OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

A man tried to kill himself in New York the other day, but failed. He was arrested for the offense and placed under bond to answer to the charge in court. If political suicide were a criminal offense, Curporal Tanner would have to be locked up every time he attempted to make a speech .-Charlotte Chronicle

The Democratic party has found most unexpectedly an ally, and a powerful, though unconscious one, in the person of Commissioner Tanner. A party out of power can ask nothing more advantageous to its interests than that the opponent, the party in power, shall be brought into contempt, - Asheville Ottizen.

There are sounds of discord in the Republican camp. Mutterings are heard in all parts of the country It remains to be seen whether or not these discords will teach the Democratic hosts a lesson. - Dur-

Every farmer should unite himself to some agricultural society which holds an annual fair, and he should exert himself to become a useful as well as a working member By doing so be will lift himself up to a higher level, and it will stimulate him to more carefully investigate every new step of progress made in agriculture - Raleigh

POLITICAL POINTS.

- The Republican party of Ohio is hungry and demands food. It is thirsty and wants to drink. Its pistform was a pretense and its candidate's position on it a fraud. It did not have the honesty of what it says are its convictions. Its only appeal to the State of Ohio is: ' Give us the offices that we may grow fat."-Toledo Blade

- The farmers of Vermont are so well "protected" that some of them are unable longer to make a living off of their farms; but with a bard-headedness something akin to the hardness of their granite rocks those of them who remain still worship at the high tariff shrine and lick the hand that smites them .- Phil. Record,

- Like other Administration leaders, Assistant Postmaster-General Clarkson dearly loves the old soldier-provided he be a subservient follower of the Republican machine. The Democratic old soldier he detests because his very existence is an unpleasant reminder of the fact that it is to the loyalty and the valor of Democrats, who sunk all party differences when their country was in danger, that the preservation of the Union was due - New York Star Dem.
