No one accuses Morton of being very much of a statesman.

Representative Turner, of Ga., thinks Harrison weak. Representative Bynum, of Indiana, Democrat. says: "It is the best nomination the Republicans could have made under the circumstances. Harrison is a clean man, with a good record and fair ability." Representatives Barnes, of Ga., says, Harrison is not a strong man. Dingley, of Maine, Rep., says it is a strong nomination.

"His adoptive father died without a wil and Stanley was thrown upon his own re sources. He enlisted in the Confederate army upon the breaking out of the civil war; was taken prisoner, and upon his release joined the United States navy.'

Senator Butler, of South Carolina: regards the ticket as very weak. So says Senator Hampton. He thinks Harrison the weakest man that the Republicans could have chosen. So appears to be Senator Colquitt's opinion. Senator Beck says: "If we can't beat a weak man like Harrison, we can't beat anybody." Senator Call, Democrat, of Florida, says: "I consider Harrison a weak man. I think Allison is the strongest man the Republicans could have nominated.

The Republican ticket is variously thought of in Washington. The sum of scores of interviews is iven in the Washington Post, now to be classed as an Independent morning paper, What party it will support in the pending campaign is not yet revealed. It says the Republican members of Congress indorse the ticket, while the Democrats think it can be beaten. And so thinks the STAR. Let us all work to beat it, and beat it badly.

The Charleston News and Courier says that the "Harrison coat of arms in the Presidential campaign will be Joss Honse, statant: two Chinese Mandarins rampant upon a field of rice paper. DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

For the Sixth Congressional Bistrict-All the Counties Represented-Hon. Alfred Rowland Renominated-Sam'l J. Pemberton Chosen Elector -The Speeches, Etc.

The Democratic Convention for the Sixth Congressional District assem bled in the Opera House yesterday at noon. There was a large attendance of delegates, who occupied seats assigned them in the parquette while in the galleries were seated a number of interested spectators.

The Convention was called to order by Mr. J. I. Macks in the absence of Mr. J. A. Lockhart, Chairman of the Congressional Committee. Mr. W. H. Neal was made temporary chairman and Mr. Wade H. Harris of Mecklenburg, Mr. E. H. McRae of Maxton, and representatives of the city press were requested to act as secretaries.

The chair appointed the following committees.

Permanent Organization-J J Dunlop, Anson; S J Pemberton, Stanly; W H Harris, Mecklenburg; H C Moffit, Columbus; L M Morrison, Cabarrus; J W McCain, Union; J F Mc-Nair, Richmond; A G Ricaud, New Hanover; A V Goodman, Brunswick; A C Oliver, Robeson.

Credentials-Chas McRae, Robeson; S J Stanley, Brunswick; G H Smith. New Hanover; T L McNair, Richmond; John R Simpson, Union; Jos F Meisenheimer, Cabarrus; H D Williamson, Columbus; H M Wilder, Mecklenburg: J M Brown, Stanly; C M Burns, Auson.

Mr. Walker Meares, of the New Hanover delegation, proceeded to offer a resolution, but was interrupted on a point of order. The Chair decided the point well taken, and the resolution without being read was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

[The resolution related to the present manner of appointing delegates to the Congressional Convention, which it was urged should be altered, especially in the manner of instructing delegates. The committee to whom they were referred reported that in their opinion the Convention had no authority to deal with the subject matter contained in the reso. lution, and the Convention endorsed their report.]

The committee retired for consultation, and for the purpose of preparing their reports. Mr. A. G. Ricaud in behalf of the New Hanover delegation extended an invitation to the Convention to visit Carolina Beach on the steamer Sylvan Grove, at 3 p. m.

The Committee on Permanent Organization reported, recommending that the officers selected for temporary organization be made permanent officers. The Convention adopted the report. The chair stated that if there was no objection the Convention would proceed to elect a Congressional Committee. Anson named J A Lockhart;

Brunswick, George M McKiethan; Cabarrus, Dr R S Young; Columbus, Pearson Ellis; Mecklenburg, F B McDowell; New Hanover, J I Macks; Richmond, W H Neal; Robeson, W S Norment; Stanly, S J Pemberton; Union, H B Adams. At a subsequent meeting of this Committee, Mr. Lockhart was elected chairman and Mr. Neal, secretary.

While waiting for reports from the other committees, Mr. W. S. Morment and Mr. Paul B. Meares were called for and briefly addressed the

The Committee on Credentials reported all the counties represented and no contest from any county, and to save time, at the suggestion of the chair, the report was, on motion, adopted. The chair directed the secretary to call the roll for nominations for a candidate for Congressman.

Anson being called, a delegate announced that that county gave way to Union, and in response Mr. D. A Covington arose and in a graceful and forcible speech nominated Hon Alfred Rowland, of Robeson county, amid the applause of the Convention. At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Covington moved that the nomination be made by acclamation, and the motion was adopted unanimously by a rising vote.

Mr. S. H. Fishblate moved that a committee of three be appointed to notify Col. Rowland of his nomination, and the motion being adopted, the chair appointed Messrs. D. G. Worth of New Hanover, Wm. Black of Robeson, and P. B. Means of Cabarrus as the committee.

On motion of Mr. Worth the chairman of the Convention was made a member of the committee.

The counties were then called for nominations for a candidate for Elector for the Sixth Congressional Dis-

Pemberton then took the platform. He thanked the Convention for the honor conferred upon him, and expressed his pleasure at seeing so much unanimity in this as in all other Democratic conventions, which he thought was a sure sign of victory for the party in November. In accepting the nomination he did so with some misgivings, but he declared his purpose to canvass the district from one end to the other, and from township to township in some counties. He believed that with a thorough canvass North Carolina would give a Democratic majority of thirty thousand in November; and if we did our duty in this campaign the death knell of the Republican party would be sounded.

On the conclusion of Mr. Pemberton's stirring speech which was frequently interrupted with applause, Mr. A. G. Ricaud said that Hon. A. M. Waddell was outside the hall and suggested that he be invited to address the Convention.

There were loud cries for Waddell and as this gentleman entered the hall he was greeted with tumultuous applause. When the din had some what subsided the chair appointed Mr. F. W. Kerchner and Col. Paul B Means to escort Col. Waddell to the platform.

Col. Means presented Col. Waddell to the Convention as one of the Electors for the State at large, and as the champion who had first driven into his hole the Republican leader-Alfred Dockery.

Col. Waddell, after gracefully ac knowledging the compliment paid him, said that he rejoiced to know that the Convention had acted so unanimously in the nomination of Col. Rowland. He took it as a harbinger of the success of the party-as he did the unanimous nomination of Cleveland for the Presidency. But he said, it would not do to underrate the enemy. It is not going to be a walk-over and it was the duty of every Democrat to pull off his coat and work for the success of the ticket. Alluding to Mr. Dockery, he said that he had no doubt that Judge Fowle was fully able to take care of him. As for himself, he would al ways hold himself ready, and would make a thorough canvass of the State if sustained by the Executive Committee. Col. Waddell was warmly applauded throughout his speech and

The Committee on Resolutions through their chairman, M. Bellamy Esq., submitted their report as fol

The Democrats of the Sixth Conressional District, assembled in convention, heartily endorse the re nomination of Grover Cleveland for resident, and the nomination o Allen G. Thurman for Vice President of the United States, and review with much gratification and satisfaction the work and policy of President Cleveland's administration, which invites the closest scrutiny concerning its fidelity and devetion to the pledges which four years ago involved the suffrages of the people, and the trusts then committed to the Democratic party by the election of that statesman and patriot.

We also hail with pleasure the nomination of Daniel G. Fowle for Governor and of Thomas M. Holt for Lieutenant Gevernor, together with the rest of the Democratic State ticket, and pledge each and all our mos hearty and zealous support.

That we reaffirm the principles enunciated in the platforms adopted by the Convention at St. Louis and the State Convention at Raleigh. This Convention warmly endorses the course of the Hon. Alfred Row-land, member of Congress from this District, who has this day been unan-imously renominated for a second term, and pledge the cordial support of the Democracy of the Sixth Con-gressional District. The report of the committee was apopted, and after a vote of thanks to the officers of the Convention, and to the New Hanover delegation for courtesies extended, the Convention on motion, adjourned sine die. Hurrah for Ransom. In the U.S. Senate yesterday

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—Rev Sylvanus Coas thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbreken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething slegs, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. So cents a bottle.
