THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XLIII.--NO. 28.

A great many people in Wilmington are sincerely and warmly attached to Rev. R. G. Pearson. What concerns him interests them. He has left Goldsboro for Asheville, his home. Next month he goes to Lynchburg, Va., and will remain in that State for some time as he has several appointments. The Goldsboro Argus says of him:

"He and his good wife will long be remembered with prayers and thanksgiving by the good people of this community. They have done a great work in our midst. More than three hundred have openly professed conversion, and up to date about one hundred have joined the different churches in the city. Perhaps in all a thousand or two professing Christians have publicly vowed a better life. But these figures give no adequate conception of the infinence of Mr. Pearson's work during his two weeks ministration. It has gone out like a sweet perfume into the country around and will be like the breath of life in this valley of death for years to come.'

Ella Wheeler Wilcox has some verse on the South that is character istic of Northern scribblers. She writes for instance:

'A queen of indolence and idle grace. Robed in the vestments of a costly gown. She turns the languor of her lovely face Upon progression with a lazy frown.'

Ella should come up and see for herself and quit playing the parrot. We say "come up," and that is geographically correct. The South is higher than the North.

You need some varnish, some starch, some paint, some window glass and some whiting. What tax under the Radical Tariff must you pay? Answer: On varnish 95 cents for every dollar's worth of the article; starch, 95; paint, 75; window glass, for small size, 60; for larger, 1.06; whiting, 1.34. That is, one you $2.34.

The New York World sent out a corps of interviewers. A thousand persons were interviewed in an hour. The sum of the inquiry is this :

"Most Democrats declared for Cleveland, but 21 said they would vote against him. On the contrary, 19 men who voted for Blaine in 1884 said they would vote for Cleveland next month because of his stand for Tariff Reform Of the 1000, 32 said they would cast their first Presidential vote this year, and of these 18 declared themselves for Cleveland, 11 for Harrison, 2 for Cowdrey and 1 for Fisk.

From Virginia we find the following in the World. It is taken from Washington dispatch:

"Representative Lee, of Virgina, was in the city to-day. He said that while Virginia was not a reliable State, all the Democrati appeared to be perfectly confident of carrying it for Cleveland. He felt certain that the Democrats would win back some Congressional districts now represented by Re

It will be a horrible waking upon Wednesday, 7th November, to find the State in the hands of the negroes and the Dockery crowd. The way to prevent it is for Democrats to do their full duty as freemen from now until the election closes.

Illegal Registration and Voting. Several cases are reported in the city of negroes known to be ex-convicts attempting to register. Registrars all over the State should be on the look-out for these scamps, and closely scrutinize the lists furnished them of convicts who are disqualified When detected they should be at once arrested. Under the State law the penalty for illegal registration is a severe one. The law says: "If any person shall register his own name or procure it or any other person's to be registered illegally, or shall falsely personate any registered voter; or if any person shall vote after being convicted of a crime which excludes him from the right to vote without being restored to citizenship, he shall be guilty of an infamous crime and punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both." It furthermore provides, that "Any person who shall falsely and corruptly take the oath prescribed for voters shall be guilty of perjury and fined not less than $500 nor more than $1,000 and imprisoned not less than two nor more than five years!" There are hundreds of negroes in this county who are disqualified by reason of having been convicted of crimes. They should be looked after closely.

SOUTHE'N PRESBYTERIANS Synod of North Carolina-Convention in the Interests of Home Missions -Address by Rev. Dr. Johnston.

[Special Star Correspondence.] Goldsboro, Oct. 24.-Pearson has been in Goldsboro. If one talk to a gentleman on the streets ten minutes he will find it out, certain. Most blessed influences have followed his work here-the awakening of indifferent and cold Christians, the regeneration and conversion of the godless, the quickening of the spiritual pulse of the whole city.

Synod meets to-night. Presbyterians are coming in from every direction. The Primitive Baptists hold their Association here this week also.

Last night what is unusual among the Presbyterians, a convention in the interests of Home Mission work in Synod was organized by the elec-tion of Rev. J. M. Wharey as chair-man, and Rev. C. W. Robinson as clerk. Religious services were conducted by the chairman. Dr. F. H. Johnston made an opening address, in which passing by the principles of missionary work he urged going on to perfection. He sketched the rise and progress of Presbyterianism in North Carolina, showing that it owed its origin to Home Missions from the Synod of New York.

The Synod of North Carolina has had much fruit in this work in the erection of Presbyteries, and by the frequent preaching tours by such laborers as McCorkle, Hugh Mc-Aden, Patillo, &c. With a large map of Synod before him he pointed out some characteristics of Presbyterian settlement. One third of the State and one third of the population are without Presbyterian preach ing. Some thirty counties have only one or two feeble churches. With all its historic advantages it has only about 30,000 communicating members He was not quite sure that he ought to be ashamed of the rapidity (?) of growth. The Moravians are the most liberal in missionary work in the State God seems to have ordained the Methodists to go out and compel men to come in. The Lord seems to have raised up the Presbyterian Church to be the great conservative force—a kind of spiritual bal ance wheel. But, says some one, the State already evangelized by some religious body? Answer, there is much room for other workers. The number of churches of all sorts gives one church to every 500 of the population. But there are many communities in which there is no church at all. For its spiritual development the church needs to enter more earnestly on this work at home. The church is waking up. In the last ten years it has increased 30 per cent. -are there any obstacles in the way of onward movement? Has the church men enough? The Methodist ministers have 400 to every minister. The Presbyterian ministers have only 200. Is there want of means? Last year the Baptists spent $9,000 in supporting over 100 men in State Mission The Presbyterian Church spent $6,000 or $7,000 in supporting wholly or in part about 60 There is no lack of means! The great difficulty is in the unequal distribution of work among the resbyteries. The church should wake up in view of the rapid material development of the State. The decadence of old churches has lately caused alarm, especially in New England.

The old churches must be helped. Home Mission activity aids Foreign Mission zeal Dr. Johnston's address was very thoughtful and thought-provoking. He stated facts, offering yery little explanation of them. Something is likely to come of it, but no one knows what just yet. An honest desire to do more active work for the extension of Christ's kingdom is very manifest, but how to do it and yet cling to the traditions of the fathers is what causes the trouble. A great big steam engine with steam up and a good track ahead and yet can't go, is in a bad fix. WEDNESDAY A. M .- The Home Mission Convention was opened with devotional exercises by the chairman. Rev. A. Sprunt presented, with a map before him, the needs of the Home Mission cause in Orange Pres-

Rev. J. M. Wharey spoke of the needs of Concord Presbytery; Dr. H. G. Hill spoke for Fayetteville Presbytery; Rev. P. H. Hoge for Wil-mington Presbytery, and Rev. W. E. McIlwain for Mecklenburg Presby-

The Convention then went into consideration of the question, "Ought there not be a more equal division of the territory of the Synod among the Presbyteries?' Speeches were limited

The subject elicited much discussion from a great many ministers and elders, Much difference of opinion was manifested. It was resolved to memorialize Synod to appoint a committee to report at its next meeting on the question of the division of Presbyteries.

After recess the question, Would it not be advisable for the Synod, at its approaching meeting, to take steps to place at least one evangelist in its mission field? was taken up, and elicited much earnest discussion. It was unanimously agreed to ask Synod, through a committee, to appoint an evangelist. For this purpose $1,735 was contributed. Great enthusiasm prevailed on this subject, and the evangelist is already practically an assured fact.

The Convention adjourned at 4.30 p. m., after doing a work that means progress for Presbyterianism in North Public Speaking in Pender.

She is still in good health, although her mental faculties are weakened by her great age, and at present sojourning with her grand-daughter, Mrs. N. H. Sprunt, at Kenansville, where to-day many of her & descendants will assemble to commemorate her birthday. Mrs. Brown's maiden name was Rebecca Swain. She first married Lieut. Peters, of the U.S. Navy, in Charleston, and after his death and the death of their only child a few years afterwards, married John Brown, of Smithville, N. C., in this city, at the residence of Capt. McIlhenny, grand-father of our townsman, Col. Thos. McIlhenny, at the old "Ellis place," as it was called, on Second and Nun streets. Eleven children were the result of this marriage, four of whom lived to maturity; the eldest, Mrs Susan Brown, married Robt. G. Rankin, Esq., of this city: parents of Wilmington's well known citizens-John T., Robert G., and N. G. Rankin-and of Mrs. N. H. Sprunt, of Kenansville, Her second daughter, Valeria, married Mr. L. Meginney, and is still living, and the third, Caroline, married Philip Prioleau, of Charleston, S. C. She and her sister, Mrs. Rankin, died at Smithville of yellow fever in 1862, and Mr. Prioleau died recently in Florida. Robt. Brown, the only son who reached maturity, also died of yellow fever in 1862, leaving a daughter, Rebecca, who married Mr. Wm. Anderson of this city. Of the Prioleaus there are living Philip, residing at St. Augustine, Fla.; Mary, who married Lieut. Eastman, U. S. army, and Rose, the wife of Lieut. Newcomb of the U.S. Revenue Ma-

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the club last night, at their hall on Front and Orange street. It was the regular monthly meeting and after the transaction of routine business the matter of the club visiting Southport was brought up. It was unanimously decided to send a delegation of sev enty-five men, who will leave here a 4,30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, on the steamer Bessie, in full regaliawhite hat and bandana. Members of the delegation were advised to assemble at the club hall promptly at 4 o'clock, and the members of Germania Cornet Band who will accompany them, are requested to meet at the same place at the same time.

The matter of attending a political demonstration at Wrightsville was also laid before the club, but action upon this was deferred until after the visit to Southport.

The STAR office had a pleasant visit vesterday from Hon. Alfred Rowland and Mr. S. G. Pemberton, who are canvassing the Sixth District together. They are doing splendid work for the Democratic party, and their appointments run up to Nov. 5th. *Col. Rowland hopes he may be able to join Maj. a DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonie and cries of a suffering child, and becoming con vinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup, never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 26 cents a bottle.
