CAMP LATIMER.

How the Time was Passed Yesterday—Interesting Religious Services To-day.

Camp Latimer had the appearance of an immense apiary in the midst of a clover field all yesterday, without a single drone.

At nine o'clock drill yesterday the Wilmington Light Infantry had only ten men in ranks.

The health of Camp Latimer is excellent.

A large number of soldiers visited the city yesterday.

The Red STAR will be in camp to-day. Look out for the boys.

The Mulligans have organized and are doing a lively business.

The Governor went fishing yesterday in regular outing costume.

Col. Jno. W. Cotten, of the First Regiment, went down to Southport yesterday afternoon where he will spend Sunday with relatives and friends.

James Grist, of the Washington Light Infantry, can compare favorably with any one in camp as a singer of comic songs.

Drummers Cotten and Williams, of the Edgecombe Guards, are general favorites throughout the camp.

The Red STAR newboys are so popular with the soldiers that they are invited to breakfast with some of the 'messes' every day.

A quartette from the Scotland Neck Cavalry Company treated visitors to some fine vocal music yesterday.

Henry T. Bryan, the well-known Orderly Sergeant of the Edgecombe Guards at the Encampment last year, is with them this year as Second Lieutenant, and not as a private as reported.

A party of ladies and gentlemen were to have taken the pleasure of a sail on the briny deep last night, but it is more than probable the weather interfered.

Lieut. Whitehead, Corporal King and Drummer Thomason, of the Governor's Guard, are about the wittiest and most amusing soldiers in the 1st regiment.

A colored boy went into one of the tents yesterday while the companies were at drill and attempted to steal a valise. A colored boy employed by the company gave the alarm and a lively race ensued.

Capt. H. R. Thorpe is the youngest Captain in the 2d Regiment, and is a son of Capt. J. H. Thorpe, who volunteered to go with Wyatt, of the First N. C. volunteers, at the battle of Bethel, to fire a house behind which the enemy were concealed.

The STAR will lay these short and interesting interviews before its readers from now on.

The services in camp to day will be of an interesting and impressive nature, and should be attended by all who can possibly do so.

Morning service will be conducted at 10.30, by the Rev. Dr. Carmichael; sermon by the Rev. Joseph C. Huske.

In the evening at 5 o'clock the service will be conducted by the Chaplain of the Fourth Regiment; Rev. J. M. Hilyer, of Goldsboro, delivering the sermon.

A large attendance at camp to day would be appreciated by all, and mutually enjoyed.

The programme arranged for the occasion is as follows: 1—Dorch March—Weigand.

2—Serenade, 'Pleasant Dreams'—Ripley.

3—Overture, 'Ideal'—Schloss.

4—Cornet Solo, 'Amazon Polka'—Sim Schloss.

5—'The Prettiest Gavotte'—Warren.

6—Baby Polka—Lantry.

7—Knight's Waltz—Knight.

8—Aggregation Overture—Southwell.

Mr. J. C. L. Bird, of Marion, N. C., who accompanied the remains of the late Morris Bear to this city, returned home yesterday.

'Charley' Harris is holding down the refreshment stand in the pavilion at Camp Latimer. He also deals out the STAR.

The Lumber Bridge Light Infantry had five additions to their ranks yesterday morning.
