THE GREAT PRIZE FIGHT

Sullivan and Kilrain Got in Their Sport on Mississippi Soil—An immense crowd in attendance—No interference by the authorities—Kilrain threw up the sponge on the seventh sixth round—Neither of the combatants seriously injured, but both of them seriously punished.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

REMOVAL, Miss. July 8.—The fight between Sullivan and Kilrain for half the prize money for the championship of the world for a fight the people at the hotel, clubs and on the streets in New Orleans moved with common impulse and packed the depot at 11:30 o'clock. The people trusted not to the street cars, but took cabs and carriages, and every Jehu in the city did a land office business. Down at the depot there was an indescribable crush. It seemed as though everybody in the city was going to the fight, and it happened that every body wanted to get aboard at the same time. The railroad company's agreement the holders of lower-rail tickets, who paid dearly for their trip, were forced to go through a narrow passage-way, well guarded with policemen, to reach the cars. At this small opening several hundred people congregated and jostled, pushed and fought to secure admission. Clothes were torn, hats crushed, and nervous people shocked, but the crowd finally got through, and the seven cars of the select train were quickly filled with the thousands of people who were the most prominent people in the city, of business, financial, social and political character. Included bankers, merchants, lawyers, editors, telegraph operators and reporters, and was a cosmopolitan gathering as has ever come together on any occasion.

During the crush pockets tried to get in their work, and one sporting man from the North was relieved of his watch and chain. The greatest difficulty was experienced by the management in keeping people without tickets off the train, and a force of detectives was provided in each car. Some venturesome people, who had no money to pay their way, asked their friends on the roofs of the cars, and it required the strictest watching to discover all who hung on the trucks and other dangerous portions of the coaches.

Just before the train was finally made up Attorney General Rogers came aboard with Adj. General Fair and Col. Clem Walker, of the Governor's staff, and stated that the fight between Sullivan and Kilrain on Louisiana soil. At first no answer was made, but the officials were finally told that the men would not fight in the State. It was expected that troops would appear at the depot, but the companies in the city could muster but part of their men, and the other only a baker's dozen.

In reply to a request made on them by the Governor for train accommodations for troops, the railroad people replied that the State could not be accommodated since all their rolling stock had been chartered. The Governor was, however, in possession of the train with his men on the regular train. Down and battleholder Johnny Murphy were on the train, and all their baggage, stoves, water, etc. were left behind, and Kilrain had to use other water, which it was feared might hurt his condition.

At 10:30 the train, with twelve coaches pulled out, and the conductor and engineer were given instructions to go straight through to the battle ground without stop. About 100 miles from the depot was furnished officially that both Sullivan and Kilrain had reached the battle ground at 6:30. There was scarcely any betting at all on the merits of the two men and sleep.

On the way over many shots were fired in order to frighten off the steers of riders, and the confusion of the train was of a character seldom seen in the history of other out of way places. The discovery of one group of these non-ticket holders almost precipitated a shooting war, but the man over, but the trouble was avoided by the rejection of the sneak.

On the train coming over was the Chief of Police of New Orleans, and in fact most of the prominent officials of the city. The Attorney General and his staff left the car at St. Louis, and stood at the railway station until the morning waiting for the returning train.

The fight takes place at Richburg, which is 92 miles from Meridian and 108 from New Orleans. So perfect are the arrangements that there is absolutely no fear of military interference. Richburg is virtually owned by Mr. Rich, and the place grows an area of 10,000 acres, extending over three counties of Mississippi. Mr. Rich is the owner of an extensive saw-mill, and the place was picked out simply because of the best timber to be had.

Last night after dark a body of one hundred and sixty men went to work by the aid of bonfires to perfect the battle-ground, which is an saw-land, and seats for 1,500 people were hastily constructed. The owner of the property had made splendid arrangements for the pugilists, and room on the property was provided for Kilrain. Quarters were also fitted up for Sullivan and his party. In these apartments the fighters spent the last night before the fight.

At the Mississippi line there were twenty armed men, and the train was flagged, but no attention was paid to the signal, and the special dashed by at a speed of twenty-five miles an hour. It was just before day-break that the train entered Mississippi. The race was pitched, and everything was in readiness for the fight to take place at 8 o'clock.

NEW ORLEANS, July 8.—The Sullivan-Kilrain fight occurred this morning at Richburg, Miss., 108 miles distant from New Orleans. Sullivan won in the 76th round. Neither of the combatants were seriously injured, although Kilrain was very much punished. Sullivan won the first fall and the first knock-down. The fight lasted two hours and eighteen minutes.

Kilrain won the toss for position, and selected the northeast corner, Sullivan taking the southwest.

Just before time was called Kilrain stepped to Sullivan and offered to wager $1,000 on the result, which was promptly accepted by Sullivan, and the money placed in referee Fitzpatrick's hands.

For the first round time was called at 10:10—Kilrain made a vicious pass at Sullivan with his right, landing on the left of the neck. Both clinched, and Kilrain gained the fall.

3d round—Sullivan rushed in and clinched, Sullivan avoiding the clinch and clinching Sullivan a short arm blow in the neck. Sullivan followed with blows on the neck and ribs. Kilrain struck Sullivan twice below the belt. Cries of "foul!" not allowed.

4th round—Kilrain led, landing lightly. A clinch followed, Sullivan on top.

5th round—Kilrain began sparring for wind. Sullivan rushed and gained a cross-buttock lock, but Kilrain broke away. John leading, and landing on the neck. Jake here began Mitchell's tactics, retreating all around the ring. Kilrain landed slightly on Sullivan's neck, Sullivan cross-countering on Sullivan's head. Kilrain went down in his corner.

8th round—Sullivan led, Kilrain countering slightly, doing no damage. Kilrain again went down to avoid punishment.

11th round—Sullivan rushed the fighting, Kilrain going down to avoid punishment.

12th round—Kilrain rushed and clinched, trying to throw John, but failing. Kilrain's blows lacked strength. The round ended with John clinching and throwing Jake heavily.

13th round—Sullivan landed on Kilrain's ribs, the latter playing for the stomach, striking four blows repeatedly.

14th round—Sullivan hit with his left, Kilrain returning with his right, returning with interest on Kilrain's ribs. The latter again went to grass.

15th round—Kilrain rushed at John and was met by heavy right-hander in the jaw, falling heavily.

16th round—Sullivan rushed the fighting, Kilrain going down to avoid punishment.

17th round—Kilrain rushed and clinched, trying to throw John, but failing. Kilrain's blows lacked strength. The round ended with John clinching and throwing Jake heavily.

18th round—Sullivan landed on Kilrain's ribs, the latter playing for the stomach, striking four blows repeatedly.

19th round—Sullivan hit with his left, Kilrain returning with his right, returning with interest on Kilrain's ribs. The latter again went to grass.

20th round—Kilrain rushed at John and was met by heavy right-hander in the jaw, falling heavily.

21st round—Sullivan rushed the fighting, Kilrain going down to avoid punishment.

22nd round—Kilrain was knocked down with a severe right-hander in the jaw.

23rd round—Kilrain was very weak; Sullivan landing repeatedly. Kilrain tried to throw Sullivan by catching him by the legs, then slipped and fell.

24th round—Kilrain growing weaker; feinted and ran away, Sullivan finally knocking him down with a blow in the ribs.

25th round—Sullivan forced the fighting, leading, and landed slightly several times, Kilrain again going down to avoid punishment.

26th round—Kilrain retreated all around the ring. The round ended with Kilrain going down to avoid punishment.

27th round—Kilrain led, landing slightly on Sullivan; the latter finally went down with a right-hander.

28th round—Kilrain went down with a light blow on the jaw, and was cautioned by the referee.

When time was called for the 29th round, Mitchell ran over to Sullivan's corner and asked if he would give Kilrain a present, provided they would throw up the sponge, and Kilrain generously assented. "Of course I will." But Mike Donovan, seeing the condition of his principal, to save him further punishment threw up the sponge, and Kilrain again pronounced his title as Champion of the World.

The only marks on Sullivan were slight cuts under the right eye and another on the left ear. Kilrain's body showed the effect of Sullivan's blows, and he was bleeding at the ears, nose and mouth.

Both men were hurriedly conveyed to the train by their friends and given attention. Sullivan's condition was superior to Kilrain's; the latter looking as if he had been over-trained. At no time, excepting when Sullivan's stomach gave evidence of weakness, was there a doubt as to the final result of the fight.

OFF FOR EUROPE.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The members of the North Carolina School Teachers' Assembly, who have been in this city for the past two days waiting to sail for Europe on the steamship State of Nevada of the State Line, were up bright and early this morning and embarked at the foot of Canal street at 9:30 o'clock. The party, which was quartered at Earle's hotel, after they learned that the Nevada would not sail early, took things good humoredly. Most of them were from the State, and the State of Liberty, and other interesting places around the city. Among those who came to bid the party bon voyage, at the dock this morning, was Gov. Fowle, of N. C., whose daughter accompanies the teachers to Europe. When the steamship backed out from the dock the members of the excursion party gave three cheers for the Governor of North Carolina. The party, which comprises one hundred and five, is in charge of Major Eugene G. Harrell, Secretary of the North Carolina Teachers' Association. The principal places of interest in England, Scotland and Ireland will be visited. Six days will be spent in London and six in Paris.
