OUR STATE CONTEMPORABIES.

Says poor Dan Russell in bewailing the fate of himself and Dockery and others of that ilk; "We are Southern men with Northern principles." Very true, Judge Russell. An honest confession is good for the soul. -Raleigh News-Observer.

"My son Oliver" is also campaigning over the State in the role of an Alliance man, in order to make votes among the farmers. Yet he at the same time poses as a Republican. He unhesitatingly and unblushingly avows that he stands squarely upon both the State and the national Republican platforms. The national Republican platform says, among other things We denounce the Mills bill." One of the features of the Mills bill is the reduction of the tariff on manufactured cotton goods. It is very clear therefore that "My Son Oliver" is out and out opposed to the Mills bill, knowing that the National Farmers Alliance has put itself on record as favoring the Mills bill in anticipation for the protection of the country.-Charlotte Chronicle

Every man, and especially a Prohibitionist, knows that there are other vital issues besides temperance pressing hard upon us, issues upon which every honest man is bound to take a stand. No honest man now can afford to be ignorant or careless of them. Still less can he join in a third party wild goose chase and pretend that he is a patriot. The opportunity is now at hand for stopping in part stealing by tariff taxation, and the man who throws away his vote is either lacking in wisdom or he is joined with the thieves. He cannot excuse himself by the third party dodge. If he pretends that he regards both succeeds, or that the issues between them are unessential, he is either uninstructed or a hypocrite. If he is zealous only for the good of the people he is bound to favor tariff reduction. If the sufferings caused by the principles and practices of the Radical party do not move him, he is a selfdeceived hypocrite, if he believes that he is moved by sufferings caused by the liquor traffic. At heart, he is moved only by a burning desire for office. A man who straddles the fence on a tariff reform question will straddle it on any other reform when he thinks it to his interest. - Raleigh

- Warrenton Gazette: It is said that you cannot even bribe a Henderson man to admit that his town is not better and bigger than New York. And herein lies much of the secret of the success of that town: "Tis local pride.

- Fayetteville Journal: Chief Waddeil reports for July 100 cases tried, $77.85 fines collected, and $39 from the scales — The report of health officer. Dr. James A. Hodges, shows that during the month of July there were but four deaths in Fayetteville-two whites and two colored.

- Dunn Signboard: The protracted meeting at Princeton closed on last Friday at 11 a. m., after two weeks continuation Near 100 persons were reclaimed and converted, and it is hoped that a higher state of Godliness will exist there than ever before. - Rev. Mr. Phillips, the pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Payetteville, is here engaged in a revival meeting.

 Hillsboro Recorder: Mr. W T. Sutton, of our town, met with a painful injury, while attending services at St. Matthew's (Episcopal) church, last Sunday afternoon. Springing over a low wall, to see a friend, who had called him, his foot struck upon a slanting rock and he fell, dislocating two joints of the great toe of the left foot, and breaking one of the bones of the same. He is now doing well, but is 'laid up."

- Winston Sentinel: The elocutionary contest at the Opera House last Thursday night was won by Miss Ruth Rominger who was awarded a handsome gold medal. — The district conference held at Summerfield last week was an interesting meeting as well as largely attended. Between $700 and $800 were raised for the Trinity College fund. - The new Baptist Church at Waughtown was dedicated last Sunday with impressive ceremonies. Rev. O. Durham, of Raleigh, preached the dedicatory sermon,

- Scotland Neck Democrat: The daughters of Rev. Aldert Smedes, D. D., and sisters of Rav. Bennett Smedes, of Raieigh, have presented the Episcopal church with a handsome bell. It weighs 618 pounds, manufactured by the McShane B. H foundry, Baltimore. It is clear toned and is a model of beauty. It bears the following inscription: "In loving memory of Rev. Aldert Smeder, D. D. and his wife, reli Smedes." Work will soon commence for the completion of the tower on the new Episcopal church, and the bell will soon be in place.

- Asheville Citizen: The election is to be held in Cherokee county on the 9th inst., to authorize the issue of $50,000 in bonds in sid of the construction of the Hiwassee railroad from Murphy to Chattanoogs. - Yesterday the city experienced in all its inconveniences, the cutting off, in toto, of its water supply. The pipes refused to give up their cooling treasures, more needful and grateful than ever in a period of unusual heat. — Sales of tosacco on the warehouse floors of Asheville for the month of July were 40,576 pounds for $3,637 81—an average of $8 54 per hundred. Sales from October to the 81st of July were 3,850,169 pounds for $501,030 82

The case was compromised by the prosecutor and McMahan; the constable not knowing of the compromise brought McMaban before Squire Cagle, when Burgess, the prosecutor, said he believed the prisoner was armed, and that he was afraid of him. Constable Lakey made an attempt to search him but was pushed off, when Lakey called to Buchanan, who was workinging near by, to assist him. Before Buchanan reached the prisoner, when close to him, the latter suddenly draw a platol and fired in the direction of the two men, the ball striking Buchanan in the left breast, ranging downward. The physicians saw the wound was a mortal one and did not remove the ball, although located it. Buchanan is dead.

- Newton Enterprise: Mr. Will. J. Herman, died at the residence of his father, F L. Herman, five miles west of Newton last Thursday morning at 2 o'clock and was burried at St. Paul's Friday morning at 10 o'clock. He was twenty-three years old. He had just a few weeks ago, returned home from Louisville, Ky., Medical College. — R. C. Setzer and wife started one day last week for Washington Territory. His son, Charley, is settling up his business and will follow this fall. Carr left without letting any one know it except those who happened to see him off. He had just been turned out of jail on payment of a fine of $250, and he thought the disgrace more than he could bear among old friends. - Julius Wilson, Jr., was acquitted in Asheville last week of the charge of knowingly buying goods stolen from C. E. Graham & Co. R. H. Bost, submitted and was sentenced to twelve months in the penitentiary. Bost stated in his confession that Murphy who was convicted at last term of court and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary did not know the goods he bought were stolen. ### STATE CAMPAIGN.

- We are informed that the result of the Republican convention at Waynesville was the declaration of several heretofore Republicans to vote for Cleveland and tax reform. - Asheville Citizen.

- Maj. W. W. Rollins, of Asheville, was nominated as elector on the Republican Presidential ticket for the Ninth Congressional District. Major Rollins began his life in Spartanburg county, S. C., about forty-eight years ago. Hamilton G. Ewart, the nominee of the Republicans of the Ninth District for a seat in the Fiftyfirst Congress was born at Columbia, S. C. about the year 1851 .- Asheville Sun.

- We have received a letter from Marshall friend stating that Mr. Charles F. McKesson, the Republican candidate for Auditor, while in Marshall a few days ago behaved in a manner and made remarks which were very offensive to the good citizens of that good town. Among other things he said or reported was that the meanest Radical negro of Burke was tetter than the white Democrats of Madison county. - Asheville Citizen.

- A gentleman who was at one time a whiskey drummer, but who now says he could not be induced by any manner of means whatever to go into the business again, was present at one of Mr. Walker's speeches. He had a conversation with Mr Walker. In that conversation Mr. Walker "We are going to win some day, if not to-day. We are going to win; if we cannot by fair means, then we will by foul. And if we do not triumph, there will be one of the bloodiest wars that ever blackened the pages of history." Now we have met Mr. Walker, and we had believed him a reasonable man, but if these utterances are true, and we have no reason to doubt them, Prohibition Walker is the biggest fanatic and crank of them all, and certainly not deserving the suffrage of reasonable men, whether believing in prohibition or not. Down with Walker, - Washington

Gazette. - Mr. J. M. Monger came forward and introduced Tom Devereaux Soon he hit one square blow by say-ing that Mr. Cleveland had appointed negroes to office and at this the negroes in the crowd yelled Staggered at this Tom took another drink of water and said he really did not expect to make a speech. By this time he had made up his mind that the negroes were a "set of savages" no better than their brethren in African swamps and said he didn't want any negro in his, * * Dockery came forward and spoke about fifteen minutes about the negro, going ever the same ground that Devereaux had gone over. . But from the very manner of his talk he is evidently a discouraged candidate. He said he had no ambition to be Governor and didn't want to be and had declined the nomination twice before. Notwithstanding he is a plain and plausible speaker, he is srousing no enthusiasm. Dockery is greatly overrated .- Sauford

SHORT CUT! WE HAVE THE "SHORT CUT" AT MAXTON A short cut on frosts. A short cut on quick transportation North. A short cut on rich soil for early vegetables.

These are all established facts. We live in a wonderful age, and there is no telling what developments are near at hand. Buy a Farm and stir the soil. "Go till the ground," said God to man,
"Subdue the earth, it shall be thine."
Only a few years hence and land will be be yond price in this section.
I will take pleasure in helping any body who is PUSHING and ENTERPRISING to buy a Farm in this community, commissions or no commissions.
