State vs. McCarter. Held, In an indictment for arson

t common law where the house was owned by one person and in the possession of another, it is sufficient to so state; and also sufficient to allege and prove that the burning was both wilful and malicious. It is not a cause for assignment of error for the court to speak of the crime of arson as "dastardly," in a connection that that does not show a spirit of un friendliness or hostility to the prisoner; and where the use of the expression does not tend to the prejudice of the prisoner, it affords no ground for arrest of judgment.

State vs. Ellington. Held, That an essential quality of the statutory offence of disposing of mortgaged property is the intent to hinder, delay or defeat the right of the mortgagee; and evidence tending to negative that intent, such as that the mortgagor allowed one holding a prior lien "to take the crop," should be received when offered.

State vs. Thomas. A prisoner charged with murder, who had taken the stand as a wit ness in his own defence, was asked on cross-examination with what crime he was charged before removing from Alabama, to which he objected, but the court ruled that he was bound to answer.

Held, That when a prisoner on trial avails himself of the right to become a witness he occupies the third, under the management of such men position of any other witness and ex stockholders—the "Future London" seems IN BARRELS, HALF-BARRES AND BOXES. poses himself to the same discredit ing and impeaching evidence. He have us believe. - Another Mecklenwaives his constitutional privilege of refusing to furnish evidence against himself, and subjects himself to be treated as a witness in all respects.

The Judge in his charge to the jury is not bound to follow the very words of counsel if his instruction, correct in itself, is substantially what is prayed.

Where the homicide is conceded to have been intentionally committed with a deadly weapon, the law pronounces it murder, unless upon the evidence it should be reduced to a lower grade, and it is not error to instruct the jury that any doubt as to whether this was sufficiently proved or not is not to be resolved in the prisoner's favor.

State vs. Smith. Held, To sustain an indictment before a justice of the peace for failure to work on a public road, it should be distinctly charged that the defendant was assigned and was liable to labor on the public road; that he was duly summoned and unlawfully and wilfully refused. While warrants before justices need not be very precise and formal, they cannot be apheld unless they contain the essential substance of the matters to which they refer. When they fail in this respect the power of amendment should be freely but cautiously exercised. State vs. Vaughan, 91 N. C. 532.

Two Opinions.

Jackson's Farewell Address. Congress has no right under the Constitution to take money from the people, unless it is required to execute some one of the specific powers intrusted to the Government; and if they raise more than is necessary for such purpose it is an abuse of the power of taxation, and unjust and oppressive.

President Cleveland's Message. The simple and plain duty which we owe the people is to reduce taxation to the necessary expenses of an economical operation of the Government, and to restore to the business of the country the money which we hold in the Treasury through the perversion of governmental powers.

OUR STATE CONFEMPORARIES. But it behooves us to select in advance of the Convention, so far as it is possible to do, men fited to bear our standards to victory and to fill the offices efficiently and ac ceptably. The men of Warren county do not 'whoop up' nor go wild over any onethey are too intelligent and self-respecting for this. Indeed there are fifty men in Warren who would grace our Gubernatorial chair with dignity and ability. But our citizens are for the most available man, selected .- Warrenton Gazette. Our wise and esteemed contemporary, the Wilmington STAR, speaks our views on the subject of luxuries. If any reduction 18 made why not make that reduction on motives, Engines, Boi ers. Saw Mills | the necessaries and not on the luxuries? An able writer in one of our exchanges said substantially that tobacco is a. necessity to men who have used it until they cannot be content without it. Well, the Democrat has said before, and its convictions have not changed, that if men wish to drink whiskey and chew tobacco and smoke cigars and cigarettes, let them pay the tax on these things .- Scotland Neck Democrat.

No road in our judgment should be alowed by law to issue bonds for more than 70 per cent, of the actual cost of the construction of the road; and no incorporators should be allowed to make contracts as such with themselves as constructors.— Charlotte Ohronicle.

THE INCURABLE CURED!

Gentlemen—Seven years ago a sore developed on my nose from a finger nail scratch. I tried a few simple remedies, but the sore would not yield. I grew worse every year for seven years. Many thought I had a cancer. Over a year ago I commenced taking S. S. S., and two dozen bottles entirely cured me. When I began with Swift's Specific I was in very poor health, and could hardly drag about. After I had finished the course of S. S. I was strong and buoyant, and had a good appetite. I regard it as a most valuable medicine for ladies in weak delicate health. It is a household medicine with me.

Spartanburg, S. C., April 2, 1867.

MRS. R. W. WILSON.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., April 2, 1857.

Gentlemen—For twenty years I have had a sore on my left cheek. It had gradually been growing worse. The many physicians whom I had consulted were unable to do me any good. Last fall a year ago I began using S. S. S. At first it inflamed the sore, and it became more virulent than ever; so much so, indeed, that my family insisted that I should leave off the medicine. I persisted in using the S. S. At the end of two months the sore was entirely healed. Thinking that the evil was out of my constitution. I left off the medicine; but in November, ten months after, a very slight breaking out appeared. I at once began again on S. S. S. and now that is also disappearing. I have every faith in S. S. S. It has done me more good than all the doctors and other medicines I ever took.

Yours truly,

A. R. SHANDE.

Winston, N. C., April 12, 1837.

Gentlemen—Two or three years ago a cancer came on my face. It soon grew to be quite large. It wore on me, and my general health was very poor. Last September I began a course of S. S. S., which I have continued to the present time with the happlest result. The cancer has entirely disappeared, there being no evidence or symptom of a cancerous character left. My general health is good now, and my appetite better than it has been in years. I am 82 years old, and to-day I am working in the field planting cors. Yours truly, Sonas Limebach.

Gentlemen—I had a sore on my upper lipfor eight years. Seven different doctors attempted in vain to heal it. One gave me a small vial for five dollars, which was a "certain cure." It is needless to say that it did me no good. About two years ago I became quite uneasy, as people thought I had a cancer, and I took a course of eighteen bottles of S. S. The result has been a complete cure. The ulcer or cancer healed beautifully, leaving scarcely a perceptible scar. From that day I have been in excellent health, the Specific having purified my blood thorough. specific having purified my blood thoroughly, increased my appetite and perfected my digestion. In a word, I feel like a new woman, and, best of all, the eight year uleer is gone entirely. Yours sincerely, MRS. W. P. CANNON.
