THE MORNING STAR

VOL. XLIII.--NO. 51.

WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1888.

WHOLE NO. 6913

The bull dozing of workmen in the North is carried on to a great and shameful extent. In Connecticut, as in the other States, this disgraceful intimidation was worked and with damage to the Democracy.

The last number of the Connecticut Home gives an account of the wholesale intimidation practiced throughout that State by the manufacturers to make their employees vote for Harrison and Morton.

President Cleveland is not afraid. He has a backbone. The news from Washington continues that he will send Congress a vigorous, outspoken document, and that his Tariff Reform ideas will be repeated with emphasis.

Mr. Cleveland is not the man to abandon any principle which he believes to be just and well founded because of temporary obstacles. It can be assumed confidently, therefore, that he will take back nothing he said in his message of December last.

THE CITY.

MUNSON--Now for overcoats. S. A. SCHLOSS & CO--Crockery. SHERIFF BRUNSWICK--Tax notice.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MUNSON--Now for overcoats. S. A. SCHLOSS & CO--Crockery.

John Sherman says that Blaine will be Secretary of State. He says it is an ante election agreement.

The Democratic National Committee distributed 15,000,000 copies of documents and employed 2,000 speakers.

It is believed that women suffrage is coming in France. There are said to be 151 advocates of it in the Chamber of Deputies.

Gen. Harrison writes to the Augusta Chronicle, that he holds his views subject to change and modification. Blaine will do his thinking for him probably.

The Rock Island Railroad will begin to run steam heated cars this week. Others must follow as the command has been given that the "hot stove must go."

"Indignant" complains in the New York Tribune that at a Sixth Avenue street house her maid could not be served. Here is discrimination on account of color.

The South Pole is said to be fuller of dangers than the North Pole. A South Polar expedition is to be organized in Europe.

Mr. Andrew Lang, in London Saturday Review, goes for Miss Rives and her bad book, "The Quick and the Dead." But the style is what provokes the accomplished literatus.

The great collection made by President Sparks was imperfect, for a large part of the necessary material was inaccessible at the time when that collection was completed.

Welding Cotton Ties. A machine for welding out bale ties and parts of ties has been perfected by the Thompson Electric Company.
