THE TABERNACLE.

Rev. Mr. Pearson's Address to the Business Men-His Sermon Last Night.

The Tabernacle presented an unusual sight yesterday morning. The two middle tiers of seats were reserved for gentlemen and they were filled, while the remaining seats were occupied by ladies.

The services were opened by singing the hymn "Lord I care not for riches," followed by prayer by Mr. Pearson. He then announced his text-Mat. vi: 19, 20, 21. Especially the words "Lay not up treasure for yourselves." There are, he said, two mistaken ideas among men. First that there is virtue in poverty, and second, that there is sin in wealth. Abraham, the father of the Faithful. and Job; were rich men. There is danger in riches-it is hard to be rich and spiritual. Some people think they must have all religion and no business; others all business and no religion. These are both errors. God says "not slothful in business," and at the same time "fervent in spirit." Business and religion must be united. Carry your business into your religion and your religion into your business. Show the world you can glorify God in your religion and business. The business man who does this wields a powerful influence. "The earth is the Lord's," and our . talents, whether to preach or make money, are the Lord's, and we owe it to Him to use them for His glory. The preacher cannot push God's work without money. Before the ceremonial law was given Abraham instituted the rule of giving onetenth to the Lord, and we ought still to observe it. If God's people would do this there would be no necessity for bazaars, festivals, etc., to raise blessed in it. "Why not lay up treasure here?" Let God's Word answer.

money for religious purposes. He practices what he preaches and is

1. Because they are very liable to make you forget God-Luke xii: 19 to 21: This man was not a bad man; he was a first class business man, but the devil got him so occupied making money that he forgot to pray or prepare to meet God. So, any man who is laying up riches for himself alone.

2. Because they are liable to make you reject God-Matt. xix: 21. When the issue is made, when we must decide between riches and God, if we love the gold most it costs us our souls. A rich man is a popular man; all avenues of pleasure are open to him, and when you talk to him of self-denial, which is one of the first principles of Christianity, he wont listen to you. All pastors say rich men are hardest to reach. Their hearts are surfeited with the things of this world.

3. They choke God's word.-Matt. xiii: 22. Mr. Pearson said he had s high regard for the business men of Wilmington; but must speak plainly to them. "You, who are church members, who are members of corporations that make their employes work on Sunday, are choking God's word. Christian men must lead in this matter. Don't rent your houses for liquor saloons and houses of illfame; better starve than make your meat and bread by dishonoring God." 4. They endanger Heaven.-Matt. xix: 28. It is no sin to be rich; but riches tend to supplant God, and there is the danger.

5. They eften drown men in perdition-1st Tim. vi: 9 and 10. Your State, he said, is now sitting in chagrin over two men who would be rich, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

Young men, resolve "I'll make an honest living by honest methods, so help me God."

6. They fade away-James i: 11. As the sun melts the snow, so riches fade. Men roll up bank accounts as boys roll up snow balls, but the snn of Righteeusness will melt them some day. Many families who some years ago were rich, are now among the poorest. It is a mistake to lay up riches for children. Teach your boys economy, business principles, courage and self-reliance, and they will make a living. A man who has made no money don't know how to keep it. A boy who has a good business education will make money, and one who has not does not know how to manage a fortune left to him. Teach your girls what a true man is-with heart, and soul, and high integrity-and teach them the worth of such an one as a husband, though he be a poor man. Teach them common sense instead of making butterflies of them. Many a man of low principles, with fair exterior, is looking for a girl possessed of a fortune, and she finds all too late that life is wrecked.

wrath.-Prov. xi: 14. If you bend all your energies here to the accumulation of wealth, what can it profit you in the day of judgment? You must die; therefore, let your treasure precede you.

9. They rust and canker.-James vi: 1 to 3. Canker and rust indicate want of use. Let the outflow be in proportion to the income. God gives us ample opportunity to use it. The way you have laid it up will make it rust. If you employ labor, pay the worth of it. God will avenge the oppression that gives a poor woman thirty cents per dozen for making shirts. And to the ladies-"Your garments are moth eaten," applies to you. You must have a new dress for every ball, and oppress the poor dressmaker who makes it; several new dresses assedson, and bonnets to match, until they accumulate and > ndulgence. 10. "Thou, oh man of God! flee these things." 1st Tim. vi: 11.

He then asked those who intended, by God's help to do this, to rise to their feet, and almost, if not quite all, in the vast audience did so. It was a scene long to be remembered. EVENING SERVICE.

At 7.30 p. m. the preliminary exersises were opened by Rev. D. H. Tuttle, who announced hymn No. 48-"Saviour more than life to me." Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Phillips, of Fayetteville, N. C. The congregation sang two stanzas of hymn No. 22-"I will sing of my Redeemer." A collection was then taken for incidental expenses, and requests for prayer were read.

Long before the appointed hour the house was filled to overflowing. As usual, Mr. Pearson came on the platform at the moment appointed and made some announcements: That at 11 a. m. to-day he would give a Bible reading on pure religion, etc. He then offered one of those simple, earnest, child-like prayers for which he is noted, and announced for his text: St. John, 3d chapter, 14th and 15th verses—"And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up."

In discussing this subject he said, "I'll give three facts-I am a stickler for facts:" 1st fact: The Israelites were bitten with a fiery serpent. Num. 21:6. The parallel fact: Mankind bitten by that old serpent, the devil.-Gen 3:13. Is it a fact that mankink inherits a sinful nature from Adam and Eve? Gen. 6: 5. Was this also true atter the flood? Yes. See Isaiah 58:6; Jer. 9:17. Is this doctrine taught in the New Testament? I answer yes. See Matt. 15:19. Then, dear friends, you must accept the doctrine of human depravity. 'Tis a self-evident truth. The columns of our daily papers teach us this doctrine when they tell us of forgeries, mur-

Second great fact: That the brazen serpent lifted up in the wilderness was the remedy for all those bitten by the fiery serpent. They had only to accept God's provision for their Second great parallel fact: That Jesus Christ was lifted up on the cross as God's remedy for sin-John iii: 14 to 16, Acts iv: 12, 1st Cor. iii: 11. The remedy is all sufficient of and by itself. The sinner need add nothing to it-only accept Christ. Every man, from Abel down to this day, who has accepted Christ has been saved; those who have rejected Christ have been

Third fact: That a look at that brazen serpent was the condition of a cure-Num. xxi: 9. The third parallel fact is that a look at Jesus as the crueified one is the condition of Salvation-Gal. iii: 26; Rom. iv: 5; Acta viii: 28, 89.

His interpretation and application of these texts was so clear, so simple, so plain, that a child could have grasped his every thought. Mr. Pearson closed with the question, 'will you look to Jesus to-night?"

In the inquiry room, there was great interest and fifty-two professed conversion.

The State Guard Encampment.

The Charlotte Observer, in speaking of the encampment to be held at Wrightsville this summer, says:

It is highly gratifying to the friends of our citizen soldiery to learn that the approaching encampment bids fair to be one of the biggest affairs ever held in this State. Those in charge of the matter are doing all that can be done to render the encampment not only instructing but pleasant as well. The irailroads centering at Wilmington will give reduced rates during the encampment, and Wilmington will put on her holi-day attire for the occasion. It will be a big thing for all concerned, whether going as citizen or soldier. The well known hospitality of the 7. They satisfy not.—Eccl. iii: 10 to 13. Riches cannot satisfy heart, conscience or our physical nature. Vanderbilt wished he could eat one "square meal," and sleep one night. Mrs. A. T. Stewart had a $7,000 cook, but her diet was milk and bread. Why compromise heaven for such a thing?

8. They profit not in the day of the well khown hospitality of the Wilmington people is a sufficient guarantee that they will cooperate with the military authorities in making the brave soldier boys comfortable. Having seen some service at and around the city by the sea, this local proposes, Providence and the weather permitting, to make the "grand rounds" at least once during the encampment, and run the blockade a few times just for the sake of old times. Visitors in the City.

Thirty-two ladies and gentlemen came down from Fayetteville on the steamer Murchison to attend the services at the Tabernacle. They went back on the steamer last night after the close of the evening meeting. The steamer Delta from Clear Run, Sampson county, brought seven passengers, and twelve came up from Southport on the Louise. Besides these a large number of persons came in on the afternoon train from the south from stations on the W., C. & A. R. R. All to attend the Pearson meetings.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—REV SYLVANUS CORE thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbreken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these biessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had inshed with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
