State Democratic Ticket,

For State Treasurer : DONALD W. BAIN, of Wake County.

duce it to 20 per cent. He was the father of the so-called "American System" of Protection. Democrats who propose to so reduce the Tariff as to leave it at 40 per cent .- twice as high as the Clay Tariff of 1833 proposed, are called by the lying demagogues Free Traders.

Here is a table that may be found useful. It gives the present tax on certain articles and the proposed reduction:

1	Schedule. Pr	esent.	Ргоро
ġ.	Chemicals	89.84	22.4
3	Earthenware, glassware	65.96	49.2
1	Metals.	52 85	48.1
1	Wood and woodenware	84.60	29.2
3	Sugar	82.04	65.6
	Tobacco		- 88.0
	Provisions	52.89	42.6
H	Cotton manufactures	50,90	40.0
8	Hemp, jute and flax goods		24.0
	Wool and woollens	68.92	89.8
Ľ,	Books, papers, etc	24.40	18 1
	Sundries	44.48	84.7
2	Average of all	65.98	48 8

It will be seen that the Republican schedule is enormous on the articles classified. An average of 65,93 per cent. The Mills bill proposes to reduce these articles, but to leave them still at the average of 48.30 per cent. It is well to remind the reader that in 1882 the Republicans appointed a Tariff Commission. You will remember it. It travelled all around. It had free interviews all over the land. Now what did this REPUBLI-CAN COMMISSION Say in 1882, six years ago? It declared, and remember who it is that speaks, that "no rate of defensive duties * * * which more than equalize the condi tion of labor and capital with those of foreign competition can be justified. Excessive duties, or those above such standard of equalization, are positively injurious to the interests which they are supposed to benefit."

BARBISON AND THE CHINESE. Gen. Harrison 18 in a rather bad fix. He fought the legislation in the Senate to keep out the "Heathen Chinee." That may have been good or bad, but that is not the point. He fought it and was on the side of the Mongolian. And his platform-the Monopolists' platform-the Chicago platform is square the other way. It says:

Mason (Ga.) Telegraph, We heard this old ingrate defame and denounce Horace Greeley in 1872, m a public speech at Raleigh. He warned his negro auditors sgannet him, said he would not do to trust, and a good deal more in the same line. And yet . this ungrateful and treacherous old humbug declared in the same speech that Horace Greeley was the best friend he ever had in his life. He is the old chap that married a woman unfortunately born with a white skin.

Ingalls wrote a letter which evidently must annoy him. He did not intend it for the public eye, but the p. e. is on it all the same. In the letter he was rash enough to say with Ingallian point that the Republicans "might as well nominate Gould or Vanderbilt at once as Depew," to which was added the explanatory remark that "connections with rail roads or corporations would be a heavy load" for a candidate to carry. Well, will not this objection lie with equal force against Morton ? It is most evident now that the nominations at Chicago and the villainous platform of robbery have fallen like a bucket of cold water upon the country. There is no sort of enthusiasm, except that the Chinese are reported to be shouting happy in California. They are throwing their Pigeon English most wildly and enthusiastically in praise of their Chinese friend in Indiana.

The North seems to be in a belig erent mood. At least that part so seems that answers to the bugie blast of Blaine, Sherman, Foraker, and the other haters and fire-eaters after the war is over. A gentleman from Georgia by the name of John U. Shorter has "fired the Northern heart." He was in the Confederate army, is a man of high personal worth, 18 Assistant District Attorney of Brooklyn, and is a Democrat. His offence is that he paid $10 and became an associate member of George man at whose hands he received this favor." | chusetts when it attacks the reactionary tariff policy and declares that Cleveland's strength with the people is a fact to be reckoned with. The Illinois papers receive the nomus-tions coldly and in California the best that can be said for Harrison is that perhaps he has changed his opinions. Against all this chill the senseless gush of a few Blaine organs does not count for much. Gush will be of little value in this campaign. Philadelphia North American, Rep

> But there will be no personal assailing of Harrison by the Democratic managers, or no assaults upon his character and public life that selfrespecting men will publicly countenance. There is good ground for believing that the canvaes, though vigorous and earnest, will not he disfigured by gross personalities. Neither party can gain a vote in that way. The parties have presented men peronally unobjectionable,

> > N. Y. Herald, Independent

Don't let us begin with campaign nonsense. Mr. Harrison is the representative of high taxes and low wages; of free whiskey and dear blankets; of a tariff system which is called "protention" because it protects the rich employers and enables them to out down the wages of their work people, and, if these strike, to import Italian and other cheap for-cigu labor to take the place of those who strike for living pay. That's the reason why workingmen ought to vote against Harrison and protection to monopolies and corporations, and for Cleveland, free raw materials and living wages. Harper's Weekly, Ind. Rep.

As the representative of the plat form which we describe elsewhere. no friend of a reduction of the sur plus by moderating the tariff tax upon the necessaries of life and raw materials could support General Harriion, unless he feared some grave per il from the success of Mr. Cleveland. This is an apprehension, however, which, although strong and natural in 1884, has now disappeared. Mr. Cleveland made his own platform in his message, and there has been nothing in his Administration which has alarmed the business interests of the country. General Harrison appears in the canvase as the representative of high and higher protection, of free whiskey and tobacco, r than of a lighter duty upon any of articles produced in this cou In other words, he is for an av tariff tax of 47 per cent. inste clarss for Cleveland and Thurman itorial in N. Y. Times, Ind, Rep. For the working ont of the reforms which the Times believes to be the chief manes of our politics the Democratic party, with its present candidates, is the "better instrument," to use Mr. Tilden's expression. Its candidates are incompar ably superior to those of the Republicane, and the announcement of pur poses with which it enters the conest is more satisfactory, and in re spect to the dominant issue is firmly when the other is hopelessly wrong. As regards oivil service re-form, though we have had occasion to criticise the present Administra tion for some of its errors, and failares, we have greater confidence in Mr. Claveland's encerity and fidelity than in the written professions of a party whose leaders are unable to speak of the reform without a sneer. The Tones will give Cleveland and Thurman its hearty support, and will do what has in its power, and it is not commonly an inactive newspaper in a Presidential contest, to make their majority such that there will be no doubt about it the morning after election,

RIGH TAXES AND REPUBLICAN "CHEEK."

Let it be emphasized and repeated that the Mills Tariff is a very High Tariff. It only proposes to reduce the Republican War Tariff 7 per cent., leaving it 40 per cent. Now mark.

The Morrill (Republican) Tariff of 1861, was only 25 per cent. That at the beginning of a great war. Note that.

In 1886, the year after the war, the Tariff was raised to 40 per cent. The Mills bill proposes to leave it at that high figure for the present. And yet unblushing demagogues have the hardshood to call a 40 per cent. grinding War Tariff a Free Trade measure. It is no wonder that Falstaff exclaimed-"Lord, lord, how this world is given to lying!" It is monumental lying to call a great War 40 per cent. Tariff a Free Trade measure.

The Republicans raised their War Tariff to 40 per cent, the year after the war had ended, making it higher than in time of actual war. In 1874 they, the Republicans, had actually reduced it 2 per cent. But by 1883 they had got it up to the startling figures of 44,51 per cent. or 441 per cent. But this was not enough. They must have it higher still. So in 1887 they have got it to 47 per cent. on thousands of articles, a great many of which are prime necessaries of life.

To cut down this abominable, this unconstitutional, this grinding, this unjust, this unequal Tariff to what it was in 1866, and 2 per cent. high

"We declare our hostility to the introduc tion into this country of foreign contract labor and of Chinese labor, alien to our civ-ilization and our constitution; and we demand the rigid enforcement of the existing laws against it, and favor such immediate legislation as will exclude such labor from our shores.

That is a very knotty plank fo him. He will have a rough time as he pirouettes on that plank. So op posed is the Republican candidate to the deliverance of the platform of Monopoly that he spoke against it, worked against it in the Senate. We find the following in the Augusta Chronicle, a High Protection exponent:

"'He took,' as the Rev. Dr. Bartlett and other prominent Republicans of Indianap-ols testify, 'the most radical position on the subject, and argued that there would be precisely as much justice and propriety in excluding the Germans and Irish as in excluding the Chinese. He criticised in the strongest manner the action and sentiments of the people of the Pacific slope in their opposition to the influx of the Orientals.' He said he 'was in favor of admitting the Chinese, and he took the broad ground that America should extend to them a welcome hand, and that humanity demanded that they should be allowed to come under our benign civilization.' This is in flat contra-diction to every principle of the Chinese plank of the Republican platform."

Judge Thurman has a record the very opposite. When the Pacific States come to consider the records which will they choose, think you?

The Philadelphia Telegraph, an able Republican paper, before the nominations at Chicago had a fair, sensible, truthful editorial on the Tariff. We propose to copy a part. It shows how, an enlightened and progressive Republican views a great economic question when it cuts loose from the old party ruts and seeks the truth and the greatest good to the greatest number. It said:

"A reduced tariff is not free trade, is nothing like free trade, and it is a reduced tariff which the country wants. The Re-publican party fully recognized that want in 1884, and it cannot with safety refuse to recognize it now, as in four years the common demand for it has enormously grown. The free trade spirit has not grown at all; but the wish for lower duties grown at all; but the wish for lower duties grows daily, and largely because of the generally perceived fact that excessive du-ties are enabling a comparatively small class to monopolize the control, fix the prices of the necessaries of life, and to levy a tribute upon the whole people. For four years the Republican party has refused to fulfill its pledge made to the country to revise the tariff and reduce the surplus."

Ricard Post, No. 362. This fact has stirred up the bile and bitterness of the South haters and Mr. Shorter is denounced as "a traitor," "a spy," "a rebel" and so on. Mr. Shorter is evidently in bad company. Get out quickly. The N. Y. Tribune is toot-ing over the outrage, do.

It is known that the late Lord Beaconsfield was a great plagiarist. He stole epigrams and even long passages from speeches. American Notes and Queries has been tracking one of his clever things in "Endymion." He wrote:

"'As for that," said Waldersharc, 'sensi-ble men are all of the same religion.' 'And pray what is that?' inquired the prince. 'Sensible men never tell.'"

This was stolen word for word from the first Earl Shaftsbury, as recorded in Bishop Burnett's "History of My Own Times."

The London Athenaum does not ike Mr. flenry James as a critic. It damns his recent book, "Partial Portraits," with the faintest of praise. But this is unjust, for Mr. James, as a critic, will measure up with the very best of living English critics. There is no doubt of this. The Boston Post reminds the London weekly of what it said of James's "French Poets and Novelists." It quotes it saying:

"There has of late years appeared nothing upon French literature so intelligent as this book."
