The Pennsylvania Democrats indorse the Mills Tariff bill and Cleveland. Good enough. Ex Gov. John M. Palmer has been nominated for Governor of Illinois by the Democrats. This is a good choice. Illinois Democrats are for Cleveland.

Gladstone is happy. Mr. Evans, Liberal, captured the Tory seat in Southampton and by nearly a thousand majority. A splendid victory ! A most hopeful indication!

hey do say that Col. Waddell did carry down "My Son Oliver" most beautifully and thoroughly in a certain campaign very tenderly remem hered by the said M. S. O.

When J.-P. Newman is elected a Methodist Bishop it is a sure sign that good Bishop timber is very scarce. He is a clerical demagogue and blatherskite with a rare gift of gab. A young lady at Lumberton writes

'I am devoted to the STAR. I admire its pure, moral and religious sentiments. find it a good companion at any time."

Thanks for the good words.

There were but two delegates in the Pennsylvania Democratic Convention who were not in harmony with the great Democratic Tariff reform movement. Randallism is South Carolina had a big bank swindle--Sumter National--last August. Charles E. Bartlett, cashier, departed and has not since been heard from. He only got $80,000. His bondsmen are now being sued.

It is a sad fact that the Methodists in electing Bishops actually resorted to ballot stuffing. So says the New York dailies. This comes of preaching politics. The next thing was to copy low political methods. Do you

Gen. Phil. Sheridan has had a stroke of apoplexy. He will recover. Grant said to us in 1865, that if the United States were to get into a foreign war and one million men were to be put in the field, that he would as soon entrust the command to Sheridan as to any man in America.

Even the Protection Philadelphia Times is plain and clear in its understanding of the declaration of principle by the Pennsylvanian Democracy. It says, and Mr. S. J. Randali will oblige by taking due notice and governing himself accordingly:

"The unequivocal declaration of the Pennsylvania Democrats in favor of the principles of revenue reduction set forth in the President's message and embodied in the pending Tariff bill, puts an end to all equivocation upon this question and removes any remaining doubt of the relations between President Cleveland and his party. It not only determines Mr. Cleveland's renomination, but it equally determines the attitude of the National Convention at St. Louis upon this great leading issue of the

"Mr. Cheerman, thar now."

The Chairman of the Pennsylvania Democratic Convention in his speech said:

"As in the days of Jefferson and Jackson and of Tilden, commanding statesmanship was joined with splendid party leadership and discipline, crowned with enduring victory, so to day our candidate is our Captain. High above the confusion of tongues there is now voice but for one nominee and one platform—the message of last Deember and the nomination of Grover

Exit Randall.

The Republican converts from the Democracy did not figure largely in the recent pow-wow. In advance the Greensboro State said :

"This year the Republicans want simon oure, unadulterated Republican nominaions, and if the machine puts up anything else there will be kicking. There is no such thing now as holding up the pap bottles, and quieting remonstrant party men -and no trades."

The Northwest is demanding reform. Senator Davis, of Minnesota, 18 keeping step to the reform music.

"Up in the Northwest we all believe there should be a speedy and extensive reduction of the tariff

The Democratic bill would probably pass the Senate unless old Jo Brown played the part of Randall.

The New York Star says of the ballot stuffing in the Northern Con-

"The advice we wish to give our Methodist friends is this: If they want to stuff the ballot box at the next Conference, let them go through a little preliminary training under some Republican machine leader in this city. It will take only a short time to make them experts."

It is five and not four years that is the new term of the pastorate in the Northern Methodist Church. An exchange says:

"This change will not be an unmixed plessing to some churches."

But a preacher is not compelled by aw to remain that long.

No doubt by this time the alleged Democrat from Philadelphia via the Republican camp has heard something drop.

A Foundiing. "

John W. Hunter, a colored man living on Campbell street, between Third and Fourth, found a colored male child, supposed to be only a few hours old, on his piazza yesterday morning about 4 o'clock. Hunter took care of the child and during the forencon reported the matter to the county authorities who directed Hunter to take charge of the foundling for the present.

Death of Capt. J. N. Bowden.

Capt. Joseph N. Bowden died suddenly at his mother's residence on Fourth and Princess streets yesterday evening. He was seated at the supper table with the family and being suddenly attacked with ! dizziness, exclaimed that he had vertigo, fell back in his chair and expired.

Capt. Bowden had suffered from Brights disease for two years past and for the last five months had been an invalid. He was the only son of his widowed mother, Mrs. Sarah C. Bowden, who with his two sisters survive him. His father, the late Jesse Bowden, died some years ago.

Capt. Bowden was aged about 45 years. At seventeen he entered the Confederate service as a member of the Wilmington Rifle Guards, Eighteenth N. C. Regiment, and participated in a number of engagements. At the battle of Hanover Court House he was severely wounded, and upon his recovery was transferred to the Heavy Artillery, stationed at Fort Fisher. At the fall of that place, with other of his companions who were taken prisoners he was sent to Fort Elmira, where he remained until the close of the war. Since 1866, Capt. Bowden had been in the service of the W., C. & A. Railroad Company, as passenger conductor, and was highly esteemed as a capable and efficient employe. He was a man of generous impulses and kindly nature, and had many warm friends who will hear of his death with sorrow. He was a member of Grace M. E. Church, and during his long sickness, although always cheerful and hopeful of recovery, ever expressed himself with a trusting faith as resigned to the will of God.

The Bessie. Capt. Doscher's new steamer, to run - At the First Baptist Church | between Wilmington and Southport this Summer, will be under the command of Mr. Geo. M. Crapon as master, Mr. George Pinner first mate, and Mr. A. K. Reynelds engineer. It is thought the boat will be in readiness by the 10th of June to begin her regular schedule.

THE PUBLIC BUILDING.

EDITOR STAR:—As Congress has laid aside the tariff bill to take up the appropriation bills, our people should be doing something to get an appropriation for the public building. I believe it is not generally understood that no appropriation has seen made except that of $50,000 for the purchase of a site, &c., but such is the case, as reference to the acts passed will show. We should have at least $250,000 additional for the building, but we will not get it at the present session of Congress if it is not promptly looked after.

I think there is a committee that was appointed by a public meeting. who have charge of it, and I presume it is not out of order to direct atten tion to the matter.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonic and cries of a suffering child, and becoming con vinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homosopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Beturning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet falled to relieve the haby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. So cents a bottle.
