THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XLII.--NO. 1.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1888.

WHOLE NO. 6706

MORNING EDITION.

Mr. Salsbury addressed the Senate yesterday on the subject of the President's annual message; a number of bills were passed, principally of a local or private character; in the House a number of bills were reported from the Judiciary Committee, and the conference report on the Urgent Deficiency bill was agreed to; as passed the bill appropriates $6,976,500.

A pamphlet containing the proceedings of the commemorative services upon Sidney Lanier, held in Baltimore, 3rd of February, 1888, has been issued. Another item of interest to Southerners is that the Hyperion Literary Society, of Boston, has held a meeting at which Paul H. Hayne was the subject of the evening's entertainment.

At the 11 o'clock Bible study and lecture, there were from 1,200 to 1,300 people present. Mr. Pearson was in excellent form and his services were very delightful.

The Tabernacle was again crowded last night to hear Rev. Mr. Pearson. His sermon was on the value and loss of the soul.

Prof. Martin is clearly of the opinion that New York is doomed. The island on which it is built is sinking. In 60,000 years New York must move or do business in boats like the Venicians were wont to do.

Mr. Randall is well-understood in the North if he is not in the South. Harper's Weekly, an able Republican paper all through the years, says this:

"So long as the Republican leader, Mr. Randall, remains a Democratic devotee, the Republican effort to stigmatize the Democratic party as hostile to American industry will wholly miscarry."

The Berlin correspondent of the New York Star, cables on 20th inst.:

"The spectacle of a new monarch confronted at his first step toward the throne with the absolute certainty that his days of life are few, assuring his people of his devotion to their interests and determination to preserve the peace of the country, regardless of his own pitiable condition, must excite the compassion of the world."

Prince William, of Germany, is said to be an unflinching cub. The Prince of Wales gave him a lecture as to his treatment of his mother who had complained to her brother of him. He took it in bad grace. He is said to have no liking for his English kin.

Speaker Carlisle, the Democratic Speaker almost without a peer, is a very naughty fellow among the so-called Democratic Protection papers.

The Augusta Chronicle talks glibly of the "Speaker's ring" and rejoices how he met with "two defeats in one day" and was "snowed under in the House."

A NEW VOLUME.

The DAILY STAR enters upon another volume to-day. When completed the STAR will be of age—twenty-one years old. It is now 20 years and a half old. It is very pleasant to us to be able to say that its circulation is larger than at any former period.

FAYETTEVILLE.

Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad—Work on the Line to Fayetteville—A New Cotton Mill—A Silk Factory—J. M. Stedman for Governor—Improvements in the Upper Cape Fear—Severe Storm, etc.

FAYETTEVILLE, March 21.—To-day the engineer corps of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad commenced work on the line between Fayetteville and Wilmington. Last week G. M. Rose, attorney for the company, went to Washington City, and obtained the right of way from the Government over the Cape Fear, Northeast and Black rivers. The building of the road to the coast is now as nearly certain as you can make it prior to the accomplished fact—and so, with it, are the increased wealth, population and commercial prosperity of Wilmington.
