THE MORNING STAR

VOL. XLIV.—NO. 22.

WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1889.

WHOLE NO. 7037

OUTLINES.

The schooner Rio Lupton capsized in Albemarle Sound six days ago, and the captain and one of the crew were drowned; the vessel will be saved. No news has yet been received at New York concerning the wrecked steamer Denmark; the only hope for their safety is that they have been carried to the shores by some sailing vessel. The city authorities of New York, sustained by a decision of the courts, yesterday destroyed a large number of the poles and wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and the novel sight served as a great attraction. A bold attempt was made yesterday to rob the State Bank at Minneapolis, Minn.; two thieves entered the bank, and while one of them covered the employes with the revolver, the other seized $8,000 which was lying on the teller's table; they then made a rush from the building, but were soon caught and lodged in jail. The commission of three postmasters nominated by Mr. Cleveland, and confirmed by the Senate, yesterday signed by President Harrison, and forwarded to them; one was that of Leroy Brinkley, Edenton, N. C. The cruiser Charleston, at San Francisco, will start on her trial trip on Friday next. A general strike is imminent in the coal region of Pennsylvania, in consequence of a reduction in wages; several thousand miners will be involved. The boomers are putting themselves in readiness to rush across the line from Kansas into Oklahoma on the 22d inst. The colored people of the District of Columbia celebrated Emancipation Day yesterday by a parade and public meetings. The Richmond and Alleghany Railroad was sold at auction in Richmond yesterday, for five million dollars; it was bought by a syndicate formed by the first and second mortgage bondholders, and will be turned over to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company. A young lady was fatally shot near Marion, Ala., yesterday, by her brother, whose purpose was to shoot an objectionable visitor. The Chicago and All-America teams played a game of base-ball at Pittsburg yesterday, which resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of ten to three. A Baltimore dispatch reports a heavy gale on the coast, causing much damage at Norfolk from high tides and wrecking a number of vessels. Dr. Samuel W. Gross, an eminent practitioner, died in Philadelphia yesterday. New York markets: Money easy at 2 1/2 per cent; cotton steady; middling uplands 10 1/2 cents; middling Orleans 10 1/2 cents; southern flour steady; wheat: No. 2 red April 85 cents; corn: No. 2, 43 cents at elevator; rosin quiet and easier; spirits turpentine lower. Mr. William O'Brien has sued Lord Salisbury for libel. We hope he will mulct him in a good round sum. Blaine instructs the Commissioners of the United States to insist as to the continued independence of Samoa. Oh, ha! Of sixty samples of cotton seed oil imported into Canada, only one was found pure upon analysis. All the others were adulterated. Ah, the rascals! Northern women are hurrying to Oklahoma Territory. They are seeking homes for themselves. The North is producing a vigorous crop of the "strong-minded." John Bright will have two sons in Parliament. His eldest son, William, is already a member from Stokes-upon-Trent, and his son John has just been elected from a Division in Birmingham. The claw hammer, regulation black coat is doomed. Paris will reject it soon as an evening dress. Other colors are to be used. In our bygone and early manhood, blues, browns, claret, green, olive, &c., were all the fashion. Lord Churchill is again looming up as a possible factor in British politics. Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M.P., says that coercion in Ireland is rapidly playing out and Balfour is looking for an alternative policy. The Tories are said to be elaborating a scheme of partial home rule. A neat little invitation to attend the Anniversary of the Guilford Battle Ground Company to be held on the historic battlefield on 4th May next, has been received. Senator Vance will pronounce the oration, a poem will be read or recited, and many speeches will be made.

There appears to be good reason for believing that Harrison bosses matters to suit himself. It was very unfortunate for Blaine that the papers in advance proclaimed that he was to be the Elephant of the Harrison manure. This aroused all of Harrison's stabbornness, and he has forced the Maine elephant to play a small part in the Republican show. There is not a kitchen cabinet attachment either. It is said that Harrison is steadily pushing aside old leaders and building up a machine for himself. It is predicted that stormy times are ahead. Harrison is looking to young blood. The Washington correspondent of the World telegraphs on 14th: "From all accounts John Sherman appears to be completely immersed in the cold soup of neglect. He is the first member of the old guard to be given the cold shoulder at the White House. Out of the 374 nominations sent to the Senate by Mr. Harrison not one, with the possible exception of Editor Halstead, was a friend of the Ohio statesman. And Mr. Sherman did not ask for Mr. Halstead's appointment. The best place Ohio has secured thus far is that of Second Assistant Postmaster General. Mr. Whitefield, who captured this appointment, is a devoted follower of Gov. Forsaker. "When the Senate reconvenes next winter Mr. Sherman may be found to be one of the most unsparring and severe critics of the administration in that body. Should Mr. Blaine be forced out of the Cabinet the spectacle of Mr. Blaine and Mr. Sherman combining to destroy the Harrison administration would in all probability be presented to the country." Harrison is reported to have been receiving some "frozen truth from the South," whatever that may mean. The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Record, Dem., writes on the 12th inst.: "But Southern politicians who have been inquiring ever since he came here about it have come to think that in the matter of appointments his rule will be to appoint: First, white Republicans of character and standing; second, white Democrats (so-called), or rather Protectionists, hitherto voting the Democratic ticket; and, third, colored Republicans, in the order named—the colored man to be restricted to minor offices where they will not irritate the white people." Nothing can be more irritating than putting negroes in charge of the mail service and postoffices of a free, white people. The correspondent says farther: "He must appoint colored men to important Federal offices in the South, and he must strongly recommend to Congress, in accordance with the Chicago platform, the enactment of a new force bill, which shall put bayonets at the polls if a Republican attorney general thinks they are needed there, if he would hold the colored vote North or South in line. This is one of the crystalline chunks of wisdom which a disinterested Southern Republican gave the President the other day." Senator Vance is always in demand in North Carolina. He is not only popular, but he makes good addresses and that is an attraction. He is not a "single speech Hamilton," but is prolific and ready. He is to deliver the opening address at the Sixth Annual Session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly that begins at Morehead on the 18th June next. We notice that good board will be furnished at $1 a day. "Sunset" Cox's mother, was courted by Gen. William Henry Harrison. She declined. He thinks by the American law of heredity he might have been in the White House now if his mother had accepted the offer of old Tippecanoe. If that had happened neither the able and brilliant Senator nor Benny Harrison would have come to the Presidency, but perhaps another fellow. The Northern Baptists are now discussing the purpose and plan of a great denominational University. They are thinking seriously of putting it in Chicago. It may help the city, but that city is not a good point we may believe for a gathering from the country at large of young men. Chicago is filled with bad people.

Southerland had a careful examination made yesterday by the Government veterinary surgeon, Dr. Wray, of all the horses and mules in his stables and under his charge—one hundred and fifty-two in number—to see if any of the animals were affected with glanders. The doctor made a rigid inspection and found all the stock in a healthy condition and free from disease, and the premises in good sanitary condition.
Savannah Naval Stores Dealers and the Underwood Process.
Circulars issued by the Board of Trade of Savannah, Ga., report the action taken by that body and the exporters and factors in naval stores in that city on what is styled "the adulteration of spirits turpentine by the Underwood process." The circular states that recent analyses made by New York chemists establish the fact that the adulteration is easily detected, and that the trade everywhere is resolved to refuse to deal in the adulterated article and to hold every one dealing in it responsible for damages. The dealers and exporters adopted a resolution to use all means in their power to secure the names of operators suspected of using this method of distillation, and to give notice to factors that they will not at any time purchase or accept as good delivery any products of the stills of parties using this process. It was further resolved to employ counsel and raise a common fund to assist in the prosecution by law, of any operator detected in marketing or selling the substitute as spirits of turpentine.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.
Special Meeting—Estimates for the Departments for the Year.
A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last night at the City Hall. All the members of the Board were present with the exception of Alderman Craft.
Alderman Pearsall, from the Finance Committee, reported in the matter of the petition of the Wilmington Light Infantry, recommending that $500 be appropriated for the company instead of $700, as asked. After debate, the recommendation of the committee was adopted.
The same committee recommended postponement in the matter of appropriating $500 for the use of the Chamber of Industry. A motion to postpone action was adopted.
Estimates for the different departments for the year were submitted and adopted, as follows:
Police.....$18,883 50
Lights..... 9,883 00
Public Buildings..... 2,795 00
Markets and Fees..... 4,890 00
Streets and Wharves..... 12,478 50
Water Works..... 7,750 00
Fire Department..... 10,470 00
Sanitary..... 9,285 00
Permanent Improvement of Streets..... 13,495 40

The Committee on Lights earnestly recommended that the amount needed for five additional electric lights be allowed.
Appropriations for permanent street improvements provide for the paving of Nutt street from Mulberry to the Wilmington and Weldon depot, $6,475, and $1,000 for the purchase of stone curbing, to be placed where required, with a view to the establishment of a permanent grade of streets and drainage.
In the appropriation for sanitary purposes, $4,000 is provided for the purchase of a cremator and site for the same, and $300 for drainage of Jacob's run sewer and the old Tanyard sewer.
Alderman Lane called attention to a hole in the street near Eleventh and Market, which is considered a dangerous obstruction. The matter was referred to the Committee on Streets and Wharves. Also, to a bad place in the sidewalk near the Orton, on Front street. This matter was also referred to the Committee on Streets and Wharves.
The salary of cattle weigher (embraced in the appropriation for markets), was fixed at $400 per annum.
Alderman Loezin, of the Fifth ward, tendered his resignation, on account of business preventing his giving attention to the duties of the office. His resignation was accepted. Applications for building permits were granted to a number of persons, after which the meeting adjourned.

Y. M. C. A.
A very enthusiastic business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held at the rooms last evening, at which, in addition to the usual reports of the committees—all of which show an encouraging progress—forty-two new names were added to the membership roll, making a total of four hundred and ten. After discussion, a resolution was offered that the young men of the Association raise $4,000 to supplement the efforts of the business men's committee in raising $25,000 for the new building. A plan was presented, proposing that 100 young men subscribe $25, 100 $10, and 100 $5, making a total of $4,000.
The list was started off with nine subscriptions of $25 each. Some discussion relative to plans of procedure was had, when it was resolved that a special business meeting be held Friday night, at which time progress on the new plan should be reported.
The Association is determined to push the work of raising money for the building fund as rapidly as possible, and to raise an amount which will reflect great credit on the generosity and energy of the citizens of Wilmington.

Robbery in Maxton.
Last Wednesday night the store of Mr. C. A. Holland, at Maxton, N. C., was broken open and robbed of a quantity of goods, including thirteen pistols, one Winchester rifle and five hams. Mr. Holland says he closed his store about supper time and on his return from a visit in the neighborhood about 11 o'clock, went into the store to get a cigar. He found that the front door was not securely fastened, which he at first supposed was from negligence, and as he entered, his attention was attracted by a noise which he supposed to be hogs under the house. He paid no attention to the matter at the time, but saw that the doors were securely fastened and left. In the morning, however, he found that he had been robbed. The same night a colored man in his employ disappeared, and it was subsequently learned had sold one of the stolen pistols at Bladenboro.
