- Our enterprising evening contemporary, the Review, appeared yes terday with a handsome picture of our public building, as at present planned. It was printed from a cut furnished by Hon. C. W. McClammy. We trust our contemporary will have the pleasure of presenting to its read ers a still larger, handsomer and cost lier building, as the appropriation for Wilmington ought to be considerably increased.

The State National Bank.

A prominent capitalist in Raleigh writing to a friend in this city, says: "The closing of the State National Bank is a great calamity, and will hurt one way or another a great many people. It is like all other things and will pass over and soon be forgotten. There is no disposition to 'run' on any other bank and everything is getting on quietly." The News and Observer of Thursday says that the losses of the State and county are light. That of the State is estimated at $16,000 and that of the county of Wake at about $10,-000. Among the stockholders who will lose heavily are Mrs. J. G. Williams, Capt. E. R. Stamps and Mr. W. S. Primrose.

Col. Tate, the bank examiner, say that the affairs are in a bad tangle and it will take time to straighten them out, but it is his firm belief that the bank will eventually be able to pay all, its depositors in full. He is also represented as saying that he believed every depositor and creditor of the bank would be paid probably as much as seventy-five cents on the dollar.

The fact has come to light that the defaulting officers some time ago made false reports of the condition of the bank, and it is thought that the B. A. Goodridge, at $1 a year. Southern Vegetables. The following were the New York prices of southern vegetables on the 28th: Asparagus, 25@50 cents; cabme, $2.00@$4.00 per barrel; kale. and Passenger Agent of the Atlantic $1.25@$1.50 per barrel; string beans, $1.00@$3.00 per crate; tomatoes, $2.00 @$3.50 per large crate; beets, $1.25@ $1.60 per crate; spinach, $3.00@$3.50 per barrel; peas, $3.00 per crate for best quality. Most of these vegetables are from Florida, though Charleston furnishes the asparagus and Nor- and accurate compiler of cotton stafolk the kale.

THE TABERNACLE.

Large Congregation at the Meetings Yesterday-Rev. Mr. Pearson's Discourses.

At the Tabernacle yesterday morning an unusually large audience assembled to hear Mr. Pearson's Bible reading on the "Forgiveness of our Enemies." After the singing of two hymns and a prayer, he announced three questions which he proposed to answer from God's word :

1st-"What is required of us conserning our enemies?" Matt. v: 23, 24-We must be reconciled. Titus iii: 2-We are to speak no evil of them.

Rom. xii: 20-We must feed our en-

Matt. v: 44-We must pray for Matt. v: 44-We must love them. Christianity is the only religion in the world that commands this, and the only one that enables us to do it Not their ways, but their souls. 2d.-Why does God require all these things? Matt. v: 23, 24.-That our prayers may not be hindered.

Mark xi: 26-In order that we may ourselves be forgiven. Matt. v: 7.-That we ourselves may obtain mercy. Matt. v: 45-That we may be, and 3d.-Have we an example of these? Luke xxiii: 34-Jesus an example He requires nothing of us that He has not Himself exemplified.

Gal. ii: 20-Saul was a bitter enemy of Jesus, but he was forgiven. Col. ii: 13-Christ forgave you freely and forever. We must forgive as He Matt. viii: 35-We must forgive from

When Mr. Pearson had finished Mr. Hoge stated that he had felt indignant towards those who were circulating damaging reports concerning Mr. Pearson and the ministers engaged in the meeting, but now he wanted to offer a special prayer for them, which he did. Mr. Pearson then said, in justice to himself and the Master, he wanted to say that all the correspondence, in arranging for his coming, was done with Dr. Pritchard, representing the pastors, and money was never mentioned, or in any way alluded to which fact he called on Dr. Pritchard to substantiate. He had had these reports to contend with in other places, and said he defied any one to prove that he ever made a contract or mentioned any money conditions when arranging for a meeting since he had been in the evangelistic work, -seven years. He receives none but voluntary contributions, nor would he have any other. Last night, notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, the usual large audience assembled and the house was comfortably filled. Preliminary services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Pritchard, assisted in prayer by the Rev. Mr. Abernathy, of Mt. Olive. By request of the Committee on Arrangement, it was thought proper that an occasional collection should be taken for the purpose of defraying the expenses incurred in fitting up the Tabernacle, &c., as it was thought the amount could thus be raised without asking large contributions from any one person; and judging from the ready response given it will not be necessary to repeat this often.

After taking up the collection, and singing a hymn, Mr. Pearson came forward, and after a prayer announced as his text, "The way of the transgressor is hard." In a foreible and impressive manner, he showed that the transgressor's way, was, indeed, a hard one. Much harder than the way of righteousness. 1st. It is hard to quit; the sinner underates his enemy and over-rates himself. Man is a creature of habits, the gratification of his inclinations results in the weakening of his will power. 2d. It is harder to continue. 3d. It is the hardest of all ways.

A larger number of anxious enquirers than on any previous evening remained to the inquiry meeting after services. There were about fortyfive conversions reported, and a good many more renewing their covenant with God.

The interest in these meetings is growing larger every day. Statistician of the New York Cotton

Exchange. Mr. Alfred B. Shepperson has been appointed statistician of the New York Cotton Exchange. The President of the Exchange in announcing the appointment says that "as the National Cotton Exchange has been given up, it is wise and proper that the figures of the cotton movement should be compiled, supervised and published by one of the exchanges and not left entirely to private enterprise, no matter how honorable and efficient that may be."

The New York Cotton Exchange has made a judicious selection in appoint Mr. Shepperson statistician. He believes in "facts" and is an able Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for to-day, received at 1 a. m.: For North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Eastern Florida, light to fresh westerly winds, becoming variable, warmer fair weather.

An Opportunity for Wilmington Eqterprise.

The fact that a prominent civil engineer of this State has been engaged to survey the route of the proposed new railroad from Weldon to Charlotte, which road will traverse the counties of Mecklenburg, Cabarrus, Stanly, Montgomery, Moore, Chatham, Durham, Orange, Randolph, Wake, Franklin, Halifax and Northampton, should arrest the attention of the business men of Wilmington.

In a recent issue the STAR published an article on the subject from a prominent gentleman of the Pee Dee section. He showed that Wilmington's opportunity was to use the same exertions for our seaport as have been employed by Charlotte business men for Virginia's seaport, to construct a road from Rockingham through Richmond, Stanly and Rowan counties to Salisbury, and we would procure for the citizens of these counties a nearer outlet to the ocean for their products, while Wilmington would add immensely to her commercial prosperity. This matter should claim the immediate and active attention of those of our citizens who take the lead in building up Wilmington.

Why should Norfolk have a new feeder clear across the Piedmont section of North Carolina when efforts on the part of Wilmington might result in turning the trade of Stanly, Montgomery, Richmond and Rowan counties and the rich yalleys of the Pee Dee river to our seaport?

Our citizens should inform themselves on this question and act promptly in the matter. Refer to a map of North Carolina, and you can then properly estimate the value to Wilmington of a railroad from Rockingham to Salisbury.

Collector Robinson was notified yesterday by Mr. Weeks, Custom House Inspector at Southport, that pilots report that red buoy No. 2 and the black buoy on the bar at the mouth of the Cape Fear river have broken adrift and disappeared. The Collector has notified the proper authorities of the disappearance of the buoys.

Death of an Aged Lady. Mrs. Elizabeth Davage Whitehead relict of the late Capt. Wm. B. Whitehead, died yesterday afternoon at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. W. T. Daggett, in her eighty-eighth year. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock from St. James' Church; interment in Oakdale Ceme-

The Encampment. Col. W. C. Jones telegraphed to Adjutant General Johnstone Jones yesterday that he has been able to secure reduced rates over the different railroads for the military attending the encampment of the State Guard. The rate is fixed at two-thirds of a cent a mile both ways on all the roads.
