Election, Thursday, March 28th.

OUTLINES.

Nothing but executive business was done in the Senate yesterday; a large number of nominations were confirmed.

When he first entered political life and was elected to Congress he was temperate and lived what is called in the language of the world's people a moral life.

THE CITY

W. L. YOUNG—For rent. C. W. YATES—Paper bags. J. H. HARDIN—Open all day. WANTED—A good white girl.

THE MORNING STAR

Rev. R. G. Pearson is preaching to great congregations at Columbia, S. C., but up to Thursday night there had been but three professions of religion.

It appears that President Harrison is much attached to Mr. J. C. New and offered to give him any place he preferred.

Ex Representative Moses W. Field, of Michigan, illustrates the dangers attending political life and especially life in Congress.

That cantankerous Radical Protection sheet, the Philadelphia Press, is dying just to live the old Whig party in Georgia revived for it thinks it sees hope for Monopoly and Radicalism in such an event.

Here is the way the Republican Administration is distributing the good things:

Local News. — Turner's Almanac predicts frost for to-day.

— Col. W. P. Canaday is expected home from Washington, D. C., to-day.

— The Register of Deeds issued six marriage licenses the past week; two to whites and four to colored people.

— Rev. L. T. Christmas will preach at Ebenezer Baptist Church (colored) this afternoon; services beginning at 8 o'clock.

— Among the callers at the STAR office yesterday were Messrs. J. D. Bonshall, of Raleigh; J. E. Wyche, of Oxford, and H. L. Cook, of Fayetteville.

— The Criminal Court finished the business of the term yesterday with the exception of the settlement of a few costs cases, and will adjourn to-morrow.

— Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-day at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m. No night service.

— In the Mayor's Court yesterday, Harry Blount, colored, was found guilty of disorderly conduct and carrying a concealed weapon, but judgment was suspended.

— One of the laborers employed on the government building, a colored man named Cotton, got one of his hands badly mangled by a large piece of stone falling on it yesterday.

— Gov. Fowle has appointed Major Chas. Stedman one of the commissioners to represent North Carolina at the centennial celebration of Washington's inauguration.

— Albert Cooper, colored, charged with wilful abandonment of his wife Rosanna, was arraigned before Justice Mills yesterday.

— A meeting of the directors of the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company was held Friday afternoon, and the following officers were re-elected.

— The case Against the schooner Congdon. The colored men, fourteen in number, who took out warrants against the master of the schooner Congdon, as reported in the STAR, were yesterday paid their claims, which amounted with the costs in the cases to about seventy dollars.

Another Onslow Road. It is now thought that the Atlantic Coast Line will extend the road now building from Scotland Neck to Kinston, to Wilmington.

STATE CONVENTION

Of the Young Men's Christian Association—Reports Submitted—Address etc.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS. Upon entering the First Baptist Church yesterday morning, the first and most prominent sight that met one's gaze was the legend,

"TO DURHAM IN 1890," which was printed in large letters and striking letters, and was attached to nearly every pew, besides being scattered the entire length of the main aisles and suspended from the front of the gallery.

After the Convention was called to order there was a short service of song which was followed by the first subject, as laid down on the published programme, which was 'Bible Reading—The Holy Spirit of Peace,' by Rev. P. H. Hoge.

Rev. Thomas Hume, D. D., Chairman of the State Executive Committee, then read his annual report, which was printed and copies of which were circulated among the audience.

E. L. Harris, treasurer of the State Executive Committee, submitted his report, the reading of which was dispensed with for the reason that all the delegates possessed copies.

The State Secretary, L. A. Coulter, then read his report, at the conclusion of which the thanks of the Convention were tendered the different officials for their able reports and for the fidelity with which they had performed their respective duties.

"Securing Them," was discussed by Capt. A. G. Brenizer, of Charlotte. His remarks were forceful, and the methods he advised for raising funds were practical and common-sensical.

Rev. P. H. Hoge then made a brief address on the desecration of the Sabbath, after which L. A. Coulter, State Secretary, read an able paper on the "District Work" of the Association.

The report on "State Work" was then submitted by J. R. Young, in which were some suggestions, which after a brief discussion, were adopted seriatim.

The proceedings of the afternoon were begun by devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. W. S. Creasy, of Grace M. E. Church.

"Meetings for Young Men, Why have them?" by H. V. Jackson, of Raleigh, was a plain, practical, common sense talk.

"How to conduct them," by J. Y. Joyner, of Goldsboro, was the next subject for discussion, and it was ably handled by the speaker.

"How to Secure Results," the third paper on the subject, was read by E. L. Harris, of Winston-Salem, and was a logical and exhaustive elaboration of the best means to secure satisfactory results.

was conducted by Prof. Ellis, of Dunn. At the conclusion of these exercises the presiding officer said that it became his sad duty to announce that two delegates from Shelby, (brothers by the name of Gidney), had been called home by a telegram, which conveyed the intelligence that their mother was seriously sick, and in consequence they had been obliged to leave the Convention to hasten to their mother's bedside.

The chair then introduced Mr. T. A. Harding, of Washington, D. C. The speaker began by calling attention to the large area of territory under the watch and care of the International Committee, and then proceeded to state in what manner that committee had labored to most effectually reach every point and every individual within their jurisdiction.

Mr. J. R. Mott, College Secretary of the International Committee, then delivered an address on "College Work," which was a carefully prepared, thorough and exhaustive effort. The speaker is evidently in love with his calling, a duty for which he seems especially fitted both by inclination and education.

At the close of his address a few remarks were made by other delegates concerning the work of the Association, when Rev. Dr. Pritchard arose and stated, in reference to this night's meeting, that the First Baptist Church would not be able to hold one half of those who would like to attend, and that a great many would be prevented from gaining admittance.

The programme for to-day is as follows: 9:45 a. m.—Consecration Meeting—Men only, at First Baptist Church, conducted by A. W. McLeod.

4:30 p. m., Men's Meeting at Opera House, conducted by J. R. Mott, A. W. McLeod, W. Black, G. M. Busey and T. C. Diggs.

Ladies' meeting at the same hour at Grace M. E. Church, conducted by L. A. Coulter, J. J. Stowe, Prof. Gidney, G. B. Hanna, W. A. Blair and J. H. Southgate.

At the same hour there will be a boys' meeting at the First Presbyterian Church, conducted by E. L. Harris, G. T. Adams, C. W. Tillet, S. H. Dean, W. C. Dowd and Rev. R. C. Beach.

8 p. m., at First Baptist Church—Mass meeting. The address by Rev. Dr. Hume on "The Value of the Young Men to Church and State" will be delivered at this meeting, closing with farewell exercises.

Myers vs. Styron. Messrs. Chas. M. Stedman, Junius Davis and T. W. Strange returned last night from Beaufort, where they had been to appear before Judge Shipp, at Chambers, in the case of LeRoy Myers and others against W. H. Styron and others.

The fine appearance of the delegates to the convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, now in session in this city, is the subject of general remark. As a body they will compare favorably with any convention that ever assembled in the State.

"Bible Training Class," a paper which G. M. Rosser, General Secretary, of Columbia, S. C., was announced to read, was submitted by L. A. Coulter, in the absence of the former gentleman.

The reading of this paper caused considerable discussion, finally bringing J. R. Mott to the stand, when he answered satisfactorily and promptly a long list of questions bearing on the subject which were propounded to him.

Although Saturday night is an unfavorable season, under ordinary circumstances, for holding a successful public meeting, on account of the many duties devolving upon our citizens, and especially upon the ladies, at this time preparing for the Sabbath, there was really no perceptible diminution in the attendance at the First Baptist Church last night.

Art Exhibition. Miss Beall and her pupils will give an art exhibition in the rooms directly over Mr. Wm. Cumming's office, on Third Street, opposite the City Hall, this week.
