WHEN they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Baranparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and tonics. To thomsands yearly it proyes a varitable altair of life.

Mrs. Jos. Laks, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes "Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered unsid agony. I was reduced almost to a excision, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distrussed me, and only the most deliour could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians routed me without giving relief. Noth my that I took seemed to do any per-manent good intil I began the use of type's Saruap rills, which has pro-Jucoil wonderful results. "Big time to-night " the drummers said, As to supper they sat them down : To-morrow's Sunday, and now's ou chance To illuminate the town."

"Good !" cries Bill Barnes, the jolliest-

The favorite of all; 'Yes; let's forget our troubles now And hold high carnival."

The supper done the mail arrives; Each man his letters scanning. With fresh quotations-up or down-His busy brain is cramming.

Bull Bill-why what's come over him-Why turned so quick about ? He says, just as his pards start forth, "I guess I won't go out."

His letter bore no written word, No prayer from vice to flee: Only a tracing of a hand-A baby hand-of three.

What picture comes before his mind-What does his memory paint ? A baby hand at mother's knee-His little white robed saint

What cares a man for ridicule Who wins a victory grand? Bill alept in peace, his brow was smoothed By a shadowy little hand.

Naught lize the weak things of this world The power of sin withstands: No shield between man's soul and wrong Like a little baby hand.

GRESHAM ON CLEVELAND.

Republican's Estimate of the Man of Destiny.

A special from Columbus, Wis., to the Milwaukee Journal, says:

Judge Walter Q. Gresham, who passed through this city the other day, talked politics freely with a gentleman whom he met on the train. He admitted that Harrison's administration is not proving a success, and he gave his opinion as to the causes. As he was not speaking for publication, and his criticisms of the President were quite personal, it is not fair to give them for publication. The significant part of the Judge's remarks was regarding ex-President Cleveland. He spoke in very high M terms of Mr. Cleveland's administration, and said it was remarkable how fast the people are coming to look upon him as a very strong and courageous man, who did his duty under N

He Never Struck His Children. New York Tribune.

"I have never struck my two children," said a young American father the other day, "though I have often been tempted strongly to it, and sometimes would not have blamed any parent for doing so. But I was thrashed so much by my own father. good enongh man, too, that I always stood in fear of him, seldom told him the trath if I could help it, and never confided in him. Often I was whipped for errors I had committed with good intentions, and I remember the wild spirit of hatred that used to come over me at such times, when, smarting under the blows I felt I did not deserve, I would get away by myself and swear silent but bitter oaths that would have opened the old gentleman's eyes to his folly, perhaps, if he could have heard them from so young a child. So I made a vow that I would never beat 'my own children. And now I feel sure that they do not stand in physical fear of me, I am pretty certain they tell me the truth, and I know they confide in me as a friend. And though they do not obey me nearly as implicitly as I did my father, and make themselves much more of a nuisance to me than I was to him, yet they don't regard me; as a bully, and that is someimportant work, and that so many rich thing."
