THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM.

What radiant beacons stud the sky As messengers of rosy morn, We know that sunlight by and-by Will shut out night with blushing morn; Yet memory owns the potent powers Of each and every glittering gem, But welcomes most in glittering hours. The fadeless star of Bethlehem.

But night or day, in calm or storm, Faith's bright eyes never close, They see a fairer, purer form Than sky, or earth, or sea disclose-Majestic, stately, saintly, true, Crowned with a dazzling diadem,

Which sheds its rays for me, for you, The matchless Star of Bethlehem. Norfolk, VA., Dec. 20, 1887. -Norfolk Virginian.

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

Now the simple, plain common sense question is, ought we to reduce or abolish the tax on whiskey and tobacco admitted luxuries, or ought that tax to remain as it is, and remove or reduce the tax on the admitted necessaries, which we all are compelled to have at any price and cost? The abominable, odious system of its collection ought to be changed, but the tax ought to be retained, - Scotland Neck Democrat,

Mr. Gleveland's position on the internal revenue is not that of our Democratic Congressmen and it never will be. They have been sent to Congress to represent our local interests, they have pledged their best efforts for the repeal of the internal revenue and they will prove faithful. Mr. Cleveland's position will no more effect them than does a thunder peal the Pilot mountain. Before they would vote for Mr. Carlisle for Speaker they had his promise not to interfere with their internal revenue measures as he did last session - Winston Sentinel.

We have never seen a woman in any position that she did not fill better by being educated. The best wives, the best mothers, the best housekeepers, the best nurses, the best cooks, the best laundresses. the best milliners and dressmakers that we have ever met in country or town society were educated women. Education qualifies the woman, even more than it does the man, for any position to which she may be called. In high society she cannot move at all without it. In ordinary society she struggles hopelessly against all disadvantages, and never renders satisfaction .-Goldsboro Advance.

-- Asheville Citizen: A collection was taken up in the First Baptist Church, which resulted in the sum of a little in excess of $143. A portion of this will be spent in decorations for the Christmas tree of the children of the congregation; the remainder, much the larger portion, will be judiciously devoted to the uses of the children of the poor belonging to the church. - We regret to learn through Mr. Alfred Baird, who reached home Saturday evening, of an affray between two well known citizens of Webster which resulted seriously to one of the parties. Mr. John Long entered the store of Mr. Bragg Allison in search of an article of which he was in much present need, and not being supplied became offensively abusive to Mr. Allison The latter resented the abuse with a blow, whereupon the other attacked him with s knife, inflicting five uzly wounds on the face, neck and head of Mr. Allison. The injuries are severe and painful, though per-baps not dangerous -- Charlotte Chronicle: The peo ple of Salisbury yesterday had two fatal shooting affairs to talk about, both victims being colored, and the shots having been fired by colored boys. The first affray occurred Monday night, at the home of an old colored man named Martin Bell, who lived near Salisbury. Monday night Bell saw a negro boy prowling around his premises and ordered him to leave. The boy did leave, but before doing so, raised a shot gun, took aim at him and fired. The load took effect in Bell's bowels, inflicting a fatal wound. Bell was a respectable colored man. - At four o'clock yesterday afternoon, a ten year old son of Jack Mowery, stole an air gun from the premises of his father, near Main street, and went with it to the house of Reuben Hodgins, near by. Other boys were playing there. and one of them found a cartridge, which was placed in the gun. Milas Kelly, a boy ten years old, then picked up the gun, and taking deliberate aim at Mowery, fired The bullet struck Mowery just over the right eye and crashed into his head, penetrating the brain. Mowery fell dead.

-- Wilmington Presbyterian: A meeting of two weeks beginning Nov. 28:b, was held in the Presbyterian church in Clinton, N. C. Rev. Dr. Marable, the stated supply of the church, was assisted by Rev. A L Phillips, of Fayetteville, who preached every night till December 9th. At that date there had been twenty-nine professions of faith. - The Presbyterian church in Fayetteville is rejoicing in the presence of the Holy Spirit. Since Nov. 1st, '86, it has received forty seven additions, and is now steadily increasing in numbers and growing in spirituality. -It lies on our mind to say that Rev. Robert Strange, who has just assumed the rector-ship of St. James' parish in this city, does so with the most cordial good wishes not only of his charge, but of the entire Christian community. He comes to the city, as one of its own sons, with the prestige of a name that is honored here and throughout our State, as representing the highest no-bility of character; and he comes above all with an excellent reputation as a Christian pastor-a reputation fairly earned in the discharge of his duties as rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Raleigh. -- The Troy Times, edited by Mesers. # Contagious Blood Poison.

Mr. D. B. Adams, Union, South Carolina, writes: "I was afflicted with a terrible case of blood poison for about thirteen months. I was treated by the best physicians, and used various kinds of remedies, but received no substantial relief. I finally tried the Swift Specific, and about four bottles cured me sound and well."

Col. B. H. Kleser, editor and proprietor of the Opelika, Ala., Times, under date of August 8, 1837, writes: "When I was a young man, through indiscretion, I contracted a disease which has stuck to me for years. Some five or six years since I was troubled with pains, so as to make it difficult for me to walk. Having advertised the S. S. S. in my paper for several years, I concluded I would try it to see if there was any efficacy in the medicine. I commenced using it according to directions and used half dozen bottles. I was once at a way station and, getting left, I walked the seven miles and have never feit any return of the old malady. After experiencing the good effects I must say I am satisfied with the result. I am sixty-eight years of age and I feel now like a young man and can go to the case when necessary and set up from six to eight thousand ems without any inconvenience. Mr. F. Woehl, 211 North Avenue, Chicago, under date of June 12, 1887, writes: "I deem it my duty to thank you for the cure I received from your excellent medicine. I contracted a very severe case of blood poisoning about two years ago. Hearing of your medicine, I went to a drug store, the proprietor of which persuaded me to buy a preparation of his own, which he said was a sure cure. I used six bottles of his stuff and grew worse all the time. At last I got disgusted and despaired of a cure. I met a friend who told me that your medicine had cured; him. I went to the same druggist again and demanded your medicine. He reluctantly sold me twelve bottles, and I am now perfectly cured. I write this for the benefit of sufferers, to prevent their being deceived by false representations. I thank you again for the benefit derived from your medicine."

Dr. J. N. Cheney, a prominent physician, you again for the benefit derived from your medicine."

Dr. J. N. Cheney, a prominent physician, residing in Ellaville, Schley County, Georgia, in a letter recounting the infallible success he has in curing contagious blood poison cases in his extensive practice, writes: "Those who know the almost inevitable, permanently dangerous effects of mercury will welcome your discovery of S. S. S. as a boon to humanity. The medical profession, always wary of proprietary medicines, is coming slowly, and in some cases secretly, to the use of S. S. in cases of blood disorder.
