WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1888.

The Charleston News & Courier talks out in meeting after this sort as to an educational qualification :

"But the eight box law, though it has served its purpose well, is an evasion after all. It would be far better and far manlier, n our opinion, to grasp the difficulty squarey at once and amend the constitution of the State so as to impose an educational qualification upon the voters. 'It will be conceded, no doubt, that by imposing an educational qualification the State will love representation in Congress, and therefore in the Electoral College, Ad-mitting that this will be so, although other States which impose such a qualification lose no representation of any account, it is better by far to surrender a Congressman or two than to persevere in ways and means which injure our people at home and give them a bad name abroad, and so hinder more seriously than the thoughtless imagine the progress and development of South Carolina

We record with pleasure a recent act of the President elect. Personal friends in Indiana purposed to present him with an outfit for his stables when President. He firmly declined, eaying:

"Although I have not a fortune, I must refuse to accept it, because I believe that no man in the position of President of the United States can afford to be under pecuniary obligations in matters connected with bis office even to his intimate friends."

If true, highly oreditable. Blame or Grant would have taken all.

Harrison appreciates his friends. He likes the New York Sun, that ought not to be allowed to come into any Democrat's house. A special from Indianapolis to the New York World says Harrison spoke as fol-

"Dana did as much good as any of them It was amusing to read the Sun during the campaign You could see in every issue of t that it was knilling Cleveland under the fifth rib . I know porsonally that Dana wanted to beat Cleveland '

A Pleasant and Successful Entertain

The Dickens Party, given at the Opera House and City Hall last night was a pleasing success-alike to the management and to the large audience that attended.

Dr. Battle's Lecture.

The Young Men's Christian Association being disappointed in securing the Opera House, will have Dr. Battle's lecture in the lecture room of Grace M. E. Church next Tuesday night. While no entrance fee will be charged, admission will be by tickets which can be procured at the stores of Messrs. Yates, Heinsberger, and Louis H. Meares, on Monday and Tuesday.

It is the purpose of the Association to have all its lectures as free as possible without conflicting with its interests, so it has been thought advisable, as there will be no charge for admission, to give those so disposed an opportunity to contribute on that night. Still, it is earnestly desired that these contributions shall be perfectly voluntary.

Dr. Battle always enlivens his lectures with bright ideas and a pleasant occasion may be looked for. Y. M. C. A. Conference

A conference of Southern Secreta ries of the Y. M. C. A. is in session at Columbia, S. C., with between forty and fifty in attendance. Altogether there are at present ninety-seven paid secretaries employed alone in the Southern States, whi e three years ago there were but about twenty. The conference will close tomorrow night. .

"Last night in spite of the inclemency of the weather, the Bell-Ellis combination began their three nights' engagement to a house packed from pit to dome. Long before 7 o'clock every reserved seat was sold and before half-past seven the sale of seats in the gallery was stopped, and over three hundred people were refused admission. All of those who braved the weather were well repaid. It is the best entertainment of the kind ever here. It is even better than before and with all the new additions makes it an entertainment worthy any peoples' patronage. The lady brass band and orchestra proved itself an attraction indee both on the parade and selections in the orchestra which was attested by the applause. The presents given away are better.

more valuable and numerous than ever, and to the credit of this company it is, they don't resort to the flim sy, worthless presents generally given away by so-called gift shows."

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonic and cries of a suffering child, and becoming con vinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homosopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet falled to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. Scients a bottle
