

"Like Magic,"

THE effect produced by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Coughs, Croup, and Sore Throat are, in most cases, immediately relieved by the use of this wonderful remedy. It strengthens the vocal organs, allays irritation, and prevents the invasion of the lungs by the colds and consumptions; in every stage of that dread disease, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral relieves cough, and induces refreshing rest.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for thirty years and have always found it the best remedy for cough, to which my children have been subject."—Capt. U. Carley, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"From an experience of over thirty years in the use of proprietary medicines, I feel justified in recommending Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. One of the best recommendations of the Pectoral is the enduring quality of its popularity, it being more salable now than it was twenty-five years ago, when its great success was considered marvellous."—R. S. Drake, M. D., Beloit, Kans.

"My little sister, four years of age, was so ill from bronchitis that we had almost given up hope of her recovery. Our family physician, a skillful man and of large experience, pronounced it impossible to give her any more medicine; saying that he had done all it was possible to do, and we must prepare for the worst. As a last resort, we determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and I can truly say, with the most happy results. After taking a few doses she seemed to breathe easier, and, within a week, was out of danger. We continued giving the Pectoral until she was entirely well. This has given me unbounded faith in the preparation, and I recommend it confidently to my countrymen."—O. Lepper, Druggist, Fort Wayne, Ind.

THE MORNING STAR

THE IMP OF SPRINGTIME.

BAYARD TAYLOR

Over the caves where the sunbeams fall
Twitters the swallow;
I hear from the mountains the catarract call:
Follow, oh, follow!

Buds on the bushes and blooms on the mead Hark! the spring whisp'ers, "Make with speed
Ready my dwelling."

Out of the tremulous blue of the air
Calling before her,
Who was it bade me, "Awake and prepare,
Thou, my adorer!"

"Follow," belauded, "where the bliss of earth
Woo thee compelling;
Yet in the spring, and her thousandfold birth,
I, too, am dwelling."

Out of the buds he was peeping, and sang Soft with the swallow:
Yes, and he called where the catarract sprang;
Follow, oh, follow!

Vain to defy, or evade, or, in sooth,
Bid him to leave me!
But his decision is dearer than truth;
Let him deceive me!

McDowell Bugle: The hotel is kept up lively by daily visitors from the North wing, the grandeur and beauty of the scenery in and around the Knob, and the wonderful Mineral Springs.

Salisbury Watchman: The W.
N. O. R. received at this point last week fifty-two miles of 60-pound steel rails for the main line between Hickory and Asheboro, which will make this road an all-steel line.

Fayetteville Observer: The negro Broadfoot from Fayetteville who is an applicant for route agency on C. F. & Y. V. road, it is understood, will not get that place. The administration will do nothing for negroes.

Henderson Gold Leaf: At a recent meeting of the Henderson Tobacco Board of Trade the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W. H.
Walker, President; W. H. Smoot, Vice President; H. F. Strouse, Secretary; C. A.
Lewin, Treasurer.

Washington Gazette: Yesterday morning at six o'clock, Dr. J. Frank Latham breathed his last at his home in Harris, N. C., after a long siege of suffering. Dr. Latham was a remarkable man.
In agriculture he was successful, using the most advanced methods and farming in a scientific manner.

Hickory Carolinian: While three Republican Congressmen and others were pressing three different candidates for marshal of the Western North Carolina District, the President quietly wrote to Major W. W. Rollins, tendering him the office, and he accepted. The wheat crop is looking fine and the farmers are hopeful of a good crop.

Forest City News: The Baptist church in this place seems to be in a quagmire. They have built a beautiful church edifice in the town in place of the dilap-dated structure known as the old Cool Spring Church, and on last meeting day they seemed to be divided, part of the members holding to the old place of worship and declaring their unwillingness to come to the new church.

New Bern Journal: The remains of Mr. W. T. Foscoe, who died in Raleigh on Sunday, and formerly a resident of New Bern, arrived in the city last night. The remains were received at the depot from Pitt county, where his forces are at work on Tar river. He says that the farming prospects here has been a splendid and most promising. We are informed that there is but one barroom in Hyde county. Hyde, however, is not a dry county.

Concord Times: Mr. Will Kerr, the inventor of the machine for making seamless bags, which will be manufactured in the new factory here, is now in Chicago having his machine perfected. The bricks are now being made for another large factory, to be built on the site just below the residence of Mr. W. R. Odell.
The capital stock of the Odell Manufacturing Company has been increased from $150,000 to $450,000, nearly half a million, and this factory will belong to that company, making three large cotton factories under its company.

Durham Plant: Mrs. E. W.
Foster, state agent, reports that the sale of two stamps for the month of March amounts to fifty thousand, eight hundred and sixty-two dollars and seventy-eight cents. We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Edgar Lee Shelburne, which occurred the home of his parents, on Mc-Cormick street, about 10 o'clock this morning. Mr. Shelburne was about 26 years of age. A child of Mr. and Mrs.
O. L. Shelburne, he was a bright and ambitious young man, and was a student at the University of North Carolina.
The rumor was current on the streets last week that Mr. M. O. S. Cherry, of Bethel, Pitt county's able Representative has fallen ill to an estate in Tennessee valued at $10,000. George W. Wain, an orphan boy of Wilmington, has been adopted by Mr. A. J. Griffin of this town, and will be known as the son of Mr. Griffin. He was the jeweler's trade under him. Major Powell of Wilmington took much of a rest in the little fellow and secured the
