A strike of the plateclass workmen in Pittsburg has been ordered, to take effect to-day; it will affect fourteen hundred men and cause a suspension of work in nineteen factories. - The Senate caucus committees have about completed their work, and the appointments will be made on Monday, when the practical work of the session will begin. - The N. Y. World published vesterday a dispatch from Halifax. N. S. of an attempt to blow up the guncotton tank in the harbor of that place, which proves to have been a first-class hoax. - In the Chicago market yesterday there was an advance in corn and wheat, and provisions were also higher. - A resolation was introduced in the Virginia Legislature yesterday providing for the appointment of a special committee to consider and report what further legislation, if any, is required in the matter of the public debt. - A heavy failure in the iron trade occurred yesterday in Glasgow, Scotland. - It is semi-officially announced from St. Petersburg that the Austrian and German reports of the movements of Russian troops on the Gallician frontier are inexact. -Nearly two thousand members of the Evangelical Alliance called at the White House yesterday to pay their respects to the President and Mrs. Cleveland; the President of the Alliance made a brief address, which was responded to by President Cleveland. — The Egyptian cotton crop will probably amount to 1,850,000 cantars, a falling off in the estimated yield of 150,000 cantars, caused by fogs and heat. - N. Y. markets: Money easy at 4@5 per cent., closing offered at 3 per cent.; cotton dull at 101@101c: southern flour quiet, and firmly held; wheat, spot firm and quiet: No. 2 red December 90tc; corn, No. 2 December 62%c; spirits turpentine quiet at 371c; rosin quiet at $1 05

Mrs. Cleveland is said to have a decided weakness for "pretty actresses and good actors."

The South Carolina Conference, like the North Carolina, has declared against theatres and circuses.

Henceforth disabled Confederate soldiers in South Carolina will draw a pension of five dollars a month A praiseworthy appropriation.

Washington is taking steps to have a grand celebration on 30th September, 1889, it being the centennial of the inauguration of George Washington as President.

It is thought in England that Mr. Gladstone gets a fortune by the will of Lord Wolverton. He is already rich His father, Sir John Gladstone, gave him a lift in 1845.

A wealthy Pulaski, N. Y., young weman ran away with a railroad brakeman. Fortune favors the brave If he is worthy and she loves him the has probably made a good match.

President Carnot is a domestic man. Like a good husband he spends his evenings at home. He is not a "society man." An exchange says his name Sadi-Carnot is pronounced Sardy-Carno.

The Randallites in the House are reported as very "reticent about their intentions." The Washington Post says that "a determined front is likely to be shown by them during the Tariff discussion."

There are said to be an enormous number of trials by court martial now going on in the little American army. That indicates loose discipline or bad morals. In one year there were 11,136 trials in an army of some 26,000 men and officere.

Of the North Carolina members of the Lower House reported in the World, Nichols wishes to abolish the internal revenue, and favors "a High Tariff." Latham likes the message "with one exception," not given. Simmons and Johnston want the internal tax swept away. Cowles favors "a moderate Tariff bill."

The New York World sent a detachment of twenty of its reporters to Washington and in its issue of Thursday there is a long report of opinions. | noon.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1887.

Local Dots. - Rev. J. R. Savage will preach at Bladen street M. E. Church tomorrow-morning and night. - Three car-loads of iron for the bridge over the railroad cut on North Fourth street arrived yesterday.

- Receipts of cotton yesterday 1,129 bales. Sales reported were 300 bales at 9 13-16 cents for Middling.

-- Mr. James Orrell, father of Mr. Robert C. Orrell, is reported to be very sick at his residence in this

-- Mr. W. B. Brice, of Daplin Road, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Brice is one of the agents of the Eagle News Company.

The Board of Stewards of Fifth Street M. E. Church, at their meeting Friday night, raised the pastor's salary to $1,200 per year.

-- Maj. Jno. C. Winder, General Manager of the Seaboard Air Line, was in the city yesterday. He left for Raleigh last night.

-- For Grace Methodist Church, at the Temple of Israel, Rev. D. Yates will preach on to-morrow morning and Rev. F. A. Bishop to-morrow evening.

- Lieut. F. R. Day, who has been here several days inspecting Signal Service stations in this city and Southport, left yesterday for Columbia, S. C.

-- Rev. Dr. Yates will preach his last sermon to his old congregation, which he has served so faithfully for the past four years, on to-morrow morning week.

- Col. A. M. Waddell left last night for Washington in accordance with the request of the Chamber of Commerce and Produce Exchange, in the interest of our river and harbor improvements.

-- The days decrease in length until the 17th, when the minimum is reached. After this the days remain of the same length, 9h. 8m., for the eight succeeding days, until the 25th, when they begin to lengthen.

-- The December moon fulls on the 30th. On the 8th she is in conjunction with Mars. On the 9th she is at her nearest point to Uranus, and on the 11th is in conjunction with Venus. She pays her respects to Jupiter on the 12th, and is at her nearest point to Mercury on the 13th

- The approuncement in the STAR that the day train on the Carolina Central would be discontinued next week, has been received with regret and disappointment all along the line of the road, as we learn from a correspondent who has been over the route between Monroe and Wilmington. It is hoped the traffic of the road may soon justify the running of the day train again.

-- The STAR is indebted to Capt. W. H. Bixby, of the Engineer Corps, U. S. A., for a copy of his Annual Report for 1886, on the Improvement of Rivers and Harbors under his charge in this State and South Carolina, being an appendix of the Annual Report of the Chief of Engineers. A great portion of the work of course relates to the improvement of the lower Cape Fear river, and furnishes much information of great value.

Watther Indientions.

The following are the indications for to-day, received at 1 a. m .: For Virginia, slightly warmer, rain, light to fresh easterly winds, becoming variable, followed on Sunday by colder.

For North Carolina and South Carolina, slightly warmer, rain, light to fresh variable winds, except fresh to brisk on the Eastern North Carolina

Capt. Wm. M. Parker's Funera'. The funeral of the late Capt. Wm. M. Parker took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. E. Springer, on North Second street. The attendance was very large, despite the fact that rain was falling and the weather throughout the day was wet and disagreeable. The members of the Sunday school of Grace M. E. Church, of which the deceased had been superintendent for sixteen years past, attended the funeral in a body. The remains were interred in Oakdale Cemetery, Rev. Dr. Yates conducting the services. The pallbearers were: Messrs. S. D. Wallace, George H. Kelley, H. M. Bowden, George Chadbourn, Donald MacRae, James W. King, W. W. Hodges, John W. Perdew, W. M. Poisson, H. P. West, Dr. F. W. Potter and Col. Roger

The G., C. & N. R. R. A correspondent of the STAR, writing from Monroe, N. C., says the grading of the G., C. & N. R. R. is being rapidly finished on the Monroe end of the line; grading now going on in the edge of town. When finished this will complete the work to Chester, S. C. and track-laying will soon begin. There are two thousand tons complete the work.

Anserordertlicher Success des Jahrmarkts,"

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, vesterday afternoon, the matinee given by the ladies of the Lutheran Church, at the City Hall, was not very well attended.

The lovers of the curious bad an opportunity of having their appetites appeased by the marvelous wonder, "Constantinopolitanischerschmipftalacksdose," which was on exhibition between the Bavarian and Scandinavian booths at the Jahrmarkt last night. Nearly all of the large number of spectators who were present last night at "der market" contributed a nickel to this wonderful exhibit. It was imported from Germany by Captain Van Holf, and presented to the fair by Mr. George Honnet, the jeweler, who had charge of the mon-

Among the articles exhibited in the museum, during yesterday and last night, among the contributions of the day, we noted a Japanese cologne case, presented to Commodore John Stodder, U. S. N., by the Emperor of Japan-"the Mikado"-while he was completing negotiations between that country and the United States. It is the handiwork of a Japanese lady, and is considered by connoisseurs to be very valuable. The article was kindly donated by Miss Birdie Stodder, through Miss Jannie Kno bloch, to the Jahmarkt, and was conveyed from Washington, D. C., to this city by Lieutenant Bolles, of the Hydrographic office of Washington. Miss Emily Ruelsam, of the "Capitol," through the Misses Knobloch, presented a handsome chair rest, worked in chenille. The pastor of the Lutheran church

Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, shows a collection of literary works, which for antiqueness and intrinsic value, cannot be surpassed. Among them is one of the oldest German A, B, C books, which was printed in Germantown, Pa., in 1776; containing wood cut illustrations which are not often made better or printed clearer in the present age; a Greek testament, bound in vellum, and supplied with a German commentary, being published in Saxony, Germany, in 1730, by Christian Neudecker; a Hebrew Bible--old testament-published in 1739; one of the first German-English diction aries, published under the auspices of the Lutheran Orphan Home, Leipsic, Germany, in 1783; a polyglott dictionary, containing German, Latin, Greek and Hebrew, and edited by one of the first German doctors, Elias Hutter, bearing date of publication, 1598, which was bound with thongs of leather; a large octavo volume of the original second edition of Luther, published in 1575-three hundred years old; the back is of wood, and is covered with sheep skin. It is printed in German, by wooden type, and the ancient mode of spelling by the Germans is used. Two pen-holders of odd design, and of historical interest are also exhibited by the reverend gentleman. One, from the wood of the tree where Luther sat and rested himself on the way to Worms, when he appeared before the Catholics, containing a glass of strong magnifying power, containing the statue of Luther, the latter being surrounded by many other memorial monuments. The Howard Relief Fire Engine company, in full uniform, foreman M. Rathjen, were in attendance at the "Markt" last evening, and they were bid "Willkommen," in a prettily interwoven, extemporaneous address by Rev. Mr. Peschau. The Germania Cornet Band were also there, and discoursed enlivening selections throughout the evening, which were greatly appreciated by the assemblage, and many words of congratulation to the worthy musicians by the audience were heard.

The donors to the Jahrmarkt, of the city, were Mr and Mrs W A Springer, Messrs Fowler & Morrison, S H Fishblate, Munds Brothers, J D Nutt. Morris Bear & Bro, R H Grant & Co. Alderman, Flanner & Co. J M Maunder, Bridgers & Rankin, I Shrier, Allen & Jacobs, G R French & Sons, Holmes & Watters, Matthew Heyer, BF Mitchell & Sons, Boney & Harper, W E Davis, W H Yopp, Knoxville Furniture Company, Giles & Murchison, Behrends & Monroe, C W Yates, Miss Emma Karrer, West & Co. Pembroke Jones, Dr W E Storm, S & B Solomon, W H Green & Co, M Newman, Sol Bear, Wilmington Candy Factory, ET Draper, Col J J Hedrick, N Jacobi, Brown & Roddick, J L Croom, P Heinsberger, W M McIntyre, A Shrier, M M Katz, Mrs E Warren, B Myers, Mrs T Donlan, Mrs Altaffer and Mrs H O Craig.

The out of town contributors were J W Tufts, Boston, Mass; Purcell, Ladd & Co, Richmond, Va; Colgate & Co, New York; Paul Jones, Louisville, Ky; J B Brown, Baltimore, Md.

A sewing machine, presented by Miss Emma Karrer, was sold; half of the proceeds being contributed to the Children's Nursery and the other to the treasury of the Jahrmarkt, thus of iron at Monroe and on the way to helping two good and worthy objects. Taken all in all, the Wilmington Jahrmarkt, closing last night, was a marked success, secured by the ladies of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, of this city, by untiring efforts.

We learn the aggregate cash receipts were far into the hundreds, and we congratulate our worthy people on patronizing the "markt" to such a large extent. It is said the Lutherans will give an open-air fair, on the same orders, Providence permitting, some time during the summer mouths of 1888.

Mayor's Court. Mrs. Delia Bryson, charged with attempting to bribe a witness, was arraigned before the Mayor yesterday. On affidavit the case was removed to Justice John Cowan for a hearing.

Samuel R. Twining, charged with driving over Fourth street bridge faster than a walk, was discharged.

Lizzie Floyd, colored, drunk and disorderly and resisting an officer, was ordered to pay a fine of twenty dollars or work thirty days in the chain

John Brown, a colored boy from the country, found asleep in the Purcell House building, was ordered to leave

Ed. Spencer, Chas. Walker and John Nixon, all colored, were arrested for disorderly conduct. Spencer was drunk and resisted the officer. The judgment of the Court was $20 fine or thirty days in the chain gang in the case of Spencer and $10 fine or twenty days in the chain gang for Walker and Nixon.

John Nixon, a colored tramp, said that he was going to the Sound. An officer was directed to escort him to the city limits.

Cape Fear River Improvement. Capt. Bixby in his annual report

The improvement of the lower Cape Fear river has been considered and discussed: in 1853 by a commission of coast survey, navy, and army ension of coast survey, . navy, and army engineer officers; in 1871-'72 and in 1882, by a board of army engineers. The work under the State of North Carolina was directed by Mr. Hamilton Fulton, State engineer; that from 1827 to 1838 was directed by Capt. Hartman Bache, topographi cal engineer, with Capt. George Blaney, Corps of Engineers, as assistant: those from 1839 were carried on by Lieuts. J. K. Mansfield, Corps of Engineers, John S. Winder, First Artillery, Lieut. A. J. Swift and Capt McClellan, United States Topographical Engineers; those from 1855 to 1857 were carried on under Capt. D. P. Woodbury and Lieut. W M. C. Whiting, Corps of Engineers: those of 1870 under Col. James H Simpson, United States Engineers, with Mr. Walter Griswold as assistant; those from 1870 to 1884, under Lieut. Col. W. P. Craighill, United States Engineers, with Capt. C. B. Phillips as assistant until 1876, and Mr. Henry Bacon as assistant from 1676 to 1884; since 1884, under Capt. W. H. Bixby, United States Engineers, with Mr. Henry Bacon as

A Cutting Scrape. John Walker and Dave Hawkins, young colored men employed at the Champion Cotton Compress, engaged in a fight yesterday morning. Hawkins knocked Walker down and the latter when he got up rushed at Hawkins and cut him with a knife, inflict ing a wound in the left side about two inches in length. The cut is just below the heart and probably would have been a fatal blow, but for the blade striking a rib. As it is, Hawkins wound is not considered dangerous. A physician was at once called to attend him, and after the wound was dressed he was taken to his home on Fifth and Walnut streets. Mr. William Singletary, who witnessed the fight and endeavored to separate the combatants, received a slight cut across one of his wrists.

Walker made his escape atter the cutting and has not since been seen He is about eighteen years of age Hawkins is several years older.

Eastern Insane Asylum.

The Goldsboro Argus says that a meeting of the Directors of the Eastern Insane Asylum was held in that place last Friday, and adds: Dr. J. F. Miller, of Goldsboro, was elected superintendent. The election of steward was postponed until March. The assistant superintendent's time had not expired, consequently there was no election for this place. All the directors were present. Dr. Miller, as is well known, is a gentleman of the very highest character and eminence in his profession, and it would have been impossible for the directors to have done better. Dr. Roberts, who has been superintendent for six years, has made an able and efficient officer, and is entitled to the plaudit 'well done good and faithful ser vant." Mrs. B. V. Smith was elected

The bar-room of Monroe Byrd, colored, on South Water street, near Dock, was found to be on fire yesterday morning about five o'clock. Police officer H. J. Mintz, who discovered the fire, with the assistance of other persons broke down the door of the place and extinguished the flames The fire is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of a lamp, setting fire to the inner doors of the saloon. The damage was slight.

Brook." Considering the rain and general disagreeable character of the weather, a surprisingly good crowd attended the performance last night, and if applause is any indication of appreciation they were thoroughly pleased. The play represents a little party bent on fun at a picnic, and by the introduction of songs, recitations and dances, they make the occasion one of pleasure and merriment. Many ludicrous scenes occur and many laughable mishaps, and each succeeding scene seems funnier than its predecessor.

Miss Flemming.as Rose Dimplecheek. acts with ease, and her solos were applauded over and over again.

Mr. Gibson, as Heavy-sides, is the center of attraction, and in the role of the spinster of forty-five he was called back so often that it seemed as if the audience would keep him on the boards for the night.

A matinee will be given this afternoon which the manager promises will be especially fine, and to-night the performance will be repeated. To those who desire to laugh a splendid opportunity is here afforded, and we advise all to attend.

A Big Hunt

A number of prominent railroad men are "booked" for a quail hunt on the Carolina Central Railroad during the present month. The private cars of the officers will be used for the occasion, Monroe will be the headquarters, and that genial Nimrod Tom Brown, of the Stewart House, assisted by "Wat," the fine setter owned by the field editor of the STAR, will find the feathered victims for the guns of the railroaders. A special freight train has been ordered for the transportation of the game.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP .- RE-SYLVANUS CORE thus writes in the Boston Chris-tian Freeman: — We would by no means recom-mend any kind of medicine which we did not mend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colle pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button".
