THE MORNING STAR

VOL. XLII.—NO. 107.

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 26, 1888.

WHOLE NO. 6812

THE CITY. CAMP PENDER.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. A. SHRIEN—Summer clothing.

Local Notes. — Visitors to Carolina Beach say there was no rain there yesterday.

— There will be an extra train on the Seacoast railroad to-day, leaving the city about 11 o'clock.

— Capt. Walter Coney, a former citizen of Wilmington and now of Savannah, is in the city on a short visit.

— About five hundred persons went down yesterday to Carolina Beach on the Sylvan Grove, and spent a delightful day.

— Umbrellas or no umbrellas, the veterans marched bravely through the rain yesterday, but it doesn't hurt a vet to get a little wet.

— The Reidville Light Infantry, Capt. Ellington, came up from the Encampment last night, and will leave for home this morning.

— Bladen street M. E. Church will give an excursion to-day on the Sylvan Grove to Carolina Beach. The ladies will offer refreshments for sale on board the boat.

— There were 170 veterans in the parade yesterday, and, as Capt. Bulla of the Lock's Creek militia said of his company, "there's plenty more of 'em in and around town."

— Deputy Sheriff Elder left yesterday morning for Raleigh with the prisoners sentenced at the last term of the Criminal Court to imprisonment in the penitentiary.

— The excursion of Unity Tent, No. 60, Independent Order Rechabites, takes place to-day on the Queen of St. Johns. There will be music and refreshments on board the boat.

— The temperature in this District, as reported by the Signal Service last night, ranged from 89 degrees (the lowest) at Wilmington and Raleigh, to 97 at Cheraw. The average was 92 degrees.

— We received a dispatch yesterday from Baltimore from a well-known Confederate Colonel, authorizing us to subscribe one hundred dollars for him "should the Veterans or State Guard take action in behalf of a Soldier's Home." We have heard of no such movement, but why not start the ball with this?

— The Piedmont Air Line, of the Richmond and Danville connection, advertises double daily trains, with through Pullman palace cars, to all summer resorts in Western North Carolina. Tickets for sale at all stations on roads connecting with the Richmond and Danville system. Fuller information will be given by W. A. Turk, D. P. A., Raleigh, N. C.

— The Crescent Opera Company gave a concert last night at Manning's pavilion, Wrightsville Sound, assisted by Messrs. Manning, Smith, Mitchell and Welch, who are among our best local talent. The programme presented was a delightful one, and the large crowd who attended were much pleased with the performance.

— Mr. D. J. McMillan, of South Washington, Pender county, seems to have solved the problem as to profitable fruit culture in this section of North Carolina. He expects to add 10,000 trees to his present large orchards next fall, and is enlarging his whole business every year. He has received this season for peaches $1.50 to $5.75 per crate of 24 quarts.

The Fire on Water Street. Mr. Jas. A. Springer estimates the loss by the fire at his coal and wood yard early yesterday morning at from $600 to $800. It is fully covered by insurance with Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor, in the Lancashire Company. Besides the shed and stables, a lot of harness, thirty or forty thousand shingles and a few cords of wood were destroyed. There is suspicion that the fire was of incendiary origin, although it is possible that it may have originated from the furnace of the engine.

Local Notes. Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., had an initiation and conferred the Second Degree last night in honor of a visit from Past Grand Master W. A. Bobbitt who, on the request of Noble Grand Oscar Pearsall, presided in the work. There were a great many visiting brethren from different parts of the State and quite a pleasant time was had.

The following are the indications, for to-day: For Virginia and North Carolina, fair, preceded by local rains on coast, slightly warmer, followed Thursday night by stationary temperature and variable winds.

By command BRIG. GEN. JONES, Adj't Gen. N. C. Commanding. W. N. HARRISS, 1st Lt. and A. A. G.

These orders, with a request from Gen. Jones to the Governor, inviting him to be present at the appointed time, were hurriedly forwarded.

Just after General Orders No 16 had been issued the following was quickly formulated and sent out:

HEADQUARTERS N. C. STATE GUARD, CAMP PENDER, WRIGHTSVILLE, JULY 25, '88. GENERAL ORDERS NO. 17.

The Governor and Commander-in-Chief desires to express to the State Guard, at Camp Pender, his high appreciation of their conduct while in camp, which has made this tour of duty not only the most pleasant but the most profitable in the history of the organization.

During the forenoon there was a shooting match at the Hummocks, by teams from the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, Lumber Bridge Light Infantry, Wilmington Light Infantry and Maxton Rifles, all of the Second Regiment, under the supervision of Col. W. L. DeRosset.

The prize was presented to the Fayetteville Light Infantry by Lieut. Gov. Stedman, with appropriate remarks. Sergt. Pemberton, also of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, won the individual prize.

The appetite for amusement among the boys was only sharpened by the shooting match, and soon a competitive drill was arranged, composed of the following representatives: W. R. Morrison, Co. C, 2d regiment; H. T. Bryan, Co. A, 1st regiment; J. L. Renn, Co. I, 3d regiment; Will Coley, Co. A, 2d regiment; Frank Landis, Co. C, 3d regiment; W. S. Lanier, Co. E, 3d regiment; W. J. Atkins, Co. F, 4th regiment; S. T. Hooker, Co. B, 1st regiment; J. S. Burch, Co. D, 3d regiment; R. S. Edwards, Co. B, 4th regiment; H. L. Tomlinson, Co. A, 4th regiment; F. H. MacMaster, Co. C, 1st regiment; T. J. Mann, Co. E, 1st regiment; W. C. McDuffie, Jr., Co. A, 2d regiment; Preston Stevens, Co. F, 2d regiment.

The squad, numbering fifteen men, marched to the parade ground. Such a dense throng followed and crowded around them that a guard had to be called in order to clear a space large enough to enable them to have room for the interesting occurrence. The judges were Capt. Anthony, of the Scotland Neck Mounted Riflemen; Capt. Robertson, of Co. E, Fourth Regiment; Capt. A. L. Smith, Assistant Inspector General.

As soon as the guards had cleared sufficient space, the drill began. All of them stuck together manfully for awhile, but soon began to drop on errors, until only eight or ten were left. In the commands that followed, the drill was won by Mr. W. R. Morrison, who claimed that the word "squad" must be used in every command when drilling as a squad, which was allowed.

Three cheers was given with a hearty good will by all the boys of the Second Regiment. "Will" was taken upon the shoulders of some of the Second's boys and carried triumphantly to their quarters.

During the progress of the morning's drill a sham battle was participated in by the companies of the Third and Fourth Regiments. The engagement was one of the most exciting scenes of the entire encampment and some of the old veterans were in their glory.

The younger ones stood their grounds, however, and showed that there is true mettle among the young men of our State Guard, who would bravely lay down their lives in defence of their country.

All during the afternoon, and up to the assembly for the Governor's review, everybody at headquarters was busy preparing orders for the evening ceremonies; shortly after 3 o'clock the following orders were issued:

HEADQUARTERS N. C. STATE GUARD, CAMP PENDER, WRIGHTSVILLE, N. C., JULY 25, 1888. GENERAL ORDERS NO. 16.

I. Drill will be suspended this afternoon.

II. The troops will form in fall dress on the parade ground at 5.40 p. m.

III. The Confederate Veterans' Association will be received at 6 p. m.

by providing for us a place of permanent encampment, the advantages of which are manifold, both to the Guard and the State.

To the Guard because of sanitary conveniences and provisions which a temporary encampment cannot furnish, because of the proper and suitable drill grounds, which would be a material requisite in locating the site, and which could not so easily be obtained by moving the encampment from place to place.

To the State, because of the economy in the continued use of those improvements which are necessary to be made for a single encampment; because of the advantage to be derived from the appropriation of the National Government in the event the site is located on the seacoast, and of the advantages to the State in enabling her to have a thoroughly equipped and disciplined soldiery of true patriots to defend her in any emergency, and to protect and defend from any injury which might be attempted upon her rights and interests.

To that end, we respectfully pray that your honorable body make an adequate appropriation for the purpose of purchasing or leasing such site as the Governor and his staff may select.

Respectfully submitted, WM. J. GRIFFIN, Chairman. W. F. CAMPBELL, W. A. BOBBITT, T. R. ROBERTSON, C. A. COOK, Committee.

THE CONFEDERATE VETERANS. The gathering of Confederate veterans yesterday afternoon to visit the Encampment at Wrightsville was a notable affair.

In answer to the call made a day or two ago about one hundred and fifty assembled at The Orton, and forming under the command of Col. W. L. DeRosset, headed by the cornet band, marched to the depot on Front street. There they took the train that was in waiting for them and were soon speeding on their way to Wrightsville.

They marched under the national colors and carried besides an old Confederate battle-flag. On arriving at Atlantic View their ranks were swelled by the addition of about thirty-five or forty of the old soldiers who had assembled to meet them, and joining their ranks marched to Camp Pender.

On arriving on the parade grounds they passed in review before the Governor, who afterwards joined them. The four regiments formed column by companies and marched past the veterans drawn up in line, each regiment being heartily cheered as they swept by.

One special feature was the old rebel yell, given with vigor and spirit. Many of those who had passed through the baptism of blood during the time that tried men's souls, shed tears as the recollections of the past were brought so vividly to their minds by the sound of drums and the marching of gayly caparisoned troops.

After the parade and review the veterans were invited to headquarters to meet and shake Gov. Scates by the hand.

The crowd that assembled to witness the ceremonies was roughly estimated at between six and eight thousand, and the scenes enacted will never be forgotten by any one of the vast audience.

HOLIDAY. To-morrow will be a general holiday, given the gallant soldier boys as a means for visiting the various places of interest, at Wilmington and in and around Wrightsville and vicinity.

Among the many arrangements made for their entertainment will be a yacht race by the Carolina Yacht Club, over the usual course, at 11.30 o'clock, which will no doubt be a very novel spectacle to many of the visiting military.

The eighth day of the encampment of the North Carolina State Guard was one that will no doubt prove to be of incalculable benefit to the organization, in more ways than one, and went to show that the people's money is not wasted by the institution of annual encampments.

Following were the officers appointed for guard duty yesterday: Field Officer—Lieut. Col. Bogart. FIRST REGIMENT. Officer of the Day—Capt. C. F. Warren; Officer of the Guard, Lieut. W. J. Burnett.

SECOND REGIMENT. Officer of the Day—Capt. Wm. Black; Officer of the Guard, Lieut. J. C. Morrison.

THIRD REGIMENT. Officer of the Day—Lieut. J. C. Besant; Officer of the Guard, Lieut. Robt. S. Galloway.

FOURTH REGIMENT. Officer of the Day—Capt. W. F. Holland; Officer of the Guard, Lieut. T. B. Siegle.

IN AND AROUND CAMP. — The ladies of St. Paul's Church had quite a nice trade at their booth at Wrightsville yesterday.

— The Hornet's Nest Rifles (Charlotte), will visit Carolina Beach to-morrow, and leave for home in the evening at 8 o'clock.

— The honor of the revocation of the order relative to the parade Thursday is claimed for the officers of the Second Regiment.

An extra train was run between the Hummocks and Wrightsville every fifteen minutes after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, to accommodate the large crowds going and coming between the two places.

— The Monroe Light Infantry left the Encampment last evening for home, taking the 8 o'clock train on the Carolina Central Railroad.

— A complimentary supper was given last night by Capt. Benahan Cameron to Gov. Scates and staff, followed by a sail on the Tarpon.

— Lt. Gov. Stedman was given three hearty cheers at the conclusion of his presentation speech to winners in the shooting match yesterday.

— The Pasquotank Rifles, in the competitive drill in 1884, a 3rd first, and have not retrograded. Captain Griffin certainly knows how to handle his men.

— The Greenville Guards are a clever, handsome set of gentlemen, and Capt. Richard Williams in personal pulchritude is with the foremost of the Guard.

— The Guilford Grays, Forsyth Rifles, Dallas Light Infantry and Henderson Light Infantry, will leave camp at 6 a. m. to-day and Wilmington at 8 a. m. on the Carolina Central.

— The Hornet's Nest Riflemen, of the Fourth Regiment, Capt. T. R. Robertson, gets there every time. The members have a handsome uniform—and are handsome men—the admiration of the spectators on parade or drill.

— The Maxton Rifles, Lumber Bridge Light Infantry, Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry; Graniteville Grays and Southern Stars (Lincolnton), will leave camp at 6.30 o'clock to-morrow morning, taking the Carolina Central train at 8 o'clock for home.

— The barbecue given by the Edgecombe Guards was one of the events of the day. It was greatly enjoyed by many visitors, by Chaplains Hardin and Leslie and nearly every officer of the First regiment. An Edgecombe barbecue is something unique—not a roast but a hash, highly seasoned—and it was greatly relished by all.

— A letter to the STAR from Major Sugg, of Greenville, comes too late to be of sufficient interest to justify its publication in full. Maj. Sugg spent several days at the Encampment, and became thoroughly imbued with the importance of making Wrightsville a permanent site. He urges a meeting of the Guard, and the adoption of suitable resolutions, &c. Such a meeting was held yesterday.

Carolina Yacht Club Regatta. The great attraction at the Hummocks to-day is the regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club, to be sailed over the Club course; the race beginning at half-past eleven o'clock this morning. The following yachts have entered:

Little Alice, Capt. S. P. Cowan. Louie, Capt. Atkinson. Lillian Florence, Capt. H. M. Bowden.

Rosa, Capt. W. L. Smith. Ripple, Capt. J. H. Daniel. Bonnie Lassie, Capt. Jos. Price. Idler, Capt. Pem. Jones. Mascotte, Capt. W. L. Parsley. Peggy, Capt. Norwood Giles. Hermit, Capt. R. H. Cowan.

The judges are Capt. Ingram of the Gulf Stream, Capt. Henry Savage and Mr. Jos. M. Cronly.

The race promises to be an exciting and interesting event and will undoubtedly attract a number of visitors to Wrightsville.

Before the Mayor Yesterday. Barney Stone, a colored boy, arrested for attempting to steal a ride on the street cars, was turned over to his parents, who promised to punish him.

Prince Marks, the colored man who was arrested Saturday last for disorderly conduct and made his escape from officer Gordon, was sentenced to thirty days on the chain gang in default of payment of a fine of $35.

Four persons charged with keeping unlicensed dogs were required to pay the costs and procure badges. A case against Wm. Vagrows and others, for disorderly conduct, was continued.

A Fine Impression Made. The editor of the Lumberton Robesonian says: "The Encampment at Wrightsville, near Wilmington, is the most successful and satisfactory ever held. On our trip we saw representatives from nearly all the companies who were returning home on account of sickness in their families, and they every one gave the most enthusiastic reports of the place, the fare, and all of the surroundings. Almost daily large crowds of visitors are attending and altogether the occasion is a most enjoyable one. Wilmington has certainly made a fine impression on the people of the State through the Encampment."

— Col. Cotten, of the First Regiment, and a number of other soldiers came up from the Encampment early this morning to take the Passport for a fishing excursion to the Blackfish Grounds.
