In the Senate yesterday a favorable report was made on the Blair educational bill; the government postal telegraphic bill was referred to the Postoffice committee instead of a select committee; and Mr. Pugh offered resolutions, and addressed the Senate, in favor of a revision of the existing internal tax and tariff laws; in the House the committee on Rules was announced, but no business of special interest was transacted. - A terrible tragedy was enacted in Ballston Spa. New York, yesterday; a lawyer killed lris wife, mother-in-law, stepdaughter, and shot himself; they had quarreled over money matters, - The nomination of Mr. Lamar for-Supreme Court Judge was discussed in the Senate Judiciary Committee vesterday, and it was finally referred to a sub-committee. - Austria will be governed in her military operations on the frontier by the movements of Russia; Prince Bismarck counsels Austria, while strengthening her military frontier, to avoid giving provocation to Russia. - The executed Chicago anarchists were placed in a stone-encased grave on Sunday; several addresses were delivered on the occasion, but the whole affair was rather of picnic order than that of a funeral. - A faith-doctor in Selma, Ala., killed a negro woman on Sunday, who had offered herself as a sacrifice, at what was called a Passover feast; a strong guard has been placed over him to prevent mob violence. -- N.Y. markets: Money easy at 2@5 per cent., closing at 2 per cent.; cotton quiet at 104@104c; southern flour steady; wheat, No. 2 red December 884@894c; corn, No. 2 January 61 614c; spirits turpentine dull at 38c; rosin steady at $1 05@1 10.

It is said to be a fact that during the orange season Philadelphia alone receives weekly between 20,000 and 30,000 boxes, and New York even more. As many boxes of lemons are also received.

Mr. Randall's friends deny that he has lowered his flag or made any promises that he will not oppose the President and his friends in their Tariff plans. Sam will be very apt to prove an apple of discord.

If to get a big reduction on the tariff it is found to be absolutely nesessary to give up the tax on ohewing and smoking tobacco then the STAR has said that this compromise might be tolerated. But it has insisted that the Tariff be razeed before or simultaneously when the tobace) tax is removed. As to the tax on cigars, whiskey, beer, &c., it ought to be retained until every cent of the war indebtedness is liquidated, and then it should be continued. What, tax shoes, hats, blankets, clothing, &c., and let dripks and smokes go untaxed? Never!

VOL. XLI.--NO. 75.

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1887.

Rev. Dr. Manly, reported assault. ed at Louisville, was not dangerous ly, but seriously, hurt. He will soon be out. A dispatch says:

"He was attacked by two sandbaggers about one hundred yards from his house at Crescent Hill and he received a very ugly cut just over the left eye. Two suspicious characters were seen lurking in the neighborhood during the afternoon and were awaiting the train on which Dr. Manly came. For about fifteen minutes he was unconscious, and afterwards, gathering some Christmas bundles which he was bringing from town, he staggered home in dazed condition."

The President will no doubt be greatly surprised to learn from the New York Star that he favors the reduction of internal taxes, or the abolition on the tobacco tax. Some papers can make a document teaching anything that their necessities require. We are glad at any rate that the Star does not favor wiping out the spirit tax.

Whiskey and tobacco men in Washington are taking sides on the question. The opposition to the abo lition or reduction is based upon moral grounds as well as upon trade considerations. There is said to be much diversity of opinion in the to bacco trade as to what should be done. Many oppose any reduction on raw material used in cigars.

Halfroad Rumors.

The Washington Star says that the rumor that Mr. Sol Haas, the traffic manager of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, is to be made general manager of the road is unfounded, as well as other rumors relative to changes in the managing officers. The Raleigh News and Observer says "it is said that there will be several changes in the office of Mr. F. W. Clark, the general freight and passenger agent of the R. & G. R. R. system, to take effect January 1st, 1888. Mr. Fred Bryan will take the place of Mr. H. G. Bowles, chief clerk. A gentleman from New York will take the place of Mr. R. P. Richardson, the stenographer. Mr. D. S. Cowan will become rate clerk and Mr. Newsom, at present employed in the office of Commissioner of Agriculture, will take a position with Mr. Clark."

The Hanover Knitting Mills.

A reporter for the STAR paid a visit yesterday to the new factory recently erected near the foot of Queen street and known as the "Hanover Knitting Mills." The enterprise is altogether new for this section, but is one that it has been persistently urged from time to time in the columns of this paper would prove profitable, and beyond question, under the management of the capable and energetic young men who have inaugurated it will be a successful venture. We trust it may lead to other industrial enterprises by other of our young and energetic citizens. So far as we know, there are but two other knitting mills in the South-one at Salem in this State and the other at Columbia, S. C., and both of these, we understand, are profitable investments.

Messrs. Edward S. Tennent, J. Allen Taylor, and Walker Taylor, operating under the firm name of Tennent & Taylor. The mill, as stated above, is situated near the foot of Queen street. It is a neat frame structure, one story in height, with abundant light and ventilation and comfortably warmed by steam. The machincry is of the latest and most approved pattern. It is run by power obtained from the steam mill of Messrs. S. & W. H. Northrop, near by, and requires to attend it some fifteen employes. Most of these are women, and all have been residents of the city for a long time. They have had no experience in the work and no instruction beyond that given by a skilled workman who came out from the North to set up the plant and put it in operation, and 'yet, to the casual observer they are adepts in all that pertains to the work. There are six machines for making plain webbing, four "Balmoral" machines, and two machines for knitting ribbed hose; one winder of thirty spindles, six Wilcox & Gibbs sew ing machines, with trimmer attachments, and a steam press for shaping the hose.

The manufacturers will make specialty of hosiery, but contemplate putting in machinery adapted to the production of other knit underwear. At present, the works are running on a medium grade of goods adapted to the general dry goods trade and known as "split hose." They have a daily capacity of about one hundred dozen half-hose or seventy dozen full hose per day. The company as yet have no dye works, but in time will make arrangements for the production of solid colored, striped and plain unbleached hose. The yarn worked up at the mill is procured from the North, being of harder twist than the yarn made here, and is manufactured especially for knit-

The Board of Audit and Finance met in regular session last night at the City Hall. Present: R. J. Jones, Esq., chairman, and Messrs. Wm. Calder, W. I. Gore, Jas. W. Hewtet.

Also, on the petition of John Halloway and others, committee of Giblem Lodge, for use of City Hall free of charge on December 15th. In this connection the bill of that lodge for refunded rent for five dollars was disapproved.

Three bonds ($1,500) and three coupons ($92) which had been redeemed and cancelled, were burned in the presence of the Board.

Bill of E. D. Hall, Chief of Police, for uniform, ($37.50) was approved. Mr. Calder desired to be recorded as voting against it, on the ground that no appropriation had been made for the purpose, and that the former Chief of Police had himself paid for his uniform.

Bills were audited and approved as follows: For current expenses, $199.35; refunded taxes, $24.50; collection of delinquent taxes, $643.91; bonds, $1,500, coupons, $92.

Hon. Alfred Rowland.

It will be gratifying news to the many friends of Col. Rowland to learn that he has greatly improved in health. The Charlotte Observer says that "in fact the skillful physicians who have been treating his case say the disease he has been affected with has been cured and he is now only suffering the weakening effects of his prolonged sickness. The excitement incident to Washington life and absence from the creature comforts of home, were unfavorable to his rapid recuperation, hence he returns to his home, expecting to be restored to his usual strength after the Christmas holidays. His fidelity to duty would not have allowed him to return, but for the fact that little Congressional work is done until the new year

A Singular Suicide

Lucy Smith, a colored woman aged about forty-one years, was found dead with a pistol-shot wound through her head last Sunday night about ten o'clock, in a closet in a house on Eighth street between Orange and Ann, which she occupied jointly with her two sisters-Martha Toomer and Sylvia Henderson-and a colored man named Hilliard Christian. The woman was alone at the time -the fearful deed was committed, all the others having gone to church. When they returned they went to Lucy's room, and after a short search found her in the closet, seated on a trunk and quite dead. The pistol with which the suicide was committed dropped from the dead woman's hand as the door was opened.

Coroner Miller was notified of the tragedy and vesterday morning held an inquest at the house.

Dr. Potter, superintendent of health. examined the body of the woman. The ball ranged from back of the right ear through the brain to the opposite side of the head, lodging near the left ear.

The only witnesses who could throw any light upon the tragedy were Sylvia Henderson and Martha Toomer, the two sisters.

Sylvia Henderson testified that she left Lucy about four o'clock Sunday afternoon, came back to the house at six o'clock and knocked at Lucy's door, but there was no answer. About seven she (Sylvia) went to St. Luke's Church and returned about ten. Went again to Lucy's room, but did not find her, and after searching for her among the neighbors, returned to Lucy's room and opened the door with a key that fitted the lock. Continuing, witness said: "My sister came in and said 'don't lock the lower door, she may be out.' Mrs. Toomer found her; she was dead in the closet, with a pistol clutched in her hand.

Martha Toomer testified: "I left the house in the evening and went to church, and returned between nine and ten o'clock. Looked in the room for Lucy but could not find her; she had locked herself in the room and went into the closet and shut herself up. I went to the closet and found her dead, and the pistol dropped out of her hand.

Hilliard Christian, a colored man living in the house, testified that all he knew about it was that he came home at half-past 11 o'clock Sunday night, and found Lucy Smith dead in the closet, with a pistol near her and a pool of blood.

The jury rendered the following verdict: "Upon hearing the foregoing testimony the jury of inquest find that Lucy Smith came to her death on the 18th day of December, 1887, in New Hanover county, from a pistol ball through her brain, fired by her own hand." The jurymen were J. M. McGowan, Isham Sweet, James D Dry, S. A. Craig, David Jacobs, G. W. Murray.

The dead woman is represented to have been in poor health, and despondent since the departure of her husband, who left here a few weeks ago on a vessel bound to Baltimore.

OPERA HOUSE.

Patti Rosa.

Last evening a large and fashionable audience assembled at the Opera House to hear Patti Rosa in Fred Marsden's comedy of Bob. Every thing went as merrily as a marriage bell, and the three hours spent in hearing this charming little actress were enjoyed to the fullest extent by all present.

Miss Patti Rosa attracted chief attention and next to her was Mr. Bert Coote, in the inimitable part of Prof. Doremo Sharp. Whenever these two appeared together the most rapturous applause burst forth from the audience, and their recalls were many and frequent. The company has many excellent points to recommend it to the public generally and there is not an actor or actress in it who does not reflect credit on themselves and give pleasure to their hearers. The performance was one of continuous enjoyment and will be long associated with the most pleasant memories, and all who enjoy a good laugh and lots of fun will be amply repaid by going to hear Bob.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a lotter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A BENEFACTRESS. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colleking, and teething slege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhea. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind coile, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists, 25 cents a bottle.
