OUTLINES.

The strikes of painters, carpenters and joiners, and railway switchmen in Buffalo, are still on, and there is no material change in the situation. - A packing establishment in Chicago was destroyed by fire yesterday morning, causing a loss of about $50 .-000. - The report that Henry M. Stanley and Emin Pasha are marching on Zanzibar is believed in official circles in Brussels - Another manifesto will shortly be issued by Gen. Boulanger relative to the vote in the French Chamber sanctioning his prosecution; Count Dillon and M. R chefort will also be prosecuted for their connection with the Boulangist movement. - The President has issued a proclamation for the general observance of the 30th day of April, as the centennial anniversary of the government of the United States. -The French Senate will begin the trial of Gen. Boulanger on Monday next, and during the trial no session of the Chamber of Deputies will be held. -The London Royal Geographical Society has received a letter from Henry M. Stanley, the contents consisting chiefly of a report on the geographical results of the explorer's march. -- Dun's review of the state of trade for the week represents business as prosperous in spite of declining prices; business failures for last week 222, against 240 for previous week. -The President contemplates a few days' rest and recreation outside of Washington as soon as he can do so without sacrificing public interests; his destination will probably be Fortress Monroe. - Cornelius Van Cott has been appointed postmaster, and Joel B. Ehrardt collector of customs at New York city. -Downs & Finch, of New York, the leading shirt manufacturers in the hanging was as orderly as a legal execution -Gen. Boulanger has is sued his promised manifesto; it is dated Brussels, April 5. -N. Y. markets: Money easy at 31@4 per cent., closing offered at 31 per cent; cotton quiet and firm; middling uplands 10te; middling Orleans 10te; southern flour dull; wheat, No. 2 red April 87c; corn: No. 2, 431@432 cents

The STAR believes in taxing the luxuries first, last and all the time.

The New York Herald's London paper beat all the English papers in publishing Stanley's letter.

The STAR believes in taxing whiskey, tobacco, cigars, beer, wines, &c., because they are luxuries, and nothwill do good in every Southern State. Gilmore (Edmund Kirk), the fel low who wrote a clever book or two, and did some bold-faced lying about

North Carolina, has fled from New Haven, leaving his many debts behind

The STAR has never favored and does not favor now abolishing a tax on eigars, &c., that are purely, simply luxuries, and raising revenue by taxing the poor man's necessaries. That is Radicalism in essence.

Ellery C. Daniels in 1870 robbed a Boston bank of $86,000. He was the cashier. He died an outcast the other day in a hospital in New York City. He had not seen his wife and children for years. "The way of the transgressor is hard."

Boulanger is a fraud. He is per haps a cowardly hero after all. At any rate the way he skedaddled from Paris is the town talk and excites ridicule. That is bad for a revolutionist and national hero. A Paris special to the New York World gives this glimpse of the flight of Boulanger: "The General's flight reads like a scene from a light operetts. Followed by his faithful shadows, the police, he called on Monday night upon a certain fair lady in the Rue de Berri—a lady who could never have been 'Cæsar's wife,' and who is sepa-rated from the General's late friends and ntertainers in the Royalist Faubourg St Germain by a huge social chasm A few minutes later the General reappeared attired in a flash-looking check costume and skulked away to the Northern Terminus. with his trembling charmer les ning upon Protection fails to protect the workingmen. Clark's "O. N. T. thread factory reduces the pay of operatives. They will strike. It is protected by 55 per cent tax on spool cotton, but it cuts wages. The N. Y.

"Previous to election it, like other highy protected firms, laid great stress on the necessity of electing a high tariff President to protect the wages of the workingmen. But now a notice is posted in their factory announcing that the forty spinners are to be reduced, those on 80 "counts" 174 per cent and those on 100 "counts" 15 per cent. on

What an infamous thing that War Tariff is anyhow. It protects the al ready rich and afflicts the already

The STAR believes it to be statesmanlike and wise to tax luxuries and incomes over $2,000 by the General Government so long as there are $87,000,000 to raise annually to pay pensions to Yankee soldiers and $45,000,000 to raise annually to pay the interest on the war debt. The STAR does not favor raising these great sums that aggregate $132, 000,000 upon the chief commodities of life, but upon the useless and harmful luxuries.

Civil Service Reform is to the front. Thus far Harrison has made but 374 changes, whereas the hungry Rads expected him to make 30,000 But Mr. Cleveland in the same length of time made only 171 changes, and his side had not had a nibble or a crumb in nearly a quarter of a century. Harrison will teach the C. S. R a few lessons in head chopping before he gets through. "Lay on

Gen. Clinton Fisk says he sleeps safer knowing that a soldier in the Northern army is President. This blatherskite who got a few votes for President stands in hourly dread of another "rebellion" and sees blood on the moon. Poor Fisk! Perhaps he s a humbug.

The STAR has never favored, and it never will favor, free cigars, free cheroots, and free cigarettes, and a tax on blankets, hats, dress goods, cotton goods, crockery, window glass, medicines, Bibles, shoes, trace chains and cotton ties.

- A Baltimore dispatch, April 8d, says: British schooner Margaret L, Ryan, from Trinidad, Cuba, February 27th, for Delaware Breakwater, with sugar (before reported), encountered a storm March 9th, and on the 24th the vessel sprang a leak, making it necessary to use the pumps censtantly. The next day the rigging and rudder were swept away and the ves sel was rapidly filling with water, but on the 26th the schooner Roger Moore, of Wilmington, N. C., answered the Margaret L's signal of distress and rescued the crew, taking them aboard and then proceeded on her course. She had not gone far, however, when the Margaret L was seen to pitch forward on her prow and sink immediately. The Roger Moore placed all hands, seven in number, on steamer D. H. Miller on Sunday morning, 70 miles from Block Island. The Miller landed all hands here to-day.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—Ray STLVARUS CORE thus writes in the Boston Christian Preeman:— We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbreken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle
